SECTION 3. Section 396-10, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

"§396-10 Violations and penalties. (a) Any employer who violates this chapter, or any occupational safety and health standard promulgated hereunder or any rule issued under the authority of this chapter, or who violates or fails to comply with any citation, notice, or order made under or by virtue of this chapter or under or by virtue of any rule of the department, or who defaces, displaces, destroys, damages, or removes without the authority of the department any safety device, safeguards, notice, or warning required by this chapter or any rule of the department may be assessed a civil penalty as specified in this chapter.

(b) Any employer who has received an order or citation for a serious violation of any standard or rule adopted pursuant to this chapter shall be assessed a civil penalty of not more than $12,675 for each violation.

(c) Any employer who has received an order or citation for a violation of any standard or rule adopted pursuant to this chapter, and the violation is specifically determined not to be of a serious nature, may be assessed a civil penalty of up to $12,675 for each violation.

H.B. NO. 2374

1 (d) Each day a violation continues shall constitute a
2 separate violation except that during an abatement period only,
3 no additional penalty shall be levied against the employer.

4 (e) Any employer who violates any of the posting
5 requirements prescribed under this chapter shall be assessed a
6 civil penalty of up to $12,675 for each violation.

7 (f) Any employer who wilfully or repeatedly violates this
8 chapter, or any standard, rule, citation, or order issued under
9 the authority of this chapter, shall be assessed a civil penalty
10 of not more than $126,749 for each violation, but not less than 11 $9,054 for each wilful violation.

12 (g) Any employer convicted of wilful or repeated
13 violations of any standard, rule, citation, or order issued
14 under the authority of this chapter resulting in the death of an
15 employee shall be punished by a fine of not more than $126,749
16 or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or both, except
17 that if the conviction is for a violation committed after a
18 first conviction, punishment shall be by a fine of not more than 19 $126,749 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.
20 Failure to correct a violation for which an order or citation of 21 arrest has been issued shall be evidence of wilful conduct.

H.B. NO. 2374

1           (h) Any employer who has received an order for violation
2 under section 396-8(e) may be assessed a civil penalty of not
3 more than $9,054 for each violation.

4           (i) Any person who gives advance notice of any inspection
5 to be conducted under this chapter, without authority from the
6 director or the director's designees shall, upon conviction, be
7 punished by a fine of not more than $9,054 or by imprisonment
8 for not more than six months, or by both.

9           (j) The director shall have authority to assess all civil 10 penalties provided in this section, giving due consideration to 11 the appropriateness of the penalty with respect to the size of 12 the business of the employer being charged, the gravity of the 13 violation, the good faith of the employer, and the history of 14 previous violations.

15           (k) Civil penalties imposed under this chapter shall be 16 paid to the department and may be recovered by civil action in
17 the name of the department and the State brought in the district
18 or circuit court for the circuit where the violation is alleged
19 to have occurred or where the employer has its principal office.

20           (l) When an alleged violation of any provision of this
21 chapter or any standard, rule, or order made pursuant to this
22 chapter has occurred, the department shall promptly issue a

1 written citation, order, or notice thereof to the employer who
2 shall be required to post the citation, order, or notice. The
3 citation, order, or notice thereof shall include the abatement
4 requirements and within a reasonable time the employer shall be
5 advised of the proposed sanctions, including proposed penalties.
6 Whenever reference is made to posting of any citation, order,
7 notice, petition, decision, or any other type of document issued
8 by the director under this chapter and rules adopted pursuant to 9 this chapter, the employer shall post copies of the document at 10 the work site involved or affected and at the place or places
11 where notices to the employees involved are normally posted.
12 Where posting starts the time for notice of action to or for 13 appeal by employees under this chapter and rules adopted under 14 this chapter, the document shall be posted by the employer upon
15 receipt or on the next business day following receipt.

16 (m) Whoever knowingly makes any false statement,
17 representation, or certification in any application, record,
18 report, plan, or other document filed or required to be
19 maintained pursuant to this chapter shall, upon conviction, be
20 punished by a fine of not more than $11,000, or by imprisonment
21 for not more than six months, or by both.

H.B. NO. 2374

(n) Criminal offenses committed against any employee of the State acting within the scope of the employee's office, employment, or authority under this chapter shall be subject to the penalties set forth in the Hawaii Penal Code; provided that:

JUSTIFICATION SHEET

DEPARTMENT: Labor and Industrial Relations

TITLE: A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS.

PURPOSE: To establish the Labor Law Enforcement Special Fund and two positions to strengthen enforcement of labor laws by more aggressively collecting outstanding assessed penalties.

To allow the Department of the Attorney General to hire an attorney and a legal assistant to collect penalties on behalf of the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations.

To amend the Occupational Safety and Health and Payment of Wages and Other Compensation Laws to direct the deposit of penalties to the Labor Law Enforcement Special Fund.

Makes an appropriation of $98,163 in seed money for the Labor Law Enforcement Special Fund and an equal appropriation out of the Fund for the purposes of the Act.

MEANS: Add a new section to chapter 371, Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS), and amend sections 388-10 and 396-10, HRS.

JUSTIFICATION: This proposal is intended to enhance the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations' (Department) ability to enforce labor laws. Specifically, the Department of the Attorney General intends to hire an attorney to help ensure that penalties for violations of law are collected by the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations.

Currently, the Department's attempts to collect fines have resulted in a backlog of cases and more than $2,705,024 in accounts receivable. The Department believes that hiring an attorney and a legal assistant to pursue these collections would greatly improve its capacity to collect these penalties and efficiently effectuate the intent of labor law.

This proposal requests $98,163 in seed moneys to establish the Labor Law Enforcement Special Fund. Collection of penalties under Occupational Safety and Health and Payment of Wages and Other Compensation Laws will serve as the source of funding for the special fund moving forward.

The Department deposited $5,164,393 in Occupational Safety and Health penalties into the General Fund between fiscal years 2014-2015 to 2016-2017. Act 135, Session Laws of Hawaii 2017, established a minimum administrative penalty of $500 for violations of chapter 388, HRS, Payment of Wages and Other Compensation Law. This new administrative penalty also would be deposited into the special fund if this bill is enacted.

If enacted, this proposal will result in a self-sustaining special fund while also increasing the current amount of moneys going into the general fund due to the increased collections by the Department. Act 126, Session Laws of Hawaii 2017, significantly increased penalties imposed under section 396-10, HRS, and directs the Director to adjust the penalties on an annual basis to reflect increases in the Consumer Price Index.

Impact on the public: This measure will increase the enforcement of labor laws and thereby enhance the protections afforded by the laws administered by the Department.

Impact on the department and other agencies: This proposal will increase the capacity of the Department's divisions involved in enforcement.

GENERAL FUND:

$98,163 in appropriations to the Labor Law Enforcement Special Fund for start-up costs until the program revenue sustains the program.

OTHER FUNDS: None.

PPBS PROGRAM
DESIGNATION: LBR902.

OTHER AFFECTED
AGENCIES: Department of the Attorney General

EFFECTIVE DATE: July 1, 2018.
