places, illustrating the cultural importance of retaining these Hawaiian place names; and

WHEREAS, official signage, maps, tourism guidebooks, and advertisements rarely display Hawaiian place names, leaving tourists or newcomers to the islands potentially unaware of Hawaiian place names, and the cultural and historical significance of certain locations to the people of Hawaii; and

WHEREAS, the usage of Hawaiian names to refer to Hawaiian places and geographical features are increasingly referred to using non-Hawaiian names, for example the reference to "Lē'ahi" as the "Diamond Head" or reference to "Mokoli'i" island as "Chinaman's Hat"; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the Twenty-ninth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2018, the Senate concurring, that state offices, including state educational entities and recreational facilities, are urged to use Hawaiian names as the sole common names of Hawaii's places and geographical features; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that signage, maps and promotional materials issued by the State or other agencies include Hawaiian place names; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that when a particular office, for a particular reason, sees a need to use an English name, that the Hawaiian name be used when applicable and accurate, e.g., "Tantalus Lookout" can be used to clarify a meeting location, but should also be accompanied by the Hawaiian name, "Pu'u 'Ualaka'a"; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that when translating names into languages other than English or Hawaiian, the translating agency will attempt to retain the original meaning of the Hawaiian name in its translation, for example in a travel brochure on "Yokohama Bay", the Hawaiian name "Keawa'ula" be utilized as the the basis for the direct translation, as opposed to "Yokohama bay"; and

 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that in the written use of names of Hawai'i's places and geographical features, that the full spelling including the 'okina and kahakō be used in order to further inform the public of the proper pronunciation of such terms and promote such proper pronunciation; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that government employees are encouraged to pronounce the names of Hawai'i's places and geographical features properly, as pronounced in the Hawaiian language, and that those who are unfamiliar with the rules of pronouncing the Hawaiian language from the full spelling system be encouraged to learn to do so; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that local media, private schools, the tourism industry and other businesses, and the general public are urged to also follow the above described practices to preserve what Hawaiian terms are still in use, increase the use of Hawaiian names that have already been largely replaced by English names, and to encourage research into terms that have been lost; and

 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Chairperson of the Board of Education, the Chairperson of the Charter School Commission, the Chairperson of the Board of Regents and the President of the University of Hawai'i, the Hawai'i Association of Independent Schools, the Hawai'i Association of Broadcasters, the two largest newspapers in each of the counties, and the President of the Hawai'i Tourism Authority.
