SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

REQUESTING ALL STATE AGENCIES TO TAKE ACTION TO ASSIST THE STATE IN ACHIEVING THE SEVENTEEN UNITED NATIONS SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS AND INDICATORS BY 2030.

WHEREAS, the World Conservation Congress Hawai'i Commitments of 2016 declare that "[w]e must undertake profound transformations in how human societies live on Earth, with particular attention to making our patterns of production and consumption more sustainable. We must recognize that human health and wellbeing depend on healthy ecosystems. We must recognize that every form of life has value - regardless of its worth to humans."; and

WHEREAS, Hawai'i has been a leader in conservation efforts for decades, through its commitment to environmental and sustainability policies; and

WHEREAS, in the 1970s, the State enacted the State Environmental Policy, chapter 344, Hawaii Revised Statutes, as a mechanism to set environmental goals that, while comprehensive, lacked measurable indicators and enforcement means; and

WHEREAS, the challenges facing our natural environment worldwide have changed remarkably since the 1970s, and the laws enacted in Hawai'i in recent decades have served as a starlight for other jurisdictions and set a global example on how to adopt policies on sustainability; and

WHEREAS, recently, several approaches to sustainability have emerged in Hawai'i, including the Aloha+ Challenge, the Governor's Sustainable Hawai'i Initiative, and other initiatives inspired by the Mālama Honua Worldwide Voyage and Mālama Hawai'i; and

WHEREAS, in July of 2014, the State launched the Aloha+ Challenge: He Nohona 'Ae'oia, A Culture of Sustainability, a statewide commitment to sustainability, with the leadership of the Governor, four county mayors, Office of Hawaiian Affairs, Legislature, and Hawai'i Green Growth public-private partners across the State that builds on the State's history of systems thinking, Hawaiian culture and values, and successful track record on sustainability to outline six ambitious goals to be achieved by 2030, which include:

(1) Clean energy: Achieve seventy percent clean energy, with forty percent from renewables and thirty percent from efficiency;

(2) Local food: At least double local food production for local consumption;

 (3) Natural resource management: Reverse the trend of natural resource loss mauka to makai by increasing freshwater security, watershed protection, community-based marine management, invasive species control, and restoration of native species;

(4) Waste reduction: Reduce the solid waste stream prior to disposal by seventy percent through source reduction, recycling, bioconversion, and landfill diversion methods;

(5) Smart sustainable communities: Increase livability and resilience in the built environment through planning and implementation at the state and county levels; and

(6) Green workforce and education: Increase local green jobs and education to implement these goals; and

WHEREAS, to increase the efforts of the Aloha+ Challenge, the Governor launched the Sustainable Hawai'i Initiative in 2016, which includes five goals:

(1) Double local food production by 2020;

(2) Implement the State's interagency biosecurity plan by 2027;

(3) Protect thirty percent of the highest priority watersheds by 2030;

(4) Manage thirty percent of nearshore ocean waters by 2030; and

(5) Achieve one hundred percent renewable energy in electricity by 2045; and

WHEREAS, in May of 2014, Hōkūle'a began a three-year voyage across the world's oceans carrying the message of Mālama Honua - to care for the Earth - building on the legacy of the Polynesian way finders, to inspire actions of conservation across the Hawaiian islands and beyond, resulting in the connection of a lei of aloha around the globe; and

WHEREAS, at the global level, the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals, the World Conservation Congress Hawai'i Commitments of 2016, and the Paris Climate Agreement have been adopted to guide global efforts; and

WHEREAS, the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), otherwise known as the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, were born at the United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development in Rio de Janeiro in 2012, came into force in 2015, and are a universal call to action to end poverty, protect the planet, and ensure that all people enjoy peace and prosperity; and

WHEREAS, the seventeen SDGs are interconnected and work in the spirit of partnership and pragmatism to make the right choices now to improve life, in a sustainable way, for future generations; they provide a clear framework for action to guide countries in accordance with their own priorities and the environmental challenges of the world at large; and they tackle the root causes of poverty and unite us to make a positive change for both people and planet; and

 WHEREAS, dealing with the threat of climate change impacts how we manage our fragile natural resources, achieving gender equality and better health helps eradicate poverty, and fostering peace and inclusive societies will reduce inequalities and help economies prosper; the SDGs are voluntary commitments to thereby make the world a better and more prosperous place; and

WHEREAS, during September 2016, over ten thousand leaders from government, civil society, indigenous communities, faith and spiritual traditions, the private sector, and academia gathered in Hawai'i for a meeting of the International Union for Conservation of Nature World Conservation Congress where the delegates adopted the World Conservation Congress Hawai'i Commitments to achieve the transformation required to promote a "Culture of Conservation", consisting of seven identified challenges and proposed solutions, including:

(1) Linking spirituality, religion, culture, and conservation;

(2) Engaging and empowering youth;

(3) The challenge of sustaining the global food supply and conserving nature;

(4) The challenge of preserving the health of the world ocean:

(5) The challenge of ending wildlife trafficking;

(6) The challenge of engaging with the private sector; and

(7) The challenge of climate change; and

WHEREAS, the Hawai'i Commitments build on the Paris Climate Agreement and the SDGs to allow different global voices to come together and find common ground in the spirit of partnership, collaboration, and sustainability; and

WHEREAS, in order for Hawai'i to continue to serve as a starlight for the rest of the world in setting policies on sustainability and to serve as global leader on issues of conservation and sustainability, it is essential that the State demonstrate its full commitment to its own policies and goals as well as the goals set on the international stage at United Nations conferences and summits on sustainability; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Twenty-ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2018, the House of Representatives concurring, that, in pursuance of the State's sustainability goals, all state agencies are requested to take action to assist the State in achieving the seventeen United Nations sustainable development goals and indicators by 2030, unless otherwise indicated; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that all state agencies are requested to take action to assist the State to specifically achieve the following:

(1) Goal 1. No poverty. End poverty in all its forms everywhere;

(A) Eradicate extreme poverty for all people in Hawai'i, currently measured as a family of four living on less than $89 a day;

(B) Reduce at least by half the number of men, women, and children of all ages living below the federal poverty level;

(C) Implement appropriate social protection systems and measures for all, including floors, and achieve substantial coverage of the poor and the vulnerable;

(D) Ensure that all men and women, in particular the poor and the vulnerable, have equal rights to economic resources, as well as access to basic services, ownership and control over property, inheritance, natural resources, appropriate new technology, and financial services, including microfinance; and

(E) Build the resilience of the poor and those in vulnerable situations and reduce their exposure
