Aloha. 'O Kau'inohea Peneku ko'u inoa. I am a mother of two young daughters and we are of native Hawaiian descent. It is our 'ohana's goal along with many other 'ohana throughout our Hawaiian Islands to see our native language, culture, practices, and people thrive. The only way that this will be at all possible is if we make it a priority to ensure that the programs, organizations, leaders, etc. which teach, support and perpetuate our language and culture have what they need in order to do so. My 'ohana and I support Bill SB2952. E ola ka 'olelo Hawai'i!

Comments:

The Queen's birthday should not be memorialized on the same day as Labor Day. The two are separate and important dates in history. Combining the two causes confusion and does not honor the working men and women of Hawaii nor the Queens legacy.
