

Kalani m nako

Born and raised on maui, married with 1 child (son)

Objective: To help the community

Work experience: Ive worked in the electrical supplier business for the last 30years, 3 years as a warehouseman truck driver for amfac electrical, 4 years as counter sales /inside sales at excel electrical supply and 2 years as outside sales for excel electrical supply, and the last 21 years as outside sales for alpha electric supply co.

Job: as a truck driver my responsibilitys Are to verify paper work,loading and delivering of materials to Various jobsites and contractors , as a counter salesman, helping customers at the walk up counter and phone calls, product knowledge and customer service is essential. as an outside salesman my job requires me to secure sales from bid projectes and establishing customer relations , product knowledge and customer service are essential in the sales business.

High school education: lahainaluna high school, 4 year border, graduation class of . Various classes for electrical supplier job> electrical Tech schooling eaton corp for apparatus and commercial application.

Skills: good computer skills, as well as basic under standing of computer use,internet use.

current Fork lift operator authorization (current training renewed 3-29-13, valid too 3-29-16). Warehousing skills and understanding of safety.

I have a current hunters education # 39894, I am associated with aukai archers clubmaui, also Molokai bowhunters club, im also on various eradication permits on various properties here on maui, I also have mentored a hand full of younger bowhunters and diving and ulua fishermen since 1989