Report Title:

Criminal History Record Checks; University of Hawaii

Description:

Adds the University of Hawaii to the list of agencies that are authorized to conduct criminal history record checks on current or prospective employees, including student employees and contractors and their employees, whose positions or duties are related to public safety.

The summary description of legislation appearing on this page is for informational purposes only and is not legislation or evidence of legislative intent.

JUSTIFICATION SHEET

DEPARTMENT:

University of Hawaii

TITLE:

A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CRIMINAL

HISTORY RECORD CHECKS.

PURPOSE:

To add the University of Hawaii to the list of agencies that are authorized to conduct criminal history record checks.

MEANS:

Amend section 846-2.7(b), Hawaii Revised Statutes.

JUSTIFICATION:

University of Hawaii campuses have departments of public safety with responsibilities such as protecting persons and property; receiving reports of crimes; including sexual assaults; and providing walking escorts and vehicle transportation from dusk to dawn for persons alone on campus at night.

This bill is to expressly provide authority to the University of Hawaii to conduct criminal background checks on persons who will be entrusted with the security of campus facilities and persons.

Impact on the public: The impact on the public should be positive in that the bill allows the University of Hawaii to ensure the reputable and responsible character of applicants, employees, contractors and students who are entrusted with the safety of employees, students, and visitors at the University.

Impact on the department and other agencies:
The University of Hawaii may incur a small financial cost to conduct the criminal history records checks, but the cost is outweighed by the gain of ensuring the reputable and responsible character of persons entrusted with the safety of persons and facilities at the University. The University anticipates absorbing the additional costs used to conduct any criminal background checks. On average, the University hires approximately fifteen (15)

Security Officers annually.

GENERAL FUND: None.

OTHER FUNDS: None.
