

CHERYL E. INOUE

EDUCATION:

Master's Degree in Social Work
University of Hawaii

Bachelor of Science Degree in Human Development
University of Hawaii

WORK EXPERIENCE:

- 2001 - 2017 Social Worker VI, Judiciary, Adult Client Services Branch
Supervisor: Ronald Hajime/Janice Yamada/Cheryl Marlow/Sidney Nakamoto
- Serve as one of the principal assistants to the Probation Administrator, and responsible for the organization, operation and performance of a section engaged in the supervision and treatment of high risk probationers.
- 1989 - 2001 Social Worker V, Judiciary, Adult Client Services Branch, Sex Offender Unit
Supervisor: Ronald T. Hajime (retired)
- Responsible for the operations and management of a unit of probation officers engaged in the supervision and treatment of felony sex offenders; represent the Judiciary on the Sex Offender Treatment Team; and provide technical assistance to neighbor island circuits.
- 1983 - 1989 Social Worker IV, Judiciary, Adult Probation Division, Presentence Branch
Supervisor: Elisabeth Cattaneo
- Conduct and complete presentence investigations and reports, assess offender needs and recommend sentencing interventions.
- 1982 - 1983 Social Worker III, Judiciary, Adult Probation Division, Presentence Branch
Supervisor: Wayne Wong (retired)
- Conduct and complete presentence investigations and reports at the journeyman level.

WORK-RELATED ACTIVITIES/ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- 2007 – 2017 Member of the Criminal Justice Interdisciplinary Team
- 2004 – 2017 Co-developed Hawaii's Opportunity Probation with Enforcement (HOPE) for high risk/high needs felony probationers and provided ongoing consultation.
- 2002 – 2017 Member of the statewide Interagency Council on Intermediate Sanctions. Member of the Training Subcommittee responsible for organizing and developing training in risk assessment, motivational interviewing, cognitive-behavioral therapy (CBT), and case planning for criminal justice staff. Co-authored CBT curriculum.
- 2000 – 2017 Developed and administered the first specialized drug offender probation unit (established policies and procedures and supervision guidelines) and continually assessed the need for program adjustments to reflect evidence-based practices.
- 1989 – 2017 Developed and administered Hawaii's first specialized sex offender probation unit (established policies and procedures, supervision guidelines, and scope of services for contracted assessment, treatment and electronic monitoring services). Continually assess the need for program adjustments to reflect evidence-based practices.
- 1989 – 2017 Judiciary representative for the Hawaii Sex Offender Management Team, established by Chapter 353E, HRS, to set standards and guidelines for statewide sex offender assessment, treatment, and supervision for felony sex offenders.

Served as the Judiciary representative for the Domestic Violence Working Group, convened by the Attorney General in response to 1999 HCR 65, HD1. Submitted grant proposal and received funding to establish specialization for the treatment and supervision of felony domestic violence offenders, including risk assessment in collaboration with victims, long-term treatment and polygraph testing. Developed policies and procedures, and operationalized the unit.

CERTIFICATION:

- 1995 Passed ACSW and LSW certification examination.