The Honorable Scott K. Saiki,

House of Representatives
Thirty First State Legislature
State Capitol, Room 431
Honolulu, Hawai'i 96813

Dear President Kouchi, Speaker Saiki, and Members of the Legislature:

This is to inform you that on July 6, 2021, the following bill was signed into law:

HB1322 HD1 SD2

RELATING TO TRAUMA-INFORMED CARE.
ACT 209 (21)

Sincerely,

DAVID Y. IGE
Governor, State of Hawai'i

A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO TRAUMA-INFORMED CARE.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that research conducted
2 over the last two decades in the fields of neuroscience,
3 molecular biology, public health, genomics, and epigenetics
4 reveal that experiences in the first few years of life build 5 changes into the biology of the human body that, in turn,
6 influence a person's physical, mental, and spiritual health.
7 Adverse childhood experiences are traumatic experiences that 8 occur during childhood, including physical, emotional, or sexual 9 abuse; physical and emotional neglect; household dysfunction, 10 including substance abuse, untreated mental illness, or 11 incarceration of a household member; domestic violence; and 12 separation or divorce involving household members. These 13 experiences can have a profound effect on a child's developing 14 brain and body and, if not treated properly, can increase a 15 person's risk for disease and other poor health conditions
16 through adulthood.

1 The legislature further finds that early adverse childhood
2 experiences shape the physical architecture of a child's 3 developing brain and can prevent the development of a sturdy 4 foundation for learning, quality health, and positive behavior.
5 Strong, frequent, or prolonged stress in childhood caused by 6 adverse childhood experiences can become toxic stress, impacting 7 the development of a child's fundamental brain architecture and 8 stress response systems. Early childhood education offers a 9 unique window of opportunity to prevent and heal the impacts of 10 adverse childhood experiences and toxic stress on a child's 11 brain, body, and spirit. Research on toxic stress and adverse 12 childhood experiences indicates a growing public health crisis
13 for the State with implications for the State's educational,
14 juvenile justice, criminal justice, and public health systems.

15 The legislature also finds that neurobiological,
16 epigenetics, and physiological studies have shown that traumatic
17 experiences in childhood and adolescence can diminish
18 concentration, memory, and the organizational language abilities
19 students need to succeed in school, thereby negatively impacting 20 a student's academic performance, classroom behavior, and the 21 ability to form relationships. A critical factor in buffering

1 children from the effects of toxic stress and adverse childhood
2 experiences is the existence of supportive, stable relationships
3 between children and their families, caregivers, and other 4 important adults in their lives. Cultural practices that 5 provide asset-based approaches involving the influence of a 6 stable non-relative adult can provide the resilience needed to 7 mitigate a child with high adverse childhood experiences.
8 Positively influencing the architecture of a child's developing 9 brain is more effective and less costly than attempting to 10 correct poor learning, health, and behaviors later in life.

11 The purpose of this Act is to establish a task force to 12 develop and make recommendations for trauma-informed care in the 13 State.

14 SECTION 2. (a) There is established within the department
