4 daily increase of the fine. The county shall not
5 be required to include a social security number,
6 state general excise taxpayer identification
7 number, or federal employer identification number
8 on the notice. Recordation of the notice in the 9 bureau of conveyances shall be deemed, at such 10 time, for all purposes and without any further 11 action, to procure a lien on land registered in 12 land court under chapter 501. After the unpaid 13 civil fines are added to the taxes, fees, or 14 charges as specified by county ordinance, the 15 unpaid civil fines shall be deemed immediately
16 due, owing, and delinquent and may be collected 17 in any lawful manner. The procedure for 18 collection of unpaid civil fines authorized in 19 this paragraph shall be in addition to any other
20 procedures for collection available to the State
21 and county by law or rules of the courts;

H.B. NO. 1060

1           (C) Each county may impose civil fines upon any 2           person who places graffiti on any real or 3           personal property owned, managed, or maintained
4           by the county. The fine may be up to $1,000 or 5           may be equal to the actual cost of having the 6           damaged property repaired or replaced. The 7           parent or guardian having custody of a minor who 8           places graffiti on any real or personal property
9           owned, managed, or maintained by the county shall 10          be jointly and severally liable with the minor 11          for any civil fines imposed hereunder. Any such 12          fine may be administratively imposed after an 13          opportunity for a hearing under chapter 91, but 14          such a proceeding shall not be a prerequisite for 15          any civil fine ordered by any court. As used in 16          this subparagraph, "graffiti" means any 17          unauthorized drawing, inscription, figure, or 18          mark of any type intentionally created by paint,
19          ink, chalk, dye, or similar substances;

20          (D) At the completion of an appeal in which the 21          county's enforcement action is affirmed and upon 22          correction of the violation if requested by the

H.B. NO. 1060

1 violator, the case shall be reviewed by the 2 county agency that imposed the civil fines to 3 determine the appropriateness of the amount of 4 the civil fines that accrued while the appeal
5 proceedings were pending. In its review of the 6 amount of the accrued fines, the county agency 7 may consider:

- 8 (i) The nature and egregiousness of the 9 violation;
- 10 (ii) The duration of the violation;
- 11 (iii) The number of recurring and other similar 12 violations;
- 13 (iv) Any effort taken by the violator to correct
14 the violation;
- 15 (v) The degree of involvement in causing or 16 continuing the violation;
- 17 (vi) Reasons for any delay in the completion of 18 the appeal; and
- 19 (vii) Other extenuating circumstances.

20 The civil fine that is imposed by administrative 21 order after this review is completed and the 22 violation is corrected shall be subject to

H.B. NO. 1060

1                   judicial review, notwithstanding any provisions
2                   for administrative review in county charters;
3           (E) After completion of a review of the amount of 4                   accrued civil fine by the county agency that 5                   imposed the fine, the amount of the civil fine 6                   determined appropriate, including both the 7                   initial civil fine and any accrued daily civil 8                   fine, shall immediately become due and 9                   collectible following reasonable notice to the 10                  violator. If no review of the accrued civil fine
11                  is requested, the amount of the civil fine, not 12                  to exceed the total accrual of civil fine prior 13                  to correcting the violation, shall immediately
14                  become due and collectible following reasonable
15                  notice to the violator, at the completion of all 16                  appeal proceedings; and 17           (F) If no county agency exists to conduct appeal
18                  proceedings for a particular civil fine action
19                  taken by the county, then one shall be 20                  established by ordinance before the county shall 21                  impose the civil fine;

H.B. NO. 1060

1 (25) Any law to the contrary notwithstanding, any county
2 mayor, by executive order, may exempt donors, provider
3 agencies, homeless facilities, and any other program
4 for the homeless under part XVII of chapter 346 from 5 real property taxes, water and sewer development fees, 6 rates collected for water supplied to consumers and 7 for use of sewers, and any other county taxes,
8 charges, or fees; provided that any county may enact
9 ordinances to regulate and grant the exemptions
10 granted by this paragraph;

11 (26) Any county may establish a captive insurance company
12 pursuant to article 19, chapter 431; and

13 (27) Each county shall have the power to enact and enforce 14 ordinances regulating towing operations."
