
HOUSE RESOLUTION

URGING THE HAWAII STATE COMMISSION ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN TO CONVENE AN INTER-GOVERNMENTAL FEMINIST ECONOMIC RECOVERY
WORKING GROUP.

1 WHEREAS, the virus known as SARS-CoV-2 causes a disease
2 named coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), which spread globally
3 and was declared a pandemic by the World Health Organization on 4 March 11, 2020; and

5
6 WHEREAS, upon reaching Hawaii, the COVID-19 outbreak
7 disrupted the local economy, leaving hundreds of thousands of 8 residents unemployed, underemployed, or facing financial 9 hardship; and

10
11 WHEREAS, low-wage workers were disproportionately harmed by 12 Hawaii's economic downturn, which worsened their financial 13 precarity and left thousands of working families unable to pay
14 for food, housing, electricity, and other necessities; and

15
16 WHEREAS, at the peak of Hawaii's economic downturn, the 17 State experienced levels of unemployment not seen since the 18 Great Depression, according to the United States Bureau of Labor 19 Statistics; and

20
21 WHEREAS, women have been disproportionately harmed by the 22 economic crisis and potential cuts to government services
23 because they earn less than men for substantially similar work; 24 and

25
26 WHEREAS, women in Hawaii are also at greater risk of 27 contracting COVID-19 due to women representing nearly two-thirds 28 of frontline essential workers in the State; and

29
30 WHEREAS, women additionally account for more than fifty
31 percent of jobs lost since February 2020 and continue to perform

1 the majority of household and care-giving activities that 2 prevent them from engaging in full-time paid work; and

3
4 WHEREAS, according to a survey by LeanIn.org, a nonprofit
5 organization dedicated to helping women achieve their goals,
6 eighty percent of mothers have taken on more household work
7 since the COVID-19 pandemic began; and

8
9 WHEREAS, a report by the United Nations Educational,
10 Scientific, and Cultural Organization noted that ninety-one 11 percent of the world's students were affected by school and 12 childcare closures caused by the pandemic; and

13
14 WHEREAS, the Hawaii State Commission on the Status of Women
15 issued a report in April 2020 entitled "Building Bridges, Not 16 Walking On Backs: Feminist Economic Recovery Plan for COVID-19", 17 which called for transitioning to an economy that better values
18 the essential work that sustains communities in the State; and

19
20 WHEREAS, in June 2020, the Maui County Council adopted a 21 resolution in support of a feminist economic recovery plan and 22 on July 8, 2020, the Hawaii County Council passed a resolution
23 urging the county administration to consider gender differences
24 in its response to COVID-19; now, therefore,

25
26 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 27 Thirty-first Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session
28 of 2021, that the Hawaii State Commission on the Status of Women 29 is urged to convene an inter-governmental feminist economic 30 recovery working group; and

31
32 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the working group is requested
33 to develop a framework for an economic recovery that addresses
34 the social, economic, ecological, and health care gaps exposed 35 by the pandemic and that promotes gender equity; and

36
37 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the working group is requested
38 to specifically consider:

- 1 (1) The economic impact of COVID-19 on women and gender
2 nonconforming individuals, especially with regard to 3 employees working in majority-female industries;
4
- 5 (2) Pandemic-related challenges facing caregivers and 6 methods for improving the State's social care
7 infrastructure;
8
- 9 (3) The effect of COVID-19 and stay-at-home orders on 10 victims of gender violence, including sexual abuse,
11 domestic violence, and sex trafficking;
12
- 13 (4) Distribution of public and private sector resources
14 for programs that serve women and gender nonconforming
15 individuals, including in the areas of child care,
16 health care, housing, education, digital and 17 information technology, and financial support; and 18
- 19 (5) Approaches for expanding women's and gender
20 nonconforming individuals' access to male-dominant
21 industries that provide opportunities for economic 22 diversification, including renewable energy,
23 sustainable agriculture, information technology, and 24 construction trades; and
25

26 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the working group is requested
27 to consist of the following members:
28

- 29 (1) The Executive Director of the Hawaii State Commission
30 on the Status of Women, or the Executive Director's
