
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO RENTAL DISCRIMINATION.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The federal housing choice voucher program,
2 also known as Section 8, provides federally funded, tenant-based 3 vouchers to low-income households that are responsible for 4 finding appropriate rental units in the private market. A
5 challenge once a household receives a Section 8 voucher is 6 finding a landlord willing to accept it. The legislature
7 believes that renters who participate in housing assistance
8 programs, such as Section 8, should have an equal opportunity to 9 find housing and should not be discriminated against because 10 their source of income includes funds from housing assistance
11 programs.

12 Studies have shown that when there are laws to prevent 13 discrimination against renters with housing assistance vouchers,
14 the renters are twelve per cent more likely to find housing.
15 The American Bar Association adopted a resolution in 2017
16 calling for enactment of laws that ban housing discrimination
17 based on lawful sources of income. The legislature notes that

1 source of income discrimination laws do not alter or restrict 2 the standard industry practices to vet prospective renters.
3 Rather, these laws prohibit landlords from rejecting prospective
4 renters who receive Section 8 vouchers or other housing
5 assistance simply because of the voucher or assistance.

6 The legislature finds that ten states, the District of 7 Columbia, fourteen counties, and fifty-six major cities across
8 the country have laws that prohibit source of income
9 discrimination in housing. Honolulu is one of the largest 10 cities in the United States that does not prohibit source of 11 income discrimination in housing.

12 The legislature finds that low-income individuals
13 experience extreme difficulty in finding affordable rentals in 14 Hawaii. Prior to the coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19)
15 pandemic, news reports, locally and nationally, have documented 16 that prospective tenants are often rejected by landlords due to 17 their use of Section 8 vouchers or other forms of housing
18 assistance, or based on requirements for participation in a
19 housing assistance program. This situation becomes all the more
20 frustrating when housing vacancy advertisements state "no
21 Section 8 accepted" or "Section 8 need not apply" in an effort

1 to prevent low-income individuals receiving housing assistance
2 from being considered as tenants.

3 The COVID-19 pandemic and resulting economic conditions
4 have impacted many residents' ability to pay their rent. An 5 August 2020 survey of two hundred seventy-one landlords and 6 property managers statewide conducted by the economic research
7 organization at the University of Hawaii indicated that more
8 than 9,000 households were two months or more behind in rent,
9 and that more tenants were thirty days behind in rent than prior 10 to the pandemic.

11 Prior to the pandemic, nationally, eighty-three per cent of 12 households participating in Section 8, were led by women.
13 Currently, there are more than twenty-two thousand single 14 mothers in Hawaii, and ninety-two per cent of the single mothers
15 surveyed in Hawaii during the COVID-19 pandemic reported that 16 they have lost financial independence due to the economic 17 crisis. Allowing landlords to consider a rental applicant's
18 source of income can also function as a proxy for discrimination
19 against single mothers.

20 The purpose of this Act is to prohibit discrimination in 21 rental transactions based on receipt of income from a housing

1 assistance program or requirements related to participation in 2 housing assistance programs.

3 SECTION 2. The Hawaii Revised Statutes is amended by 4 adding a new chapter to be appropriately designated and to read
5 as follows:

6 "CHAPTER

4 engage in a rental transaction based on the person's

8 assistance program or requirements related to 9 participation in a housing assistance program; or

10 (4) Require rental conditions that are different from 11 those required for a person not participating in a 12 housing assistance program.

13 (b) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit a 14 landlord from determining, in a commercially reasonable manner, 15 the ability of a person to pay rent by:

16 (1) Verifying the source and amount of income of the 17 person; or

18 (2) Evaluating the stability, security, and 19 creditworthiness of the potential tenant or any source 20 of income of the person.

1 § -3 Remedies. (a) If a landlord engages in a 2 discriminatory practice prohibited under this chapter, an
3 aggrieved person may bring a civil action in district court
4 within one year of the occurrence of the alleged violation for 5 appropriate injunctive relief and damages.

6 (b) In an action brought pursuant to subsection (a), a 7 district court may issue an injunction to enjoin violation of 8 this chapter. If the court issues an injunction, the court may 9 also award damages not to exceed $5,000 to the person bringing 10 the action, and reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in 11 the civil action."

12 SECTION 3. This Act does not affect rights and duties that 13 matured, penalties that were incurred, and proceedings that were 14 begun before its effective date.

15 SECTION 4. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.
