
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO EMERGENCY FOOD MANAGEMENT.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that during times of 2 economic crisis, natural disasters, or other emergencies the 3 number of Hawaii residents and families who experience food
4 insecurity increases dramatically. Recent natural disasters
5 like hurricanes, flooding, tsunami, and volcanic eruptions, as 6 well as health and economic crises, including the coronavirus
7 disease 2019 (COVID-19) pandemic and subsequent government
8 mandated shutdowns, have forced people out of their homes,
9 disrupted the economy, and upset supply chains.

10 The legislature finds that local charitable food
11 organizations, including food banks, soup kitchens, shelters,
12 and food rescue operations, are critical parts of the food
13 safety net during times of crisis. The fallout from natural 14 disasters and similar crises place insurmountable pressure on 15 these organizations, which are often called upon by local 16 authorities to respond to the increased demand on limited

1 budgets. At least sixteen other states provide some type of 2 government funding support for charitable food organizations.

3 The legislature also recognizes that during times of 4 crisis, local food producers, including farmers, ranchers,
5 fishers, and others, can be negatively impacted. Disruptions to 6 supply chains can result in food spoiling before reaching its 7 intended destination. Work interruptions, whether by government 8 orders, pandemics, or other disasters, can also adversely affect 9 food producers' ability to bring their products to market.

10 Charitable food operations can offer a dual solution by not 11 only ensuring families in need have access to enough food to 12 sustain their household, but also by operating as an economic 13 stimulus by purchasing food directly from local Hawaii food 14 businesses. The legislature finds that there is a need to 15 connect community feeding and local food production to emergency 16 funding solutions.

17 The purpose of this Act is to create the Hawaii emergency 18 food assistance program and, upon an emergency proclamation from 19 the governor, require that moneys be appropriated to the program
20 to fund state food banks to purchase, store, and transport food 21 grown or produced in Hawaii to local communities for

1 distribution. This program will serve the State's food needs
2 during an emergency, provide local food producers with a market
3 to support those needs, and keep moneys within the State to 4 boost the local economy.

5 SECTION 2. Chapter 127A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 6 amended by adding two new sections to be appropriately
7 designated and to read as follows:

8 "§127A-A Hawaii emergency food assistance program. (a)

9 There is established the Hawaii emergency food assistance
10 program to be administered by the department of agriculture

14 or produced in Hawaii to those persons.

15 (b) The department of agriculture shall make moneys
16 available to food banks located in the State pursuant to
