

Anne Perreira-Eustaquio

Objective To serve the community as an Executive Leader in the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations leveraging over 30 years of experience and a proven track record of team leadership. I am driven to work with the Executive team to strategically set a plan to transform DLIR and restore the public's trust in government.

Education Chaminade University of Honolulu, MBA
Chaminade University of Honolulu, BBA in Accounting

Work Experience

State of Hawaii, Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, UI

10/19 – Present Deputy Director
Acting Director, as of 06/01/20
Cooperatively work with the team in the Director's Office to manage and lead the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations to carry out its core functions and to serve the people of Hawaii.

01/19 – 09/19 UI Administrator
Responsible for the administration of statewide State and Federal unemployment insurance programs and assures that the rights and obligations of claimants and employers are being met in accordance with the overall interest and welfare of the public at large.

03/12 – 12/18 UI Program Development Officer
Responsible for planning, organizing, directing, coordinating and controlling all program development, evaluation and technical services for the division and for securing federal funding to implement, maintain and enhance program goals and objectives.

02/00 – 02/12 Program Specialist V & VI
Planned and supervised program staff engaged in developing program policies and standards, recommending and implementing changes to operational procedures and statutes, to comply with federal standards, court precedents and internal security considerations.

09/89 – 01/00 Auditor II, III, and IV
Applied knowledge of auditing principles, procedures, and practices, in carrying out an extensive variety of assignments dealing with UI tax functions.

Interests Living an active lifestyle focused on exercise and healthy nutrition; Reading; Working on house projects; Spending time with my family, husband, son and my precious dog Scout. On most weekends you can find us at a beach on the Windward Side.