

Leianne K. Lee Loy, DVM, MBA, CVA

GOV. MSG. NO. 725

Objective:

To Be a team member of the Hawaii Veterinary Board

EDUCATION

DOCTOR VETERINARY MEDICINE
University of Missouri - Columbia

MASTER IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
University of Hawaii at Manoa

CERTIFICATE IN INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT
University of Hawaii at Manoa, Summer

CERTIFIED IN VETERINARY ACUPUNCTURE
Chi Institute of Chinese Medicine

WORK EXPERIENCE

ASSOCIATE VETERINARIAN
Hawaii Kai Veterinary Clinic
2017-present

Providing integrative Veterinary Care - combining Traditional Chinese Veterinary Medicine and Western care. I am certified in Veterinary Acupuncture and educated in Chinese Herbal Medicine, Food Therapy, Tuina (massage), Palliative and Hospice Care.

RELIEF VETERINARIAN
Li'i Leihua Veterinary Care
2000-present

Providing relief work for Hawaii Veterinary Clinics/Organizations (Animal Quarantine Station, Molokai Humane Society, Hawaiian Humane Society, Local Veterinary Clinics)

ASSOCIATE VETERINARIAN/MEDICAL DIRECTOR
Veterinary Centers of America University Animal Hospital
1998-2017

Responsible for the Quality and Standards of care provided at our Clinic.
Providing Integrative Veterinary Care

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Hawaii Board of Veterinary Medicine
Board Member
Regulatory Body
2016 - present

AVMA - House of Delegates
Delegate Hawaii - current
Alternate Delegate Hawaii

AVMA - State Advocacy Committee
2020 - present

Hawaii Veterinary Medical Association
Honored to have filled multiple positions within the organization - Oahu Delegate, President
Elect, President and Past President
Member of Legislative Committee

WHAT GIVES ME JOY (outside of veterinary medicine):

Family and Friends

My furry friends: 3 dogs

Being active by walking my dogs, yoga classes, Pickleball fanatic

Hula dancer allows me to be in touch with my Hawaiian Roots