The Honorable Ronald D. Kouchi
President
State Senate
State Capitol, Room 409
415 South Beretania Street
Honolulu, Hawaii 96813

Dear President Kouchi:

The Honolulu Police Department (HPD) recently became aware from the Department of the Corporation Counsel (COR), City and County of Honolulu, that our Legislative Disciplinary Report for 2021 is not compliant with Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 52D-3.5 (Reports to legislature) and recommended for the HPD to submit an amended version. The 2021 Legislative Disciplinary Report does not contain the identities of police officers who were disciplined and have a pending collective bargaining agreement (CBA) grievance to contest it.

The recommendation by COR was a result of Circuit Court Judge Dean Ochiai's decision on a civil litigation, which was filed by the State of Hawaii Organization of Police Officers (SHOPO), that challenged the legality of the enacted law or bill (Act 47) for the matter. Judge Ochiai denied SHOPO's motion and though SHOPO has appealed it, there is no stay of his order.

Upon considering the guidance provided by COR, enclosed is the HPD's amended Legislative Disciplinary Report for 2021. The amended report includes the identities of all police officers who received discipline regardless of a pending CBA grievance.

Should there be any questions, Major Aaron Takasaki-Young of the Human Resources Division may be contacted at (808) 723-3564.

Sincerely,
