
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO MEASUREMENT STANDARDS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. Section 486-105, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
2 amended by amending subsection (a) to read as follows:

3 "(a) Unless otherwise provided by law, the department,
4 through the measurement standards branch, shall inspect and
5 test, to ascertain if they are correct, all measurement
6 standards and measuring devices kept, offered, or exposed for 7 sale, sold or in use in the State. The department may, as often 8 as it deems necessary, inspect and test, to ascertain if they
9 are correct, all measurement standards and measuring devices
10 used in:

11 (1) Determining the measurement of commodities or things
12 sold, or offered or exposed for sale, on the basis of 13 measure;

14 (2) Computing the basic charge or payment, including
15 taxes, for services rendered on the basis of measure;
16 and

(3) Determining measurement when a charge is made for such determination, including the payment of any associated tax[-];

[~~Provided~~] provided that in compliance with a rule of the board, tests may be made on representative samples of the commodities, things, or devices, and the lots of which samples are representative shall be held to be correct or incorrect upon the basis of the results of the inspections and tests on the samples[~~—And,~~]; provided further that with respect to single-service devices designed to be used only once and to be then discarded or with respect to devices uniformly mass-produced, as by means of a mold or die, and not susceptible of individual adjustment, the inspection and testing requirements of this section will be satisfied when inspections and tests are made on representative samples of the devices, and the lots of which samples are representative shall be held to be correct or incorrect upon the basis of the results of the inspections and tests of the samples[-]; provided further that this section shall not apply to commercial measuring devices utilized in taxicabs."
