12 (1) Mediation. During the first twenty days after the 13 date of impasse, the board shall immediately appoint a 14 mediator, representative of the public from a list of 15 qualified persons maintained by the board, to assist 16 the parties in a voluntary resolution of the impasse.

18 after the date of impasse, the board shall immediately

6 and one shall be selected by the exclusive 7 representative. The neutral third member of the 8 arbitration panel, who shall chair the 11 proposing for inclusion in the final agreement;

12 provided that such further provisions shall be 13 limited to those specific proposals that were 14 submitted in writing to the other party and were 15 the subject of collective bargaining between the 16 parties up to the time of the impasse, including 17 those specific proposals that the parties have 18 decided to include through a written mutual
19 agreement. The arbitration panel shall decide
20 whether final positions are compliant with this

1 provision and which proposals may be considered
2 for inclusion in the final agreement.

3 (C) Arbitration hearing. Within one hundred twenty 4 days of its appointment, the arbitration panel 5 shall commence a hearing at which time the 6 parties may submit, either in writing or through 7 oral testimony, all information or data
8 supporting their respective final positions. The 9 arbitrator, or the chairperson of the arbitration
10 panel together with the other two members, are 11 encouraged to assist the parties in a voluntary 12 resolution of the impasse through mediation, to 13 the extent practicable throughout the entire 14 arbitration period until the date the panel is

2 parties. The parties shall review the 3 preliminary draft for completeness, technical 4 correctness, and clarity and may mutually submit 5 to the panel any desired changes or adjustments 6 that shall be incorporated in the final draft of 7 its decision. Within fifteen days after the 8 transmittal of the preliminary draft, a majority 9 of the arbitration panel shall issue the 10 arbitration decision."

12 enjoyed by employees of the city and county of Honolulu's
13 emergency services department, including those rights, benefits,
14 and privileges under chapters 76, 78, 87A, and 88, Hawaii
15 Revised Statutes, shall not be impaired or diminished as a 16 result of these employees being transitioned to the newly 17 created bargaining unit (16). The transition to the new 18 bargaining unit (16) shall not result in any break in service 19 for the affected employees. The rights, benefits, and 20 privileges currently enjoyed by state and county ocean safety 21 and water safety officers shall be maintained under their

1 existing collective bargaining agreement and any successor
2 agreement until a collective bargaining agreement is negotiated
3 for the new bargaining unit (16).

4 SECTION 4. This Act does not affect rights and duties that 5 matured, penalties that were incurred, and proceedings that were 6 begun before its effective date.

7 SECTION 5. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed
