COVID-19 Economic Injury Loan

THE SBA DISASTER LOAN PROGRAM IS OPEN

Hawai'i small businesses suffering financial losses due to the impact of COVID-19 can now file for low-interest working capital loans of up to $2 million from the Small Business Administration (SBA). The loans can be used to pay fixed debts, payroll and other bills that can't be paid because of a disaster's impact. Interest rates are 3.75 percent for small businesses without credit available elsewhere. The interest rate for non-profits is 2.75 percent. Terms are determined on a case by case basis, based upon borrower's ability to repay. To apply, or ask questions, go to <https://disasterloan.sba.gov/>

A second source of funding is being allowed in response to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. These funds are provided to small business owners in all U.S. states, Washington D.C., and territories who are eligible to also apply for an Economic Injury Disaster Loan advance of up to $10,000. This application is a very short and can be completed in less than 20 minutes. See the following link for the online loan advance application: <https://covid19relief.sba.gov/#/>
