State Senate Confirms Recktenwald as Hawaii's New Chief Justice

The State Senate confirmed Mark E. Recktenwald as Hawaii's newest Chief Justice to the Hawaii State Supreme Court today. He succeeds Ronald Moon who retires this month upon reaching the mandatory retirement age of 70.

The full Senate also confirmed Blaine J. Kobayashi to the District Court of the Second Circuit for the County of Maui.

Both nominees appeared before the Senate Judiciary and Government Operations (JGO) committee on August 25 of which I am a member. The JGO committee voted unanimously to advise and consent to Recktenwald's confirmation yesterday.

The full Senate approved his confirmation by a 22-0 vote at today's special session.

New Chief Justice Mark Recktenwald (left) was unanimously confirmed by the State Senate today with a 22 to 0 vote, 1 excused. He is shown after his confirmation with supporter Delorese Gregoire of Winners' Camp and I.

Recktenwald served as associate justice on the Hawaii State Supreme Court after being named to the position last May. He previously served in the Hawaii State Intermediate Court of Appeals and was Director of the State Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs from 2003 to 2007.

When nominated by Governor Linda Lingle to the position of Chief Justice, she stated, "Justice Recktenwald is highly regarded in the legal community and I have confidence that he will guide our courts in ensuring the rule of law is upheld and the tenants of our Constitution are protected.

"In addition to his outstanding legal expertise, Justice Recktenwald possesses exceptional leadership ability and strong administrative experience that garners respect and admiration, while achieving results.

Recktenwald is the 2nd person to be nominated by Governor Lingle to the Chief Justice position after the her initial nominee, Judge Katherine Leonard was turned down by the State Senate after going through the lengthy process and

"I think Justice Recktenwald will be an outstanding Chief Justice and a beacon for judicial improvement in Hawaii."

District court nominee Blaine J. Kobayashi is a partner in the Carlsmith Ball LLP firm in Maui County. He previously served as Deputy Corporation Counsel for Maui County, Deputy County Attorney for Kauai County and Deputy Prosecuting Attorney, also for the County of Kauai.

The Senate floor sessions were held in the Capitol Auditorium instead of the Senate Chamber which have the Office of Elections are using for ballot counting this fall.

"A government big enough to give you everything you want, is strong enough to take everything you have."

— Thomas Jefferson,
Third President of the United States.

State Senate Fails to Confirm Judge Kate Leonard

Judge Katherine Leonard at the Senate JGO hearing on August 3.

The State Senate voted 14 to 8 against the confirmation of Judge Katherine J. Leonard to the post of Chief Justice to the Hawaii State Supreme Court on the final day of the First Special Senate Session August 6. Her confirmation was turned down in the Senate after the most of the majority members agreed with anonymous assessments and recommendations made by the Hawaii Bar Association and some people in the legal community who testified against her nomination. The main reason cited was “lack of administrative experience”.

I was one of the 8 Senators who voted in Judge Leonard’s favor noting her extensive knowledge of “the law”, her judicial experience, character and leadership qualities. Had she been confirmed, Judge Leonard would have been the first graduate from the University of Hawaii’s Richardson School of Law to become Chief Justice as well as the first woman to hold that position.

She will continue with her term serving as a Judge in the Hawaii State Intermediate Court of Appeals.

Seven other individuals were confirmed to the State Circuit and District Courts of Hawaii during the August 6 special session. The individuals confirmed to the First Circuit Court included Jeannette H. Castagnetti, Colette Y. Garibaldi, and Faauga L. To’oto’o, all nominated by Governor Linda Lingle. Judge To’oto’o’s confirmation was in jeopardy after he was not endorsed by the Hawaii Bar Association. Overwhelming public testimony at his Senate Confirmation hearing made a difference when the Senate JGO committee voted to “advise and consent”.

Confirmed to Hawaii State District Court were nominees Sherri-Ann L. Iha, Steven Nakashima, Matthew J. Viola and Michael E. Tanigawa. The district court nominees were among the last to be named by current Chief Justice Ronald Moon. Today was supposed to be the Chief Justice’s last day on the job.

News in Brief

- Congratulations to the Waipio All-Stars Little League team for winning the United States Championship Little League World Series this past Saturday, August 28 defeating a Texas team by a 10 to 0 margin. They went on to play in the World Series Championship game with a tough and motivated Tokyo, Japan team on August 29 to come up short 4 to 1. Regardless, the Waipio All-Stars brought much pride to the state and provided viewers with several days of live, nationally televised baseball. A public celebration is planned for the team.
- Hawaii’s public school system recently won the national “Race to the Top” grant issued by the US Dept. of Education. Hawaii is expected to receive $75 million to be used to improve the public education system.
- Voters will have a chance to cast their ballots early as the walk-in absentee balloting process gets under way statewide at various locations from Sept. 3 to Sept. 16. Primary election day is on September 18 and voters will be able to go to most of their familiar polling places that day. For more details on the voting and election process visit <http://www.hawaii.gov/elections> website.
- Results for the Hawaii general election could be delayed this year due to the state not giving deployed American troops and other Hawaii voters serving overseas enough time to cast and process their ballots. The U.S. Justice Dept. denied the state a waiver to a new federal elections law which requires a 45 day turnaround time to print and mail ballots. Hawaii’s Sept. 18 primary is exactly 45 days away from the Nov. 2 general election. The date does not give Hawaii’s election office enough time to print and mail out ballots for overseas voters. Hawaii’s law (Act 126) to move the primary election to the 2nd Saturday in August becomes effective Jan. 1, 2011, too late for this year’s election.
- The Senate Ways & Means Committee continued with its series of informational briefings today with the State Dept. of Transportation. Topics covered in today’s hearing included contracts for airport security, taxi, the airports modernization project, overtime, and the status of work related issues, and property expansion– costs.
- Hawaii Kai farmers who are leasing farmlands in east Honolulu’s Kamilo Nui Valley are facing steep rent hikes from landowner Kamehameha Schools. Most of the farmers cannot handle the drastic rent increases and may have to go out of business.
