
SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

RECOGNIZING THE HISTORIC, CULTURAL, AND STRATEGIC CONNECTIONS
AMONG THE PEOPLES OF OCEANIA, OF WHICH HAWAI'I IS A PART,
AND URGING GREATER COLLABORATION WITH GOVERNMENTS OF NATIONS AND PROGRAMS AND TRAINING TO COMBAT DISCRIMINATION AGAINST PACIFIC ISLAND COMMUNITIES.

1 WHEREAS, the Oceania region in the Pacific Ocean
2 constitutes what has been described by renowned Tongan scholar
3 Epeli Hau'ofa as a "sea of islands", with interconnections of 4 history, culture, and strategic interests; and 5

6 WHEREAS, some historians argue that civilizations in 7 Oceania did not consider the boundary of their islands as being 8 limited to their shorelines but rather to a perceived space in a 9 much broader sense of space that extended far across the sea and 10 sky; and
11

12 WHEREAS, the diverse cultures and peoples of Oceania have 13 significant deep and historic ties among one another, such as 14 the contemporary theory that originally, Pacific Island peoples
15 migrated from Taiwan and Southeast Asia; and 16

17 WHEREAS, other commonalities include an Austronesian
18 linguistic background, hundreds of years of trade across the 19 Pacific prior to western contact and similar understandings of 20 spirituality such as the concept of mana, as well as similar 21 cultural practices such as the use and preparation of taro; and 22

23 WHEREAS, the geographical and anthropological descriptions
24 of Melanesia, Micronesia, and Polynesia are western 25 categorizations of the Pacific Islands that by themselves do not 26 fully capture the complex and diverse nature of cultures in 27 Oceania; now, therefore,
