SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

RECOGNIZING 2022 AS "MALAMA MAKUAHINE: YEAR OF THE MOTHER".

1 WHEREAS, aloha starts at home in Hawaii, and the 2 institution of the family provides tremendous value to both its 3 members and the world, deserving the highest priority as the 4 foundation of a peaceful society; and 5

6 WHEREAS, in Hawaii, ohana is the family social unit created
7 by blood, marriage, or adoption (hanai), and can be both 8 nuclear, encompassing parents and children, and extended, 9 encompassing other relatives, with bonds that last for 10 generations, and must be protected; and 11

12 WHEREAS, in Hawaii, mothers are the makuahine, the female 13 backbone of the family; therefore, we must malama, care for 14 their health and wellbeing; and 15

16 WHEREAS, the status of a woman is directly related to the 17 status of her mother, and the connection to the ohana is the key 18 to a child's genealogy and identity; and 19

20 WHEREAS, regardless of sexual orientation, gender identity, 21 or marital status, mothers have always moved our society and the 22 world forward and remained steadfast in their pursuit of a 23 better and brighter future for the next generation; and 24

25 WHEREAS, the work of mothers is of paramount importance but 26 is often undervalued, underappreciated, and unpaid; and 27

28 WHEREAS, mothers have an indispensable role as essential
29 workers in the rebuilding and transforming of the modern world
30 and society; and 31

32 WHEREAS, mothers have been the most adversely affected by 33 the coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) pandemic, shouldering

1 home, work, childcare, and teaching responsibilities while being 2 affected by health issues, a rise in domestic violence, and 3 massive unemployment; and 4

5 WHEREAS, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention 6 reports that over 140,000 children in the United States have 7 lost a parent or care giver due to COVID-19; and 8

9 WHEREAS, multiple demands are causing working mothers to 10 abandon the workforce at four times the rate of men according to 11 a September 2020 U.S. Labor Department Report; and 12

13 WHEREAS, mothers in Hawaii often face gender stereotypes
14 and bias in society and yet they still blaze new paths, open up 15 new possibilities, and widen the circles of opportunity for 16 their children despite their challenges; and 17

18 WHEREAS, the importance of the role of motherhood and the 19 sanctity of the family must be supported with equality and 20 justice within all facets of government and society; and 21

22 WHEREAS, as children of the Earth, we must protect it for 23 future generations, and as Pope Francis said in 2021, we are 24 called "to listen to the groans of Mother Earth"; now, 25 therefore,
26

27 BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Thirty-first 28 Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2022, the
