
HOUSE RESOLUTION

URGING THE GOVERNOR TO INITIATE A CLEMENCY PROGRAM FOR INDIVIDUALS WHO HAVE BEEN PROSECUTED FOR CANNABIS-RELATED OFFENSES.

1 WHEREAS, the war on drugs has been found to be a racist
2 campaign that is devastating and destroying immigrant,
3 indigenous, and low-income individuals, families, and 4 communities; and

5

6 WHEREAS, the same findings were made about the impact on 7 the war on drugs in Hawaii in the 2010 "The Disparate Treatment
8 of Native Hawaiians in the Criminal Justice System" report from 9 the Office of the Hawaiian Affairs; and

10

11 WHEREAS, mass incarceration is significantly worsened by 12 the war on drugs, which includes the criminalization of cannabis 13 possession; and

14

15 WHEREAS, the prosecution of cannabis offenses has deprived
16 people of accessing higher education, housing, employment, 17 individual liberty, and the right to vote; and

18

19 WHEREAS, on October 6, 2022, President Biden pardoned six 20 thousand five hundred people convicted between 1992 and 2021 of 21 federal cannabis possession, as well as thousands more who were 22 convicted of cannabis possession in the District of Columbia; 23 and

24

25 WHEREAS, President Biden also urged governors throughout
26 the country to follow his lead and provide similar legal relief 27 for those who have entered the criminal justice system for 28 cannabis convictions; and

29

30 WHEREAS, as of January 2023, numerous states and the 31 District of Columbia have decriminalized and legalized adult-use
32 recreational cannabis, including Alaska, Arizona, California,

1 Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Maine, Maryland,
2 Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri,
3 Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New 4 Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon,
5 Rhode Island, Vermont, Virginia, and Washington; and

6

7 WHEREAS, in enacting programs to legalize adult-use
8 recreational cannabis, many of these states have instituted 9 expungement or other forms of clemency and record clearance for 10 individuals who have been prosecuted for cannabis-related
11 offenses; and

12

13 WHEREAS, Illinois enacted the Cannabis Regulation and Tax
14 Act in 2019, which allowed the state to automatically grant 15 clemency to residents who were convicted for possessing up to 16 thirty grams of cannabis, and authorized a person to petition a 17 court to rescind the charges if they were convicted of 18 possessing between thirty and five hundred grams of cannabis;
19 and

20

21 WHEREAS, in 2019, New Hampshire enacted House Bill 399,
22 which provided an opportunity for those convicted of offenses
23 involving the possession of three-quarters of one ounce of 24 cannabis or less to petition the court to have their convictions 25 annulled; and

26

27 WHEREAS, Washington vacated misdemeanor cannabis
28 convictions in 2019, and Delaware implemented a measure in 2017
29 that provided for automatic expungement of both conviction and 30 arrest records for those who were charged or convicted of 31 certain cannabis offenses prior to December 18, 2015; and

32

33 WHEREAS, in November of 2022, Governor Brown of Oregon
34 announced her intent to pardon over forty-seven thousand
35 Oregonians with low-level cannabis convictions; and

36

37 WHEREAS, the Oregon pardon program will eliminate barriers
38 for thousands of people seeking employment, housing, and 39 educational opportunities who would have otherwise been 40 ineligible; and

41

H.R. NO. 53

1 WHEREAS, The Last Prisoner Project, a leading national 2 nonprofit organization dedicated to cannabis criminal justice
3 reform, has stated that the Governor has the legal authority to 4 undertake a targeted relief and clemency program for individuals
5 in Hawaii who have been prosecuted for cannabis-related 6 offenses; and

7
8 WHEREAS, The Last Prisoner Project and Hawaii Innocence
9 Project are prepared to assist the Governor and Attorney General 10 in facilitating a clemency program for people who have been 11 prosecuted for cannabis related offenses; now, therefore,

12
13 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 14 Thirty-second Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular 15 Session of 2023, that the Governor is urged to initiate a 16 clemency program for individuals who have been prosecuted for 17 cannabis-related offenses; and

18
19 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Governor is urged to seek 20 the assistance of The Last Prisoner Project and Hawaii Innocence
21 Project in implementing a clemency program for individuals who 22 have been prosecuted for cannabis-related offenses; and

23
24 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this 25 Resolution be transmitted to the Governor, Attorney General,
26 Director of Public Safety, Executive Director of The Last
27 Prisoner Project, and Co-Directors of the Hawaii Innocence
28 Project.
