SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

REQUESTING THE LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU TO CONDUCT A STUDY
ON THE FEASIBILITY OF A CONTINUOUS LEGISLATIVE SESSION.

1           WHEREAS, the legislative process allows Hawaii's people to 2 engage with policy to create meaningful change for the State;
3 and
4

5           WHEREAS, pursuant to article III, section 10, of the Hawaii
6 State Constitution, the Legislature only has sixty to seventy-7 five session days, generally stretching from the middle of 8 January until early May to conduct its business during a regular 9 session; and
10

11           WHEREAS, the compressed, rushed legislative process may 12 inhibit the public from participating and advocating at the 13 Legislature; and 14

15           WHEREAS, individuals who are not full-time employed in 16 advocacy may have an easier time participating in the 17 legislative process if the timetable and deadlines were not as 18 compressed; and 19

20           WHEREAS, efficiency, productivity, orderliness, and 21 transparency of the Legislature could be improved by requiring 22 that the Legislature be in session during every month of the 23 year; and 24

25           WHEREAS, creating greater transparency of the legislative 26 process for State's citizens will allow more individuals to 27 engage in the policymaking process while also creating more
28 opportunities for legislators to make informed policy decisions;
29 now, therefore,
30

31           BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Thirty-second 32 Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2023, the 33 House of Representatives concurring, that the Legislative

1 Reference Bureau is requested to conduct a study on the 2 feasibility of a continuous legislative session; and

3

4 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the study is requested to 5 examine functions of continuous legislatures in other states in 6 comparison to Hawaii; and

7

8 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the study is also requested to 9 determine, if any, an increase in productivity of the 10 legislative session by allowing more time for the legislative 11 process; and

12

13 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislative Reference
14 Bureau is requested to submit the study to the Legislature no
15 later than twenty days prior to the convening of the Regular 16 Session of 2024; and

17

18 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a certified copy of this 19 Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Director of the 20 Legislative Reference Bureau.
