PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2020 to Present Deputy Director for Law Enforcement
Department of Public Safety
State of Hawaii

Duties: As the Deputy Director of Law Enforcement, I managed the law enforcement and security programs for the Department of Public Safety. I further provided investigative and administrative oversight for the Sheriff Division and the Narcotics Enforcement Division. I was instrumental in developing the framework for the proposed establishment of the new Department of Law Enforcement for the State of Hawaii.

2019 to 2020 Chief Investigator
Investigative Services Division
Department of Prosecuting Attorney
City and County of Honolulu

Duties: As the Chief Investigator, I supervised and managed the investigative and administrative activities of three groups of investigators (designated as Metro Groups I, II and III), a cadre of process servers and legal clerks. Metro Groups I and II supports the Deputy Prosecutors in perfecting their criminal cases for trial, and Metro Group III conducts special criminal investigations.

2015 to 2019 Chief Special Agent
Criminal Investigation Section
Department of Taxation
State of Hawaii

Duties: As the Chief Special Agent, I supervised and managed the investigative and administrative activities of the Special Agents, Tax Collectors and Field Auditor assigned to the Criminal Investigation Section. I returned to service as the Chief Special Agent in May 2015.

2013 – 2014 Supervisory Special Agent (Temporary Assignment).
Criminal Investigation Section
Department of Taxation
State of Hawaii

Duties: As a Supervisory Special Agent (Temporary assignment from December 2013 to June 2014), I supervised and managed the investigative and administrative activities of the Special Agents, Tax Collectors and Field Auditor assigned to the Criminal Investigation Section. Initially hired in November 2013, I conducted multifaceted financial investigations on individuals, corporations and criminal organizations as they relate to tax violations of the Hawaii Revised Statutes.

2009 – 2012 Resident Agent in Charge/Supervisory Special Agent (Retired)
U.S. Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF)
Honolulu Field Office and Hawaii County Office

Duties: I supervised and managed the investigative and administrative activities of the Special Agents assigned to the Honolulu Field Office and the Hawaii County Office. My duties ranged from setting the investigative priorities of the Bureau to managing the administrative, travel and investigative budgets. I was responsible for the preparation of the various investigative and initiative proposals. My duties also included being the On Scene Commander for all enforcement actions conducted by ATF. These actions included undercover operations, executions of arrest and search warrants, and explosives disposal operations. I served as ATF's representative to the U.S. Department of Defense Joint Inter-Agency Task Force (JIATF) West and was an Executive Board Member of the Hawaii HIDTA (to include the Budget Sub-committee).

1987 – 2009

Senior Special Agent

U.S. Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives
Honolulu Field Office

Duties: My primary responsibilities as Senior Special Agent were to conduct multifaceted explosives, firearms and narcotics related investigations that impacted significant criminal organizations and enterprises that were regional, national, and/or international in scope; individuals or corporations involved in arson or other crimes with a financial motive; and other violators of federal firearms and explosives laws that posed a significant danger to the immediate community.

As the Project Safe Neighborhoods (PSN) and High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area (HIDTA) Task Force Commander, I coordinated the investigative and administrative activities of task force agents and officers assigned to the PSN Initiative and the Honolulu Violent Crime Incident Task Force.

As an Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Force (OCDETF) representative, I was the lead ATF investigator conducting significant multi-defendant narcotics investigations that were of regional, national, and international in scope.

As a Certified Explosives Specialist, I conducted post-blast investigations in the Honolulu Field Office and other ATF jurisdictions as assigned; provided technical assistance to state/local bomb squads and other ATF agents in the investigation of explosive incidents; provided safe disposal of recovered, purchased, seized or forfeited explosive materials; and provided explosive diagnostic capabilities at special events.

As the Assistant Team Leader, Crisis Negotiation – Special Response Team IV, I directed other crisis negotiators assigned to high risk operations; gathered intelligence and analyzed a diverse range of information to develop a negotiation strategy; and coordinated with tactical units to develop an overall critical incident plan for high risk enforcement operations.

1985 – 1987

Special Agent

U.S. Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives
San Francisco Metro Groups I (Arson) and II (Firearms)

Duties: I investigated alleged violations of Federal explosive, arson, firearms, alcohol, and tobacco statutes. My investigative functions included obtaining evidence, preparing and presenting criminal case reports to the United States Attorney for prosecution of said violations, preparing and serving arrest and/or search warrants, and testifying as a government witness. I was an active member of the California Department of Justice Campaign Against Marijuana Planting (CAMP) program and conducted numerous marijuana eradication missions in Northern California.

1982 – 1985

Special Agent

Criminal Investigation Division
Internal Revenue Service
San Francisco Field Division

Duties: My primary responsibility as a CID Special Agent was to promote the voluntary compliance of the Internal Revenue Code through the vigorous enforcement of said laws and regulations. I conducted multifaceted financial investigations on individuals, corporations and significant criminal organizations, including a crack cocaine distribution organization operating within the housing projects in the City of Oakland, a real estate development corporation that laundered funds for a cocaine trafficking organization, and an outlaw motorcycle gang.

1979 – 1982 Internal Auditor
Office of Regional Inspector
Internal Revenue Service
Western Region, San Francisco, CA

Duties: I conducted integrity and operational reviews of various divisions within the Internal Revenue Service. This included the development and execution of audit plans for numerous entities within the Internal Revenue Service and the preparation of abstracts of findings. I conducted these reviews in accordance with Generally Accepted Auditing Principles.
