
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO TAXATION.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that family caregivers
2 are the backbone of the long-term care system in the State.
3 AARP's 2023 report "Valuing the Invaluable" found that 154,000
4 residents of the State provide unpaid caregiving services for a
5 loved one. The report finds that each year, these family
6 caregivers contribute nearly one hundred forty-four million
7 hours of unpaid services, estimated at a value of $2,600,000.
8 Caregiving services can range from managing personal finances
9 and transporting for medical visits to providing twenty-four-10 hour supervision and assisting with bathing, toileting, and 11 dressing so that their loved ones are not prematurely
12 institutionalized and can remain in their homes.

13 The legislature further finds that nonpaid family
14 caregivers face many physical, emotional, and financial 15 challenges and often balance caregiving with work and other 16 personal responsibilities. A 2021 national study found that, on 17 average, family caregivers spend twenty-six per cent of their

1 income on caregiving services; nearly eight in ten caregivers
2 report having routine out-of-pocket expenses related to 3 caregiving; and that these out-of-pocket expenses average $7,242
4 per year. The legislature believes that the demands on family
5 caregivers are not isolated family issues and that the State 6 should assist in the delivery of meaningful support and 7 solutions for those that provide unpaid long-term care services
8 in the State.

9 Accordingly, the purpose of this Act is to establish a tax
10 credit for nonpaid family caregivers.

11 SECTION 2. Chapter 235, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 12 amended by adding a new section to be appropriately designated 13 and to read as follows:

14 "§235- Family caregiver tax credit. (a) There shall be 15 allowed to each eligible taxpayer subject to the tax imposed by 16 this chapter a family caregiver tax credit that shall be 17 deductible from the taxpayer's net income tax liability, if any,
18 imposed by this chapter for the taxable year in which the credit
19 is properly claimed.

20 (b) The family caregiver tax credit shall be equal to the 21 qualified expenses of the taxpayer, up to a maximum of $5,000 in

1 any taxable year; provided that married individuals filing
2 separate tax returns for a taxable year for which a joint return 3 could have been filed by them shall claim only the tax credit to 4 which they would have been entitled had a joint return been 5 filed.

6 (c) An eligible taxpayer may claim the tax credit for 7 every taxable year or part thereof that the eligible taxpayer
8 provides care to a care recipient during the taxable year; has 9 personally incurred uncompensated expenses directly related to 10 the care of a care recipient; and has not claimed the care 11 recipient as a dependent for the purpose of a tax deduction in 12 the same taxable year. Only one eligible taxpayer per household
13 may claim a tax credit for any care recipient cared for in a
14 taxable year. An eligible taxpayer shall not claim multiple tax 15 credits under this section in a taxable year, regardless of the 16 number of care recipients receiving care from the eligible 17 taxpayer.

18 (d) The director of taxation:

19 (1) Shall prepare any forms that may be necessary to claim
20 a tax credit under this section;

H.B. NO. 1769

1 (2) May require the taxpayer to furnish reasonable
2 information to ascertain the validity of the claim for 3 the tax credit made under this section; and

4 (3) May adopt rules pursuant to chapter 91 necessary to 5 carry out this section.

6 (e) If the tax credit claimed by the eligible taxpayer
7 under this section exceeds the amount of income tax payments due
8 from the eligible taxpayer, the excess of credit over payments
9 due shall be refunded to the eligible taxpayer. All claims for 10 the tax credit under this section, including amended claims,
11 shall be filed on or before the end of the twelfth month
12 following the close of the taxable year for which the credit may 13 be claimed. Failure to comply with the foregoing provisions 14 shall constitute a waiver of the right to claim the credit.

15 (f) The department of taxation shall report to the 16 legislature, no later than twenty days prior to the convening of 17 each regular session, on the number of eligible taxpayers
18 claiming the tax credit and the total cost of the tax credit
