
A BILL FOR AN ACT

PROPOSING AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLE III OF THE HAWAII STATE
CONSTITUTION TO ESTABLISH A CONTINUOUS LEGISLATIVE SESSION.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that Hawaii's state
2 legislature only has sixty session days per year, generally
3 stretching from the middle of January until early May. The 4 legislature notes that the representatives and senators who 5 comprise the state legislature are part-time employees of the 6 State.

7 The legislature further finds that the efficiency,
8 productivity, orderliness, and transparency of the state
9 legislature could be improved by requiring that the legislature
10 be in session during every month of the year. The legislature
11 notes that doing so would make the representatives and senators 12 who comprise the state legislature into full-time employees of 13 the State.

14 The purpose of this Act is to propose amendments to article
15 III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii to establish a 16 continuous legislative session. Specifically, this Act:

1 meetings, meeting agendas, meeting minutes, or discussions
2 outside of meetings, notwithstanding any statutory language that 3 otherwise would exempt the legislature from those requirements."

4 SECTION 3. Article III, section 8, of the Constitution of 5 the State of Hawaii is amended to read as follows:

6 "DISQUALIFICATIONS OF MEMBERS

7 Section 8. No member of the legislature shall hold any

11 that shall have been created, or the emoluments whereof shall 12 have been increased, by legislative act during [~~such~~] the 13 term[-], or have any employment outside of the legislature. The 14 term "public offices," for the purposes of this section, shall 15 not include notaries public, reserve police officers or officers
16 of emergency organizations for civilian defense or disaster
17 relief. The legislature may prescribe further 18 disqualifications."
