A BILL FOR AN ACT

PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE VI, SECTION 3 OF THE HAWAII
CONSTITUTION TO PLACE PROCEDURAL RESTRICTIONS ON THE TIMING OF JUDICIAL APPOINTMENTS AND CONFIRMATIONS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1           SECTION 1. The purpose of this Act is to propose an 2 amendment to article VI, section 3 of the Constitution of the 3 State of Hawaii to allow justices and judges to be appointed and 4 confirmed only during specified time periods.

5           SECTION 2. Article VI, section 3, of the Constitution of 6 the State of Hawaii is amended to read as follows:

7                           "APPOINTMENT OF JUSTICES AND JUDGES

8           Section 3. The governor, with the consent of the senate, 9 shall fill a vacancy in the office of the chief justice, supreme 10 court, intermediate appellate court and circuit courts, by 11 appointing a person from a list of not less than four, and not 12 more than six, nominees for the vacancy, presented to the 13 governor by the judicial selection commission[-]; provided that 14 the judicial selection commission shall not present a list of 15 nominees to the governor between September 1 and November 30,

1 and the position shall remain vacant until after November 30,
2 when the governor may be presented with a list of nominees.

3       If the governor fails to make any appointment within thirty 4 days of presentation, or within ten days of the senate's 5 rejection of any previous appointment, the appointment shall be 6 made by the judicial selection commission from the list with the 7 consent of the senate. If the senate fails to reject any 8 appointment within thirty days thereof, it shall be deemed to 9 have given its consent to such appointment[+]; provided that the 10 senate shall be called into no more than two special sessions to 11 consent to any judicial appointments, and any subsequent 12 appointments during the legislative interim shall be held until 13 the start of the next regular session, when the senate may 14 consent to the appointment or appointments within thirty days.
15 If the senate shall reject any appointment, the governor shall 16 make another appointment from the list within ten days thereof.
17 The same appointment and consent procedure shall be followed 18 until a valid appointment has been made, or failing this, the 19 commission shall make the appointment from the list, without 20 senate consent.

1           The chief justice, with the consent of the senate, shall 2 fill a vacancy in the district courts by appointing a person
3 from a list of not less than six nominees for the vacancy
4 presented by the judicial selection commission[-]; provided that 5 the judicial selection commission shall not present a list of 6 nominees to the chief justice between September 1 and November
7 30, and the position shall remain vacant until after November
8 30, when the chief justice may be presented with a list of 9 nominees. If the chief justice fails to make the appointment 10 within thirty days of presentation, or within ten days of the 11 senate's rejection of any previous appointment, the appointment
12 shall be made by the judicial selection commission from the list
13 with the consent of the senate. The senate shall hold a public 14 hearing and vote on each appointment within thirty days of any 15 appointment[-]; provided that the senate shall be called into no 16 more than two special sessions to consent to any judicial 17 appointments, and any subsequent appointments during the 18 legislative interim shall be held until the start of the next
19 regular session, when the senate may consent to the appointment
20 or appointments within thirty days. If the senate fails to do 21 so, the nomination shall be returned to the commission and the

1 commission shall make the appointment from the list without
2 senate consent. The chief justice shall appoint per diem
3 district court judges as provided by law.

4 The judicial selection commission shall disclose to the 5 public the list of nominees for each vacancy concurrently with 6 the presentation of each list to the governor or the chief
7 justice, as applicable.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR APPOINTMENT

10

11 Justices and judges shall be residents and citizens of the 12 State and of the United States, and licensed to practice law by 13 the supreme court. A justice of the supreme court, a judge of 14 the intermediate appellate court and a judge of the circuit 15 court shall have been so licensed for a period of not less than 16 ten years preceding nomination. A judge of the district court
17 shall have been so licensed for a period of not less than five 18 years preceding nomination.

19

20 No justice or judge shall, during the term of office, engage in the practice of law, or run for or hold any other

1 office or position of profit under the United States, the State
2 or its political subdivisions.

TENURE; RETIREMENT

6 The term of office of justices and judges of the supreme 7 court, intermediate appellate court and circuit courts shall be 8 ten years. Judges of district courts shall hold office for the 9 periods as provided by law. At least six months prior to the 10 expiration of a justice's or judge's term of office, every 11 justice and judge shall petition the judicial selection 12 commission to be retained in office or shall inform the 13 commission of an intention to retire. If the judicial selection 14 commission determines that the justice or judge should be 15 retained in office, the commission shall renew the term of 16 office of the justice or judge for the period provided by this 17 section or by law.

18 Justices and judges shall be retired upon attaining the age
19 of seventy years. They shall be included in any retirement law
20 of the State."

1 SECTION 3. The question to be printed on the ballot shall 2 be as follows:

3 "Shall the Constitution of the State of Hawaii be amended 4 to place procedural restrictions on the timing of when 5 judicial appointments and confirmations may occur?"

6 SECTION 4. Constitutional material to be repealed is 7 bracketed and stricken. New constitutional material is 8 underscored.

9 SECTION 5. This amendment shall take effect upon 10 compliance with article XVII, section 3, of the Constitution of 11 the State of Hawaii.
