A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO THE OAHU REGIONAL HEALTH CARE SYSTEM, HAWAII HEALTH SYSTEMS CORPORATION.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that there is currently
2 no state veterans home to serve the needs of the veterans
3 community on the island of Maui. State veterans homes are 4 facilities that provide long-term care and rehabilitation care
5 for veterans, their spouses, and gold-star parents. State
6 veterans homes are funded primarily through the United States
7 Department of Veterans Affairs, and medicare or medicaid funds.

8 The legislature further finds that development plans for 9 the construction of the Maui state veterans home is currently
10 being undertaken by the department of defense. However,
11 management, operation, and staffing of the Maui state veterans
12 home should be placed under a state agency able to manage a
13 long-term care facility.

14 The purpose of this Act is to transfer the Maui state
15 veterans home to the Oahu regional health care system.

S.B. NO. 2837
