pharmaceutical, and cosmetic industries. Your Committees further find that the establishment of a single biodiesel refinery in the State would generate millions in revenue, hundreds of jobs, and additional opportunities for agricultural research. This measure supports the growth of local agriculture and energy sectors and thereby the economic diversity and resiliency of the State.

As affirmed by the records of votes of the members of your Committees on Agriculture and Environment and Energy, Economic Development, and Tourism that are attached to this report, your Committees concur with the intent and purpose of S.R. No. 108 and recommend its adoption.
