Chair Tarnas, Vice Chair Takayama and members of the Committee. The Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism (DBEDT) supports Administration Bill, HB996, HD1, which amends Hawai'i Revised Statutes (HRS) Chapter 205 to adopt an improved incentive for the construction of clustered farmer and farm employee housing on lands designated as Important Agricultural Land (IAL) by the State Land Use Commission. This measure would repeal HRS Section 204-45.5, the existing incentive for farmer and farm employee housing that was adopted in 2008 as part of a set of State incentives for the designation of IAL.

Repeal of the existing provision would eliminate what is interpreted as more restrictive use of farm dwellings on lands designated as IAL, which has concerned landowners whose land is being proposed for designation as IAL under the mandated county IAL designation procedure in HRS Section 205-49. The new incentive would make it easier to provide needed agricultural housing for farmers of IAL lands, but under conditions that provide safeguards that minimize the amount of agricultural land taken out of production.

Thank you for the opportunity to testify on this measure.

Chairperson Tarnas and Members of the Committee:

Thank you for the opportunity to testify on House Bill No. 996, HD1. The Department of Agriculture supports this measure that repeals the existing provision for farm dwelling and farm employee housing on Important Agricultural Lands and adopts a new provision for farm cluster housing as an incentive for the designation of agricultural lands as Important Agricultural Lands pursuant to Chapter 205.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide our testimony on this measure.

Chair Tarnas, Vice Chair Takayama, and Members of the House Committee on Judiciary and Hawaiian Affairs:

The Office of Planning and Sustainable Development (OPSD) strongly supports HB 996, HD 1. The existing provision for farm worker housing on Important Agricultural Lands (IAL) in HRS § 205-45.5 was enacted in 2008 (Act 233) as part of an IAL incentives package. As currently written, HRS § 205-45.5 allows for multiple farm dwellings on IAL, provided that the occupants, including family members, are actively engaged in farming. Hearings before the Land Use Commission revealed that farmers perceived these requirements were more restrictive than that allowed for lands, in general, in the State Agricultural District. Additionally, the current law does not provide any relief from county development standards and processes.

HB 996, HD 1 remedies both matters and strikes a balance between meeting the need for affordable farm worker housing and protecting agricultural lands from non-agricultural residential uses.

Thank you for the opportunity to testify on this measure.

HOUSE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY & HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS

TESTIMONY ON HB 996, HD1
RELATING TO IMPORTANT AGRICULTURAL LANDS

Conference Room 325 & Videoconference
2:00 PM

Aloha Chair Tarnas, Vice-Chair Takayama, and Members of the Committee:

I am Brian Miyamoto, Executive Director of the Hawai'i Farm Bureau (HFB). Organized since 1948, the HFB is comprised of 1,800 farm family members statewide and serves as Hawai'i's voice of agriculture to protect, advocate and advance the social, economic, and educational interests of our diverse agricultural community.

The Hawai'i Farm Bureau supports HB 996, HD1, which repeals the provision for farm dwelling and farm employee housing on Important Agricultural Lands and adopts a new provision for farm cluster housing as an incentive for the designation of lands as Important Agricultural Lands pursuant to chapter 205, Hawaii Revised Statutes.

The identification and designation of Important Agricultural Lands (IAL) was first proposed at the 1978 Constitutional Convention and subsequently approved by voters in the same year. Enacted as Article XI, Section 3, of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, the State is required to conserve and protect agricultural lands, promote diversified agriculture, increase agricultural self-sufficiency, and assure the availability of agriculturally suitable lands.

Several attempts to establish IAL in statute were attempted over the years, but it was only in 2005 that Act 183 was enacted. In 2008, Act 233 was enacted to establish incentives, such as tax credits, loan guarantees, and expedited regulatory processing to encourage landowners to designate their lands as IAL.

Another incentive allows landowners to develop farm dwellings and employee housing for their immediate family members and their employees. It limits the farm dwelling to 5% of the total IAL or 50 acres, whichever is less. It also requires that plans for farm dwellings and employee housing be supported by agricultural plans approved by HDOA.

Many small landowners are unaware of how IAL designation will impact their land use and rights. Agricultural landowners are justifiably concerned about the occupancy limits on farm dwellings, especially those who plan to retire on their farm, as they believe IAL law restricts occupation to those who are actively farming. They worry that they may be forced to leave their homes once they are no longer physically able to do the work required to farm. Additionally, some of the long-time small farmers had intended to pass on their property to each of their adult children through subdividing. Because of the limitations and uncertainty associated with approvals of that process under an IAL designation, they are understandably uneasy about their future and their succession planning. Unfortunately, they have not been able to get clarification about this and other issues associated with IAL designation.

HB 996, HD1 seeks to clarify the Legislative Intent of Act 233 SLH regarding the Farm Dwellings and Employee Housing Incentive for lands designated as IAL.

Thank you for the opportunity to testify on this measure.
