Re: Review of Special Funds, Revolving Funds, Trust Funds, and Trust Accounts of the Department of Accounting and General Services, Report No. 23-17

Dear President Kouchi and Speaker Saiki:

Please find attached a copy of Report No. 23-17, Review of Special Funds, Revolving Funds, Trust Funds, and Trust Accounts of the Department of Accounting and General Services, along with a copy of the Auditor's Summary.

This report presents a five-year summary for each special fund, revolving fund, trust fund, and trust account maintained by the Department of Accounting and General Services, evaluates the original intent and purpose of each fund and account, and determines the degree to which each fund and account achieves its stated and claimed purpose.

The report is accessible through the Office of the Auditor's website at:
<https://files.hawaii.gov/auditor/Reports/2023/23-17.pdf>.

The summary is also accessible through the Office of the Auditor's website at:

Auditor's Summary

Review of Special Funds, Revolving Funds, Trust Funds, and Trust Accounts of the Department of Accounting and General Services

Report No. 23-17

One revolving fund, one trust fund, and five trust accounts did not meet criteria

OUR REVIEW of seven special funds, five revolving funds, nine trust funds, and twelve trust accounts of the Department of Accounting and General Services (DAGS) found one revolving fund, one trust fund, and five trust accounts did not meet the criteria for revolving funds, trust funds, and trust accounts, respectively, and should be closed or reclassified.

Section 23-12, Hawai'i Revised Statutes (HRS), requires the Auditor to review all existing special, revolving, and trust funds every five years. Reviews are scheduled so that each department's funds are reviewed once every five years. Although not mandated by statute, we included trust accounts as part of our review. This is our seventh review of DAGS' revolving funds, trust funds, and trust accounts. It is our third review of the special funds held by DAGS since Act 130, Session Laws of Hawai'i 2013, amended Section 23-12, HRS, to require review of special funds along with revolving funds and trust funds.

We used criteria developed by the Legislature and by our office based on public finance and accounting literature. For each fund, we present a five-year financial summary, the purpose of the fund, and conclusions about its use. We did not audit the financial data, which is provided for informational purposes. We do not present conclusions about the effectiveness of programs or their management, or whether the programs should be continued.

Reporting shortfall

WE NOTED THAT DAGS did not file statutorily required reports for administratively created non-general funds totaling approximately $118,000, non-general funds with balances totaling approximately $3.96 million under the program measures reporting requirement, and non-general funds with balances totaling approximately -$5.4 million under the cost element reporting requirement. Accurate and complete reporting will greatly improve the Legislature's oversight and control of these funds.

FUND TYPES

are used to account for revenues earmarked for particular purposes and from which expenditures are made for those purposes.

REVOLVING FUNDS

such as loan funds, are often established with an appropriation of seed money from the general fund, and must demonstrate the capacity to be self-sustaining.

TRUST FUNDS

such as a pension fund, invoke the State's fiduciary responsibility to care for and use the assets held to benefit those with a vested interest in the assets.

TRUST ACCOUNTS

are typically separate holding or clearing accounts and are often used as accounting devices for crediting or charging state agencies or projects for payroll and other costs.

Agency response

DAGS CONCURRED WITH MOST OF OUR FINDINGS and stated that it will ensure compliance with all statutory reporting requirements. However, DAGS noted that the revolving fund that did not meet criteria did not have a General Fund appropriation for FY2024 deposited into the fund. DAGS noted the trust fund that did not meet criteria was established as a trust fund by statute and would not be financially self-sustaining if the fund classification changed. We maintain our assessment that these funds do not meet criteria for those types of funds established by the Legislature. The program the revolving fund supports can be supported by the General Fund appropriation process and the revenue stream for the trust fund does not meet the definition of a trust fund.

A Report to the Governor and the Legislature of the State of Hawai'i

Report No. 23-17
December 2023

OFFICE OF THE AUDITOR
STATE OF HAWAII

OFFICE OF THE AUDITOR STATE OF HAWAII

Constitutional Mandate

Pursuant to Article VII, Section 10 of the Hawai'i State Constitution, the Office of the Auditor shall conduct post-audits of the transactions, accounts, programs and performance of all departments, offices and agencies of the State and its political subdivisions.

The Auditor's position was established to help eliminate waste and inefficiency in government, provide the Legislature with a check against the powers of the executive branch, and ensure that public funds are expended according to legislative intent.

Hawai'i Revised Statutes, Chapter 23, gives the Auditor broad powers to examine all books, records, files, papers and documents, and financial affairs of every agency. The Auditor also has the authority to summon people to produce records and answer questions under oath.

Our Mission

To improve government through independent and objective analyses.

We provide independent, objective, and meaningful answers to questions about government performance. Our aim is to hold agencies accountable for their policy implementation, program management, and expenditure of public funds.

Our Work

We conduct performance audits (also called management or operations audits), which examine the efficiency and effectiveness of government programs or agencies, as well as financial audits, which attest to the fairness of financial statements of the State and its agencies.

Additionally, we perform procurement audits, sunrise analyses and sunset evaluations of proposed regulatory programs, analyses of proposals to mandate health insurance benefits, analyses of proposed special and revolving funds, analyses of existing special, revolving and trust funds, and special studies requested by the Legislature.

We report our findings and make recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature to help them make informed decisions.

Foreword

This is a report of our review of the special funds, revolving funds, trust funds, and trust accounts of the Department of Accounting and General Services.

Section 23-12, Hawai‘i Revised Statutes (HRS), requires the Auditor to review all existing special, revolving, and trust funds, once every five years. Although not mandated by statute, we include trust accounts as part of our review. This is our seventh review of the revolving funds, trust funds, and trust accounts of the Department of Accounting and General Services. It is our third review of its special funds since Section 23-12, HRS, was amended by Act 130, Session Laws of Hawai‘i 2013, to include reviews of special funds.

We wish to express our appreciation for the cooperation and assistance extended to us by the Department of Accounting and General Services.

Chapter 1

Introduction

This review encompasses the special funds, revolving funds, trust funds, and trust accounts administered by the State of Hawai‘i Department of Accounting and General Services (DAGS). Section 23-12, Hawai‘i Revised Statutes (HRS), requires the Auditor to review each state department’s special, revolving, and trust funds every five years. Although not mandated by Section 23-12, HRS, we have included trust accounts as part of our review. Trust accounts, like special, revolving, and trust funds, are funded outside of the General Fund appropriation process and are therefore generally subject to less legislative scrutiny than the State’s General Fund. For each fund and account, our review included:

1. An evaluation of the original intent and purpose of the fund or account, both as expressed by the Legislature and as understood by the expending agency;
2. The degree to which the fund or account achieves its stated and claimed purposes;
3. An evaluation of the fund or account’s performance standards as established by the agency; and
4. A summary statement reflecting total fund transactions in the preceding five fiscal years, including the fund or account balance at the beginning of each fiscal year, total deposits and withdrawals, amount of interest earned, total expenditures made from the fund or account, and the ending balance for each fiscal year.

This is our seventh review of DAGS’ revolving funds, trust funds, and trust accounts.¹ It is our third review of DAGS’ special funds, since Act 130, Session Laws of Hawai‘i (SLH) 2013, amended Section 23-12, HRS, to require review of special funds along with revolving funds and trust funds. We last examined these funds and accounts in 2018.

Description of Special Funds, Revolving Funds, Trust Funds, and Trust Accounts

Special funds

Section 37-62, HRS, defines a special fund as one that is “dedicated or set aside by law for a specified object or purpose, but excluding revolving funds and trust funds.” According to the State’s Accounting Manual, special funds are funds used to account for revenues earmarked for particular purposes and from which expenditures are made for those purposes.

Revolving funds

Section 37-62, HRS, defines a revolving fund as one “from which is paid the cost of goods and services rendered or furnished to or by a state agency and which is replenished through charges made for the goods or services or through transfers from other accounts or funds.” Activities commonly financed through revolving funds include loan programs, which are initially established by general fund seed moneys and are then replenished through the repayment of loans.

Trust funds

Section 37-62, HRS, defines a trust fund as one in which “designated persons or classes of persons have a vested beneficial interest or equitable ownership, or which was created or established by a gift, grant, contribution, devise or bequest that limits the use of the fund to designated objects or purposes.” Trust funds invoke a fiduciary responsibility of state government to care for and use the assets held only for those designated to benefit from the funds. A pension fund is an example of a trust fund. Contributions and payments are to be held for the beneficiaries of the pension fund. Another example is tenants’ security deposits, which are held in trust for the future benefit of tenants and landlords. Until forfeited or returned, deposits are the property of the tenants and should be accounted for accordingly.

Trust accounts

DAGS defines a trust account as a separate holding or clearing account for state agencies. Trust accounts also serve as accounting devices to credit or charge agencies or projects for payroll or other costs.

Criteria for Reviewing Special Funds, Revolving Funds, Trust Funds, and Trust Accounts

Special and revolving fund criteria

In 2002, the Legislature set the requirements for establishing and continuing special and revolving funds. Sections 37-52.3 and 37-52.4, HRS, state that special and revolving funds may only be established by statute. The criteria used to review special and revolving funds are the extent to which each fund:

- Serves a need, as demonstrated by: (a) the purpose of the program to be supported by the fund; (b) the scope of the program, including financial information on fees to be charged, sources of projected revenue, and costs; and (c) an explanation of why the program cannot be implemented successfully under the General Fund appropriation process;
- Reflects a clear nexus between the benefits sought and charges made upon the program users or beneficiaries, or a clear link between the program and the sources of revenue – as opposed to serving primarily as a means to provide the program or users with an automatic means of support removed from the normal budget and appropriation process;
- Provides an appropriate means of financing for the program or activity that is used only when essential to the successful operation of the program or activity; and
- Demonstrates the capacity to be financially self-sustaining.

Trust fund and trust account criteria

Unlike the requirements for special and revolving funds, the law is silent on whether a trust fund or trust account must be established by statute. The criteria used in this report to review trust funds and trust accounts are the extent to which each fund and account:

- Continues to serve the purpose and intent for which it was originally created, and
- Meets the definition of a trust fund or trust account, respectively.

The first criterion is derived from the objectives of Section 23-12, HRS, which requires the Auditor to evaluate the original intent of each fund and the degree to which each fund achieves its stated purpose. The second criterion assesses whether a fund is held by the State only for the benefit of those with a vested interest in the assets or an account is held as a separate or clearing account.

Objectives of the Review

1. Identify and review all special funds, revolving funds, trust funds, and trust accounts of DAGS.
2. For each special fund, revolving fund, trust fund, and trust account, determine whether the fund or account meets the respective criteria.
3. Provide a five-year (FY2019 – FY2023) unaudited financial summary for each fund and account of DAGS.

Scope and Methodology

We reviewed all special funds, revolving funds, trust funds, and trust accounts administered by DAGS during the five-year period under review (FY2019 – FY2023). Funds and accounts included those established pursuant to an act as well as by administrative authority.

To identify funds subject to this review, we used a variety of sources, including our prior reviews, accounting reports from DAGS, non-general fund reports, legislative budget briefing documents, and other records. To gain an understanding of fund operations, we reviewed applicable agency administrative rules and interviewed key fiscal and program personnel, as necessary.

We obtained a summary statement for each fund that reflects total fund transactions in the preceding five fiscal years (July 1, 2018 to June 30, 2023), including beginning fund balances, total revenues, amount of interest earned, total expenditures, transfers, and ending fund balances for each fiscal year. We requested explanations for discrepancies between ending balances for FY2018 reported in our last review and opening balances reported for FY2019. We did not audit the department's financial data, which we provide for informational purposes only.

Procedures were performed on each fund using relevant criteria as stated above. We reviewed fund information for consistency with the intent of each fund's use and to ascertain the relationship between charges on users and expenditures. We reviewed information on performance standards established for the funds or accounts and performed other procedures as necessary.

Where appropriate, we relied on our prior reports, including Report No. 18-21, Review of Special Funds, Revolving Funds, Trust Funds, and Trust Accounts of the Department of Accounting and General Services.

Our review was conducted from August 2023 to November 2023. Recommendations were made where applicable.

Chapter 2

Department of Accounting and General Services

This chapter presents the results of our review of seven special funds, five revolving funds, nine trust funds, and twelve trust accounts. Total fund fiscal year-end balances for DAGS amounted to at least $72 million per year during the period reviewed.

Exhibit 2.1 summarizes the totals for these fund balances at the end of each fiscal year.

Exhibit 2.1
Cash Balances for the Department of Accounting and General Services' Non-General Funds, FY2019 – FY2023 (in millions)

Total	$4,258,684,000	$4,380,785,000	$71,891,000

Source: Office of the Auditor

For each fund and account, we present a five-year financial summary, the purpose of the fund or account, and conclusions about its use and whether it meets the definition of the type of fund or account. This review does not include an assessment of the effectiveness of the program or its management. Funds are presented in alphabetical order.

Exhibit 2.3 presents DAGS funds and accounts that did not meet criteria for continuance and should be closed or reclassified.

Fund Summary

Account Type	Trust account
How was the account created?	Administratively established (2023)
Why was it created?	The account was temporarily used to receive and disburse funds for various rebates, credits, and other refunds due to various jurisdictions in the State of Hawai'i. The department noted the account was specifically used for a Hawaiian Airlines credit where departments had until March 31, 2023 to claim their credit from the vendor. Once the credit deadline passed, the account was no longer needed.
Account meets criteria?	This account was closed in FY2023, and the remaining balance was transferred to the General Fund.

Chapter 3

Observations on Reporting and Accounting for Funds

Special, revolving, and other types of non-general funds are not subject to the same level of legislative scrutiny as the General Fund. Accurate and complete reporting of all funds, as required by law, would greatly improve the Legislature's oversight and control of these funds and provide increased budgetary flexibility. Fund reports are one of the primary means through which the Legislature tracks non-general funds. The reports are used to monitor fund balances and identify excess moneys for possible transfer to the General Fund.

Non-General Funds Were Not Reported as Required by Law

Section 37-47, HRS, requires departments to submit to the Legislature an annual report of each non-general fund account, including information such as the intended purpose of the fund, current program activities supported by the fund, and financial data. The Director of Finance annually issues a memorandum requesting all departments complete and submit Form 37-47, Report on Non-General Fund Information, to the Department of Budget and Finance for each of their non-general funds. The Department of Budget and Finance compiles a report of all non-general fund accounts and submits it to the Legislature prior to the start of each legislative session.

Section 37-48, HRS, enacted by the Legislature through Act 87 in 2021, requires departments to submit to the Legislature an annual program measures report of each non-general fund account, including information such as program objectives, program activities, metrics for target population, and metrics for assessing effectiveness over the ensuing six fiscal years. The report must be filed no later than October 1 annually.

Section 37-49, HRS, also enacted by the Legislature through Act 87 in 2021, requires departments to submit to the Legislature an annual cost element report of each non-general fund account, including information such as budget details by cost element and non-general fund names and account codes for each item or object code. The report must be filed no later than October 1 annually.

Section 37-52.5, HRS, requires the Judiciary and any department that administratively establishes a new fund or account to submit a report to the Legislature. The report must be filed within 30 working days of a fund or account's creation and should include a justification for the fund or account and identification of its sources of revenue. In addition, prior to the start of each legislative session, the law also requires each department to submit to the Legislature a listing of all administratively established funds or accounts along with a statement of their revenues, expenditures, encumbrances, and ending balances for each fund or account. This report is separate from the non-general fund report required under Section 37-47, HRS.

During our review, we noted noncompliance with statutory requirements to report program measures, as required by Section 37-48, HRS, cost elements, as required by Section 37-49, HRS, as well as fund information for administratively established funds and accounts under Section 37-52.5, HRS.

As shown in Exhibit 3.1, DAGS had administratively created non-general funds with balances totaling approximately $118,000 that were not reported to the Legislature as required by Section 37-52.5, HRS, non-general funds with balances totaling $4 million that were not reported to the Legislature as required by Section 37-48, HRS, and non-general funds with balances totaling -$5.4 million that were not reported to the Legislature as required by Section 37-49, HRS.

Office of the Auditor's Comments on the Department of Accounting and General Services' Response

Comments on Agency Response

WE TRANSMITTED a draft of this review to the Department of Accounting and General Services (DAGS) on December 12, 2023. We received DAGS' formal response to the draft report, which is attached in its entirety as Attachment 1. We address DAGS' comments below.

DAGS concurred with our findings that the Temporary Deposits – Public Works trust account does not meet the criteria for continuance and represented that it will be closed. DAGS also concurred with our findings that four trust accounts should be reclassified as trust funds.

We reported that a revolving fund, State Risk Management Revolving Fund, did not meet the criteria of a revolving fund. DAGS stated that while the program the fund supports receives a General Fund appropriation, general funds were not deposited to or expended from the State Risk Management Revolving Fund for FY2024. We reviewed financial data through FY2023 and found that the fund was not financially self-sustaining as expenditures exceeded revenues for four out of the five years under review, which included general funds. The Legislature set the requirements for establishing and continuing revolving funds. See Section 37-52.4, HRS. One requirement is that revolving funds must serve a need, as demonstrated by an explanation of why the program cannot be implemented successfully under the General Fund appropriation process. Another requirement is that the fund demonstrates the capacity to be financially self-sustaining. Therefore, we maintain that this fund does not meet the revolving fund criteria.

We reported that a trust fund, Washington Place Trust Fund, did not meet the criteria of a trust fund and should be reclassified as a special fund. DAGS stated that Washington Place is currently supported by general fund appropriations for personnel and expenses, and it would not be financially self-sustaining if it had to take on these costs. Revenues are primarily from rents and fees charged for the use of, and activities conducted at, Washington Place, which are used to maintain and repair Washington Place, its antiques and cultural artifacts, and its grounds. Trust funds are defined as funds in which designated persons or classes of persons have a vested beneficial interest or equitable ownership, or which was created or established by a gift, grant, contribution, devise, or bequest that limits the use of the fund to designated objects or purposes. See Section 37-62, HRS. As the fund is receiving rental revenues as the primary source of income, we maintain that this fund does not meet the trust fund criteria.

DAGS also concurred with our findings and represented that it will take appropriate action to ensure compliance with all statutory reporting requirements.

Leslie H. Kondo, State Auditor
Office of the Auditor
465 S. King Street, Room 500
Honolulu, Hawai'i 96813-2917

Dear Mr. Kondo:

Thank you for the opportunity to comment on your draft report, Review of Special Funds, Revolving Funds, Trust Funds, and Trust Accounts of the Department of Accounting and General Services. We have reviewed your draft report and provide the following comments:

We agree with the State Auditor that the following trust account does not meet the criteria for continuance and will be closed:

- Temporary Deposits – Public Works

We concur with the recommendations to reclassify the following trust accounts to trust funds and will take the necessary action to effectuate the change:

- Refundable Deposits – Public Works – Leasing Branch
- Refundable Deposits – Public Works – Other Than Leasing
- State Foundation on Culture and the Arts
- Temporary Deposits – Automotive Management

State Risk Management Revolving Fund

We offer the following comments on the draft report's conclusion that the State Risk Management Revolving Fund does not meet all the criteria of a revolving fund because it relies on General Fund appropriations and is not financially self-sustaining. The State Risk Management program receives a General Fund appropriation which is used to purchase insurance policies that cover General Funded programs statewide. Additional General Fund appropriation was provided in FY24 but without the corresponding revolving fund ceiling to expend the funds from the State Risk Management Revolving Fund. Therefore, the General Fund appropriation will not be deposited into the State Risk Management Revolving Fund but will be expended directly from the General Fund to pay for insurance premiums. As such, this fund meets the criteria of a revolving fund.

Leslie H. Kondo, State Auditor

Washington Place Trust Fund

The draft report states that the Washington Place Trust Fund should be reclassified as a special fund. The Washington Place Trust Fund is established as a Trust Fund by section 26-6(i), Hawai'i Revised Statutes, to preserve and protect Washington Place, including the grounds and the historic residence situated on its premises. Washington Place is currently supported by General Fund appropriations for personnel and expenses. The Washington Place Trust Fund would not be financially self-sustaining if it had to take on these costs. We believe it is appropriately classified as a Trust Fund.

Non-General Funds and Administratively Created Funds Not Reported to the Legislature

The Department will implement procedures to ensure that all funds are reported to the Legislature pursuant to sections 37-47, 37-48, 37-49, and 37-52.5, Hawai'i Revised Statutes.

Sincerely,

Keith A. Regan
Comptroller
