A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO THE STATE ETHICS CODE.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The purpose of this Act is to require that the
2 person or organization that filed an ethics charge to the
3 commission be informed of the status of the charge upon request,
4 including the final disposition.

5 SECTION 2. Chapter 84, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended
6 by adding a new section to part IV to be appropriately
7 designated and to read as follows:

8 "§84- Charge filed by a person or organization other
9 than the commission. If a charge concerning alleged violations
10 of this chapter is filed by a person or organization other than 11 the commission, the person or organization that has filed a
12 charge with the commission shall be informed of the status of 13 the charge upon request, including the final disposition of the 14 charge, whether by order to dismiss, issuance of an informal
15 advisory opinion, decision after a hearing, or final disposition
16 by any other means."

17 SECTION 3. New statutory material is underscored.

S.B. NO. 1565
