

GOV. MSG. NO. 509

CHIEF BENJAMIN T. MOSZKOWICZ

Introduction

Benjamin Moszkowicz is the Chief of the Hawaii Police Department, the law enforcement agency primarily responsible for the over 4,000 square miles of the 'Big Island' of Hawaii. He oversees 484 sworn personnel and 156 professional staff members.

Academic Experience

April – June 2022	Federal Bureau of Investigation – National Academy Graduate of 282 nd Session
December 2021	Master of Science Degree, University of San Diego Law Enforcement and Public Safety Leadership
July 2014	Fellow, Asia-Pacific Center for Security Studies Daniel K. Inouye
June 2000	Bachelor of Art's Degree, University of Hawaii – West Oahu Public Administration - Justice Administration

Professional Experience

1-17-23 to present	Chief of Police Hawaii Police Department
9-20-20 to 1-16-23	Metropolitan Police Major, Division Commanding Officer Traffic Division, Criminal Investigation Division, Human Resources Division, Information Technology Division
7-1-18 to 9-19-20	Metropolitan Police Captain, Division Commanding Officer Information Technology Division, Traffic Division
2-29-16 to 6-30-18	Metropolitan Police Lieutenant, Watch Commander Traffic Division, Uniform Patrol – District 8 HPD Mountain Bike Team Commander
1-23-10 to 2-28-16	Metropolitan Police Sergeant, Supervisor, Grant Writer Uniform Patrol – District 8, District 6, Traffic Division, Special Field Operations Bureau/APEC Planning Group, Records & Identification Division
12-1-01 to 1-23-10	Metropolitan Police Officer I, Patrol Officer Traffic Division, Uniform Patrol – District 5
8-31-00 to 11-30-01	Metropolitan Police Recruit Honolulu Police Department