LOCATION: State Capitol, Room 016 and Videoconference

TESTIFIER(S): Anne E. Lopez, Attorney General, or Valerie Mariano, Acting Administrator, Crime Prevention and Justice Assistance Division

Chairs Aquino and Rhoads and Members of the Committees:

The Department of the Attorney General supports this bill that changes the administration of the Human Trafficking Victim Services Fund from the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations to the Department of the Attorney General.

The Department of the Attorney General is committed to combatting all forms of human trafficking and sex trafficking in Hawai'i. The Department's Special Investigation and Prosecution Division was created to fulfill this purpose, as it is a mission-driven unit that investigates and prosecutes human-trafficking and sex-trafficking crimes. As the Department comes into contact with victims of human trafficking, the human trafficking victim services fund may be used to supplement programs, grants, or purchase of service contracts that support or provide comprehensive services to victims of labor trafficking or sex trafficking.

We respectfully ask the Committees to pass this bill. Thank you for the opportunity to provide testimony.

Re: H.B. 1967, H.D. 1 RELATING TO HUMAN TRAFFICKING VICTIMS SERVICES FUND

I. OVERVIEW OF PROPOSED LEGISLATION

This bill would amend HRS §706-650.5 to transfer the human trafficking special fund from the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, where it is being administered by the Office of Community Services (OCS), to the Department of the Attorney General.

II. CURRENT LAW

The Office of Community Services has had a special fund for serving human trafficking victims since 2014. However, the sum that was collected was never sufficient to administer services for trafficking victims.

III. COMMENTS ON THE BILL

This bill would transfer the special fund to the Department of the Attorney General where any funds could be consolidated with funds from other sources, to provide for reparations to trafficking victims. OCS supports this measure and thanks the Committees for the opportunity to testify.

RE: HB 1967 HD1 Relating to the Human Trafficking Victim Services Fund

POSITION: STRONG SUPPORT

The Hawai'i State Democratic Women's Caucus writes in strong support of HB 1967 HD1 Relating to the Human Trafficking Victim Services Fund which would move the Human Trafficking Victim Services Fund from the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations to the Department of the Attorney General.

The Department of the Attorney General currently plays an important role in prosecuting traffickers and coordinating victim services. Shifting these funds would place the funds where they may be used more efficiently and focused on the care needed by trafficking survivors.

This measure is a priority for the Hawai'i State Democratic Women's Caucus. The Hawai'i State Democratic Women's Caucus is a catalyst for progressive, social, economic, and political change through action on critical issues facing Hawaii's women and girls.

We respectfully request that the Committees pass this crucial measure. Thank you for the opportunity to submit our testimony in strong support of HB 1967 HD1.

HB 1967, HD1, RELATING TO THE HUMAN TRAFFICKING VICTIM SERVICES FUND

MARCH 19, 2024 · LBT/JDC HEARING

POSITION: Support.

RATIONALE: Imua Alliance supports HB 1967, HD1, relating to the human trafficking victim services fund, which changes the administration of the Human Trafficking Victim Services Fund from the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations to the Department of the Attorney General.

Imua Alliance is a victim service provider for survivors of sex trafficking. Over the past 15 years, we have provided comprehensive direct intervention (victim rescue) services to over 200 victims, successfully emancipating them from slavery and assisting in their restoration, while providing a range of targeted services to over 1,000 victims and individuals at risk of sexual exploitation. During the pandemic, demand for victim services to our organization skyrocketed by 330 percent, driven in part by a fivefold increase in direct crisis calls.

Each of the victims we have assisted has suffered from complex and overlapping trauma, including post-traumatic stress disorder, depression and anxiety, dissociation, parasuicidal behavior, and substance abuse. Trafficking-related trauma can lead to a complete loss of identity. A victim we cared for in 2016, for example, had become so heavily trauma bonded to her pimp that while under his grasp, she couldn't remember her own name. Yet, sadly, many of the victims with whom we work are misidentified as so-called "voluntary prostitutes" and are subsequently arrested and incarcerated, with no financial resources from which to pay for their release.

Sex trafficking is a profoundly violent crime. At least 23 percent of trafficking victims in Hawai'i report being first exploited before turning 18, according to a recent report, with the average age of trafficked keiki's initial exposure to exploitation being 11. Based on regular outreach and monitoring, we estimate that approximately 150 high-risk sex trafficking establishments operate in Hawai'i. In a recent report conducted by the State Commission on the Status of Women, researchers from Arizona State University found that 1 in every 11 adult males living in our state buys sex online. When visitors are also counted, that number worsens to 1 in every 7 men walking the streets of our island home and a daily online sex buyer market of 18,614 for O'ahu and a total sex buyer population for the island of 74,362, including both tourists and residents.

ASU's findings are grim, but not surprising to local organizations that provide services to survivors of sex trafficking. Imua Alliance, for example, has trained volunteers to perform outreach to victims in high-risk locations, like strip clubs, massage parlors, and hostess bars. More than 80 percent of runaway youth report being approached for sexual exploitation while on the run, over 30 percent of whom are targeted within the first 48 hours of leaving home. With regard to mental health, sex trafficking victims are twice as likely to suffer from PTSD as a soldier in a war zone.

Greater than 80 percent of victims report being repeatedly raped and 95 percent report being physically assaulted, numbers that are underreported, according to the United States Department of State and numerous trauma specialists, because of the inability of many victims to recognize sexual violence. As one underage survivor told Imua Alliance prior to being rescued, "I can't be raped. Only good girls can be raped. I'm a bad girl. If I want to be raped, I have to earn it."

Accordingly, we support measures to advance our state's fight against sexual servitude, including this bill's placing of the state's Human Trafficking Victim Services Fund within the auspices of the Department of the Attorney General. That said, we note that the fund had a cash balance of $2,750 at the end of the 2022-2023 fiscal year. Additional revenue streams beyond criminal fees need to be created to help the fund meet its purpose of serving survivors.

Dear LBT and JDC Committee Members,

I urge you to support this important bill. Moving the prosecution of human trafficking to the Attorney General will increase the possibility of prosecuting the criminals who are engaging in this horrible practice. Human trafficking does exist in Hawaii and we must stop it and put away the individuals and groups that are engaging in it. Please vote YES on this important measure.

Thank you for your consideration.

Conference Room 430

The Office of Hawaiian Affairs (OHA) SUPPORTS HB1967 HD1, which would move the human trafficking victim services fund from the department of labor and industrial relations to the department of the attorney general. This reallocation of resources is crucial for addressing the urgent needs of vulnerable individuals who have been subjected to exploitation and abuse.

Sex trafficking is a reprehensible crime that inflicts profound physical, psychological, and emotional harm on its victims. It is a violation of human rights and undermines the safety and well-being of our communities. Despite ongoing efforts to combat this scourge, sex trafficking remains a persistent problem in Hawai'i, with victims often facing significant barriers to accessing the support and services they desperately need. Studies have shown that Native Hawaiian women are especially vulnerable to trafficking. The majority (43%) of sex trafficking cases are kānaka Maoli girls trafficked in Waikīkī, O'ahu. And, 57% of participants served through the Mana'olana Program at Child & Family Services are Native Hawaiian females who have experienced human trafficking.

By shifting funds from the Department of Labor to the Attorney General's Office, we can better equip law enforcement agencies and victim service providers with the resources necessary to effectively respond to cases of sex trafficking and provide comprehensive assistance to survivors. The Attorney General's Office plays a central role in prosecuting traffickers, coordinating victim services, and implementing prevention initiatives. By bolstering their capacity, we can enhance our collective response to this complex issue.

Moreover, reallocating funds to the Attorney General's Office can facilitate the expansion of specialized services tailored to the unique needs of sex trafficking victims. This includes trauma-informed care, legal advocacy, housing assistance, and medical support. These services are essential for empowering survivors to rebuild their lives and pursue paths to healing and recovery.

OHA urges the committee to support the proposed allocation of funds for sex trafficking victims by approving the necessary budgetary adjustments. This critical investment will enable us to better serve survivors, hold perpetrators accountable, and work towards creating a future where all individuals can live free from exploitation and injustice.

The Office of Hawaiian Affairs urges the committees to PASS HB1967. Mahalo piha for the opportunity to testify on this measure.
