(1) The name of the requesting organization: Imi Ola Canoe Club

(2) The public purpose for the grant:

Imi Ola Canoe Club (IOCC) is dedicated to perpetuating the culture and traditions of Hawaiian outrigger canoe paddling by maintaining and preserving Hawaiian culture via Hawaiian watersports, particularly the State team sport of outrigger canoeing (HRS §5-14); provide equipment and facilities for canoe activities that develop and maintain healthy minds and bodies for all paddlers, keiki to kupuna; and provide opportunities for the interaction and communion of people for their mental and social wellbeing. IOCC also promotes outrigger canoe paddling through participation at national and international events and builds sister-club relationships with US mainland and international clubs.

As a youth-focused athletic team, we train to compete and win; however, as a young canoe club and nonprofit, we are building a club that honors native Hawaiian culture and instills the principles of inclusive teamwork and good sportsmanship. We want to build bridges with clubs from around the world and give our keiki and novice paddlers the opportunity to share our outrigger culture and learn cultural practices from other parts of the world.

Time together on the water builds critical connections to Hawaiian heritage, to place, to community, and to one's best self. These four connections characterize Pilinaha, an indigenous Hawaiian framework for health and wellness. IOCC's vision beyond athletics is to interweave programs such as ocean safety, art, cultural crafts, land management, forest stewardship, and community service collaboration with related stakeholders, in addition to athletic strength training and nutrition programs.

IOCC strives to give its 150+ paddlers, primarily youth and young adults, time in the canoe and on the water under the guidance of good coaches. Through practices several times a week and competitive racing, IOCC works to build strong paddlers who understand teamwork, respect for authority and one's peers, discipline, and sportsmanship. The club has set the high aspirational goal of representing Hawaii in the International Vaa Federation's Sprint Championships in Singapore in 2026. In the nearer term, the club plans to qualify and race at the 2025 Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association State Championship on Maui in August 2025, and long distance races throughout the State – Na Pali race on Kauai (August 2025), Liliuokalani Race in Kona (September 2025), Pailolo Challenge from Maui to Molokai (September 2025) – with the ultimate goal of representing the club in the Molokai Hoe race from Molokai to Oahu. IOCC is laying the groundwork by building strong and competitive crews for paddlers of all ages.

This Hawaii Grant-in-Aid (GIA) request supports building IOCC's capacity to regularly engage club members in paddling and racing through funding these key expenses: three canoes (one traditional "spec" OC6 and two Tahitian-style "unlimited" canoes). The "unlimited" style canoe is the current standard racing hull for international canoe racing and a traditional "spec" canoe is the standard racing hull style in Hawaii. A spec canoe can serve the club for 30 years or longer with proper maintenance, and an unlimited canoe should have a slightly shorter lifespan of 15-20 years due to its lighter construction and composition. An investment in canoes is an investment in the club.

Since IOCC's first GIA request last year, we have been blessed to have more interested persons join our club while retaining our previous membership. We believe the interest is largely because of our club culture of inclusivity and success in racing. Because IOCC has just three canoes (18 seats), this means that our practice days and times are staggered so that all members can receive enough time in the canoe to advance their skills. Given that families often have keiki of different ages and that our coaches volunteer their time, this poses numerous scheduling challenges for the club. Additional canoes will allow us to increase our training capacity, continue to retain our current paddlers, and recruit new paddlers.

(3) The services to be supported by the grant:

IOCC will provide these services to the community with funding from the Hawaii GIA:

1. Engage youth ages 10-18 and young adults in canoe paddling practices two times per week, with 36 paddlers (6 canoes) on the water and receiving coaching at the same time.
2. Train all paddlers to learn to work together and compete. IOCC will participate in the Na Opio race season (keiki only), the Kanaka Ikaika race season (all ages), and other distance and regatta races and to prepare the paddlers for the Molokai Hoe distance championship in 2025.
3. Teach youth to care for the canoe site and the canoes and educate them about Hawaiian cultural values and traditions.

4. Have our youth paddlers compete in neighbor island distance races and U.S. mainland distance races, if possible and schedule permitting.

(4) The target group:

Youth Paddlers:

IOCC's youth paddlers come from across the Island of Oahu, with the largest numbers residing in Kapolei/Waianae, Waipahu, Ewa Beach, and Kakaako, Downtown Honolulu, Chinatown, Punchbowl, Papakolea, Pauoa Valley, Nuuanu, and Iwilei. The youth paddlers come from diverse economic backgrounds with some families able to afford club membership dues and fees (insurance and racing fees) and others needing assistance (IOCC provides scholarships).

The Na Opio Canoe Association races have four crew categories:

Novice B for youth in 6th grade and younger, Novice A for youth in 7th and 8th grades, Junior Varsity, for 9-10th grade youth and under, and Varsity, for 12th grade and under. Thus IOCC paddlers start as young as 10 years old.

The entire club:

IOCC paddlers range in age from 8 years old up to over 75 years old and include many families (ohana) that paddle together. Outrigger canoe paddling is a sport that is unique as it can be performed by all ages and all stages of a person's life.

IOCC keiki paddlers learn positive healthy habits of exercise, group socialization, cooperative teamwork, and leadership skills. Young adults and busy professionals often engage in paddling to nurture a better work-life balance. The ocean is often a salve for many after a stressful workday. Experienced kupuna mentor younger paddlers in the technique and practices of outrigger canoe paddling. Novice kupuna often serve as inspiration to their fellow paddlers for embarking on and enthusiastically embracing their new sport and activity in their senior years.

IOCC's masters program 40+ has seen growth over the past year. An energetic mix of parent paddlers, older novices, and kupuna paddlers seeking to revisit the sport of their youth, the masters are in particular need of seat time in the canoe as they are usually the first to give up their seat to a younger paddler.

Outrigger paddling promotes a healthy lifestyle through athletic training, including weight loss/management and healthy eating. Obesity and diabetes are a significant health concerns of Native Hawaiians, and a June 2023 study by UH Manoa researchers found that 20% of Hawaii residents have participated in outrigger paddling across race and ethnicity, gender, age, education and income level, and health status. Because paddling is widely enjoyed, that makes it a promising area for widespread community health promotion.

(5) The cost of the grant and the budget:

The annual operational budget for Imi Ola Canoe Club is approximately $160,000. IOCC is requesting $89,890 from the State of Hawaii via the GIA program.

II. Background and Summary

1. A brief description of the applicant's background;
2. The goals and objectives related to the request;
3. The public purpose and need to be served;
4. Describe the target population to be served; and
5. Describe the geographic coverage.

II. Background and Summary

This section shall clearly and concisely summarize and highlight the contents of the request in such a way as to provide the State Legislature with a broad understanding of the request. Please include the following:

1. A brief description of the applicant's background

In the Hawaiian language, Imi Ola means “to seek the best life.” Founded in 2021, Imi Ola Canoe Club (IOCC) is a fully volunteer organization based on Sand Island (Mauliola) in Honolulu. The club has a clear mission: “to maintain and preserve Hawaiian culture via Hawaiian watersports, particularly the State team sport of outrigger canoeing; provide equipment and facilities for canoe activities that develop and maintain healthy minds and bodies; and provide opportunities for the interaction and communion of people for their mental and social well being.”

IOCC currently has more than 100 youth paddlers, ages 10 to 18 years, and another 50+ adult paddlers, young adults to kupuna in their 60s and 70s. The program is youth-focused and committed to building competitive junior canoe racers. The club belongs to the Na Opio Canoe Racing Association, which hosts weekly OC6 and OC1 races for juniors from January through March each year. IOCC also enters paddlers into the Kanaka Ikaika Racing Association, which hosts OC1 races (some OC6 teams compete) throughout the calendar year. As of March 2024, IOCC is an affiliate member of the Oahu Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association (OHCRA), the State's premiere outrigger canoeing association. Acceptance and membership in OHCRA is a milestone goal of IOCC, and OHCRA provides IOCC with support and a like-minded community of canoe paddlers.

2. The goals and objectives related to the request

Goals:

- a. To build a highly competitive youth-focused paddling program that honors Hawaiian cultural values.
- b. To provide competitive racing opportunities for open (ages 19-39) and masters paddlers (age 40+).
- c. To nurture novice, first time never-before paddled, paddlers.
- d. For all members of the club, and in particular the junior paddlers, to compete in regatta and long distance races throughout the year with the goal of competing in the gender appropriate Molokai to Oahu race (Na Wahine O Ke Kai or Molokai Hoe). Crossing the Kaiwi Channel is still regarded as the Super Bowl and World Series of outrigger canoe paddling.

Objectives:

- a. To build the capacity of IOCC to enable all club members, especially our keiki ages 10-18 to practice regularly in OC6 canoes.
- b. To support inclusivity and equity by creating opportunities for paddlers of all backgrounds to participate.
- c. To build mental and physical health in all club member paddlers through practice and competition.

3. The public purpose and need to be served;

IOCC is dedicated to perpetuating the culture and traditions of Hawaiian canoe paddling by giving youth from across Oahu opportunities to practice together, compete, and win races. Time together on the water builds critical connections to Hawaiian heritage, to place, to community, and to one's best self. These four connections characterize Pilinaha, an indigenous Hawaiian framework for health and wellness. IOCC's vision beyond athletics is to interweave programs such as ocean safety, art, cultural crafts, land management, forest stewardship, community service collaboration with related stakeholders, in addition to athletic strength training and nutrition programs.

IOCC strives to give more than 100 youth and 50+ adults time in the canoe and on the water under the guidance of good coaches. Through weekly practices and competitive racing, IOCC works to build strong junior paddlers who understand teamwork, respect for authority and one's peers, discipline, and sportsmanship. The club's FY2026 goal is to compete in a Molokai to Oahu race – Na Wahine O Ke Kai and/or Molokai Hoe. IOCC is laying the groundwork by building strong and competitive crews for boys and girls of all ages.

The need for meaningful youth sports activities is strong in Hawaii, especially given the high level of adults with diabetes, obesity, and hypertension. A June 2023 study by University of Hawaii researchers found that 20% of Hawaii residents have participated in Hawaiian outrigger canoe paddling. Paddling has particularly high popularity among Native Hawaiians where 42% have joined in this activity. The study also found the next ethnic group with the greatest participation was Pacific Islanders; 31% have paddled in their lifetime (data published by the Center for Disease Control). These findings are important because they suggest that promoting paddling and other activities that are physically demanding as well as culturally relevant, could be a meaningful way to improve physical activity rates in Hawaii, according to the researchers from the UH Office of Public Health Studies, the Hawaii Department of Health (DOH) and the John A. Burns School of Medicine.

UH Report: <https://www.hawaii.edu/news/2023/06/20/canoe-paddling-native-hawaiians-pacific-islanders-health-outcomes/>

CDC Study: https://www.cdc.gov/pcd/issues/2023/22\_0412.htm

This Hawaii Grant-in-Aid request supports building IOCC's capacity to regularly engage youth in paddling and racing through funding the key expense of three canoes (one OC6 and two Tahitian "unlimited" canoes). IOCC seeks to purchase unlimited canoes, which are the standard racing hull style for international and U.S. mainland canoe races and is evolving to be a racing option in Hawaii, and a traditional "spec" canoe, which is the long-standing standard racing hull style in Hawaii. An investment in canoes is an investment in the club.

At present, IOCC has just three canoes (18 seats), which means that our practice days and times are staggered so that all members receive enough time in the canoe to advance their skills. Given that families often have keiki of different ages and that our coaches volunteer their time, this poses numerous scheduling challenges for the club. Additional canoes will allow us to double our training capacity, continue to retain our current paddlers, and recruit new paddlers.

4. Describe the target population to be served; and IOCC's paddlers come from across the Island of Oahu, with the largest numbers residing in Kapolei, Waianae, Waipahu, Ewa Beach, Kakaako-Downtown Honolulu-Chinatown, Punchbowl, Papakolea, Pauoa Valley, Nuuanu, and Iwilei.

Our members come from diverse economic backgrounds with some families able to afford club membership dues and fees (paying for insurance and races) and others needing assistance (IOCC provides scholarships). We are sensitive to members who attend Title I schools to make sure any economic disparity does not negatively impact participation.

5. Describe the geographic coverage.

Imi Ola Canoe Club is based out of Sand Island on the Island of Oahu. Paddlers and coaches come from around the island in roughly this breakdown:

2% Central Honolulu

4% Pearl City

8% Palolo, Manoa Valley, Nuuanu, Aina Haina, Diamond Head, Waikiki

4% Kalihi

17% Wahiawa

12% East Honolulu

28% Kapolei/ Waianae

24% Waipahu, Ewa Beach

III. Service Summary and Outcomes

1. Describe the scope of work, tasks and responsibilities;
2. Provide a projected annual timeline for accomplishing the results or outcomes of the service;
3. Describe its quality assurance and evaluation plans for the request. Specify how the applicant plans to monitor, evaluate, and improve their results; and
4. List the measure(s) of effectiveness that will be reported to the State agency through which grant funds are appropriated (the expending agency). The measure(s) will provide a standard and objective way for the State to assess the program's achievement or accomplishment. Please note that if the level of appropriation differs from the amount included in this application that the measure(s) of effectiveness will need to be updated and transmitted to the expending agency.

III. Service Summary and Outcomes

3. Describe its quality assurance and evaluation plans for the request. Specify how the applicant plans to monitor, evaluate, and improve their results; and IOCC assures quality program activities through regular meetings of the Board of Directors and through participation in competitive outrigger leagues such as Na Opio, OHCRA, HCRA, and Kanaka Ikaika. The volunteer board works with the volunteer coaches to establish policies and best practices. The racing associations have software that tracks demographics such as participant age, ethnicity, gender, and current or former military service. IOCC uses Spond software to track participation in practices and club activities. IOCC can track the number of seat hours of practice and instruction provided to members.

The Board maintains control over expenditures and monitors equipment and the canoe site to ensure the club runs smoothly, paddlers are safe in the canoe and the water, and the club is a good steward.

The coaches evaluate the youth paddlers on a twice-weekly practice schedule. They regularly communicate with parents and caretakers. Race results and other metrics such as attendance to practices helps the coaches to evaluate the success of the program. IOCC may conduct periodic surveys to be completed by parents (of younger paddlers) and high school student paddlers to obtain feedback about the program.

IOCC also engages with other ocean stakeholders such as the Hawaii Ocean Safety Team (HOST) (www.hosthawaii.org) to train and educate our paddlers on ways to best share the ocean with commercial vessels and larger recreational craft, be situationally aware, and be safe.

4. List the measure(s) of effectiveness that will be reported to the State agency through which grant funds are appropriated (the expending agency). The measure(s) will provide a standard and objective way for the State to assess the program's achievement or accomplishment. Please note that if the level of appropriation differs from the amount included in this application that the measure(s) of effectiveness will need to be updated and transmitted to the expending agency.

IOCC is a young canoe club with 2022 as its first full year of operations as a club under its own identity. IOCC is organized by volunteers and coaches with extensive experience in the Hawaiian paddling community. The coaches and board are respected paddlers with over 100 years of combined coaching experience.

Financial bookkeeping is done by Treasurer Val Chun, who works together with President Steve Meyer. Accounting for taxes and regulatory compliance will be outsourced to a CPA. The Board meets at least quarterly and is often at IOCC practices, races, and fundraising events. Head Coach Randy Chun supervises the practice sessions and ensures IOCC equipment is well-cared for a seaworthy. He will enlist and train the youth and novice paddlers in canoe maintenance so they learn the value of caring for club property and to make sure our canoes are in optimal practice and racing condition.

Brief resumes of IOCC's Governing Board and key personnel follow:

President: Steven "Steve" Meyer. Mr. Meyer has been a parent supporter of paddling for many years, making sure his children had the best paddling experience they could by supporting their club and school crews. An avid fan of technology, he brings an innovative mindset to the board and juggles the myriad responsibilities a young club encounters. Mr. Meyer can be found at nearly every club event, including practices, races, fundraisers, club work days, community service events, and more.

Vice President: Amadeus "Ama" Kikila-Debibar. Mr. Kikila-Debibar has been a paddler and steersperson since childhood with over 15 years of paddling experience. He is an elite-level competitor who coaches IOCC's teen youth and competitive adult programs. He is the Head Coach at Moanalua High School for the entire program – boys and girls junior varsity and varsity paddlers. The Vice President of the Board since the inception of IOCC, Mr. Kikila-Debibar represents the future of IOCC. This is his first foray into board administration and management.

Secretary: Sandie Freitas. Mrs. Freitas brings a natural organizational talent and problem solving mindset to the position, having served as the board secretary for the Na Ohana O Na Hui Waa (NOONHW) canoe racing association. A social worker with the Department of Education, she brings her professional skillset to IOCC to often advocate for social justice and policy changes to improve our paddlers' well-being. She is invested in perpetuating the art of Hawaiian Canoe Racing by coaching and mentoring young paddlers to be good citizens and leaders.

Treasurer: Valerie "Val" Chun. Mrs. Chun has been a paddler for over 25 years and a coach for over 20 years. With Mr. Chun, she coached the novice program at Ka Mamalahoe Canoe Club before taking a brief hiatus from paddling. Upon her return to paddling, she emerged as the team leader of the master women's program and crew at IOCC. The first and only treasurer of IOCC, she is uniquely qualified to manage the cash and resources of IOCC since her retirement from Pearl Harbor Naval Shipyard as a Business Line Manager. Mrs. Chun has also served on the board of the Ewa Oceanside Association.

Head Coach and Director: Randal "Randy" Chun. Mr. Chun has been a paddler and coach for over 25 years. At IOCC, he coaches the masters/kupuna program. Additionally, he is an exceptional coach of novices, the never before paddled adult paddler, as his patience and ebullient personality draw out the best of a new competitor. He is an assistant coach at Moanalua High School. He is a retired US Army Corps of Engineers Construction Inspector, which makes him exceptionally well suited to handle the many logistical needs of the club from equipment maintenance to practice site management.

Director: Ursula "Ursie" Costorio-Meyer. Mrs. Meyer was an active paddler in her youth and young adulthood who passed along her love and passion for the sport to her five now-adult children, several of whom paddler for IOCC. A born organizer and leader of people, she is the quintessential boots on the ground support for club fundraisers and events. She makes sure there is enough manpower and personnel to get any job done efficiently.

Founding Director: Elias "Eli" Nakahara. Mr. Nakahara began paddling as an eight-year-old keiki and boasts exceptional skill as a paddler and steersman at an elite level. IOCC has been his vision since he was a youth paddler. A proven winning coach with over 20 years of coaching experience, he is also well-versed in all aspects of running a club, from paddler recruitment, fundraising, equipment maintenance, budget forecasting, and coaching. He is in his fourth year coaching at Iolani School and is this year's varsity boys Head Coach. Mr. Nakahara previously coached at Pearl City High School. Mr. Nakahara currently serves as the voting delegate for NOONHW at the Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association (HCRA), having previously served as the NOONHW President for a total of six years and the Treasurer of Na Opio Canoe Racing Association (NOCRA). Over the years, he has served on many committees for NOCRA, NOONHW, and HCRA, as well as pinch-hitting as a land and water official when necessary.

Keiki Coach: Elizabeth Ann "Lisa" Bento. Ms. Bento has coached the youngest keiki paddlers for over 20 years at Ka Mamalahoe Canoe Club and Lokahi Canoe Club before bringing her talents to IOCC. In addition, she serves as a Director of Lokahi Canoe Club and recently completed a two-year term as a Director with the Na Ohana O Na Hui Waa (NOONHW) canoe racing association. She is invested in perpetuating the art of Hawaiian Canoe Racing by coaching and mentoring young paddlers to be good citizens and leaders.

Mr. Nakahara and Mr. Kikila-Debibar coached IOCC's first ever junior men's crew across the Molokai Channel in the Molokai Hoe race this past October 2024. It was an achievement and accomplishment for the nine young men in the crew racing their very first channel together. The crew finished a respectable 6th in their division and formed a bond of brotherhood that such a first-time endurance race creates. The club couldn't be prouder!

IOCC successfully participated in the Na Opio OC6 and OC1 races from 2022 to present. The club also raced in the 2022-2024 summer regatta season under the patronage of Lokahi Canoe Club. The club's athletic resume is attached on Section III.

The club does not own any buildings or structures as these are not permitted on the beach site. IOCC has improved the site by relocating/removing large rocks, removing invasive long-thorn kiawe plants, and planting grass.
