
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO ELECTIONS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. Section 12-3, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
2 amended to read as follows:

3 "§12-3 Nomination paper; format; limitations. (a) No
4 candidate's name shall be printed upon any official ballot to be 5 used at any primary, special primary, or special election unless 6 a nomination paper was filed on the candidate's behalf and in 7 the name by which the candidate is commonly known. The 8 nomination paper shall be in a form prescribed and provided by 9 the chief election officer containing substantially the 10 following information:

- 11 (1) A statement by the registered voters signing the form
12 that they are eligible to vote for the candidate;
- 13 (2) A statement by the registered voters signing the form
14 that they nominate the candidate for the office
15 identified on the nomination paper issued to the 16 candidate;

- 1 (3) The residence address and county in which the 2 candidate resides;
- 3 (4) The legal name of the candidate, the name by which the 4 candidate is commonly known, if different, the office
5 for which the candidate is running, and the 6 candidate's party affiliation or nonpartisanship; all
7 of which are to be placed on the nomination paper by 8 the chief election officer or the clerk [~~prior to~~ 9 before releasing the form to the candidate;
- 10 (5) Space for the name, signature, month and date portions
11 of the date of birth, and residence address of each
12 registered voter signing the form, and other
13 information as determined by the chief election
14 officer; provided that a voter's social security
15 number or any portion thereof and the year portion of 16 the voter's date of birth shall not be required;
- 17 (6) A sworn certification by self-subscribing oath by the 18 candidate that the candidate qualifies under the law
19 for the office the candidate is seeking and that the 20 candidate has determined that, except for the 21 information provided by the registered voters signing

1 the nomination papers, all of the information on the 2 nomination papers is true and correct;

3 (7) A sworn certification by self-subscribing oath by a
4 party candidate that the candidate is a member of the 5 party;

6 (8) For candidates seeking elective county office, a sworn 7 certification by self-subscribing oath by the 8 candidate that the candidate has complied with the 9 relevant provisions of the applicable county charter
10 and county ordinances pertaining to elected officials;

11 (9) A sworn certification by self-subscribing oath, where 12 applicable, by the candidate that the candidate has 13 complied with the provisions of article II, section 7,
14 of the Hawaii State Constitution;

15 (10) A sworn certification by self-subscribing oath by the 16 candidate that the candidate is in compliance with 17 section 831-2, dealing with felons, and is eligible to 18 run for office; and

19 (11) The name the candidate wishes to be printed on the 20 ballot and the mailing address of the candidate.

1 (b) Signatures of registered voters shall not be counted,
2 unless they are upon the nomination paper having the format set
3 forth above, written or printed thereon, and if there are 4 separate sheets to be attached to the nomination paper, the 5 sheets shall have the name of the candidate, the candidate's 6 party affiliation or nonpartisanship, and the office and 7 district for which the candidate is running placed thereon by 8 the chief election officer or the clerk. The nomination paper
9 and separate sheets shall be provided by the chief election
10 officer or the clerk.

11 (c) Nomination papers shall not be filed [~~in~~] on behalf of 12 any person for more than one party or for more than one office;
13 nor shall any person file nomination papers both as a party
14 candidate and as a nonpartisan candidate.

15 (d) The office and district for which the candidate is 16 running, the candidate's name, and the candidate's party
17 affiliation or nonpartisanship [~~may~~] shall not be changed from 18 that indicated on the nomination paper and separate sheets. If 19 the candidate wishes to run for an office or district different
20 from that for which the nomination paper states or under a
21 different party affiliation or nonpartisanship, the candidate

1 may request the appropriate nomination paper from the chief
2 election officer or clerk and have it signed by the required
3 number of registered voters.

4 (e) Nomination papers that contain alterations or changes
5 made by anyone other than the chief election officer or the 6 clerk to the candidate's information, the candidate's party
7 affiliation or nonpartisanship, the office to which the 8 candidate seeks nomination, or the oath of loyalty or 9 affirmation, after the nomination paper was issued by the chief
10 election officer or clerk, shall be void and ~~will~~ shall not be 11 accepted for filing by the chief election officer or clerk.

12 (f) Nomination papers that are incomplete and do not 13 contain all of the certifications, signatures, and requirements
14 of this section shall be void.

15 (g) The chief election officer shall provide a system for 16 the electronic filing of nomination papers, including the 17 submission of the notarized written oath or affirmation and any 18 other required documentation and the deposit of the filing fee.
19 The chief election officer shall not charge an additional fee to 20 the filer for using the system for electronic filing of 21 nomination papers."

1 SECTION 2. Section 12-6, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 2 amended by amending its title and subsection (a) to read as 3 follows:

4 "§12-6 Nomination papers: time for filing; manner of 5 filing; fees. (a) For members of Congress, state offices, 6 county offices, and the board of trustees for the office of
