
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

STRONGLY URGING THE REAL ESTATE COMMISSION TO ALLOW FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE REAL ESTATE SALESPERSON'S EXAMINATION IN THE JAPANESE LANGUAGE FOR PURPOSES OF ISSUING A FULL REAL ESTATE SALESPERSON'S LICENSE, LIMITED TO THE SALE OF TIMESHARE PRODUCTS IN HAWAII, TO PROMOTE THE SALE OF THESE PRODUCTS TO JAPANESE-SPEAKING VISITORS AND ENHANCE JAPAN'S INVOLVEMENT IN AND SUPPORT OF THE HAWAII TOURISM INDUSTRY.

1 WHEREAS, the Real Estate Commission of the Department of 2 Commerce and Consumer Affairs has broad authority to allow for 3 the administration of the real estate salesperson's examination
4 in the Japanese language and to issue licenses limited to the 5 sale of timeshare products in Hawaii to those who pass the full 6 real estate salesperson's examination given in Japanese; and 7

8 WHEREAS, based on the prior experience of timeshare
9 operators in other jurisdictions, a potentially higher passage
10 rate for Japanese-speaking applicants could result in a rise in 11 the sale of timeshare products to Japanese-speaking visitors and 12 an increase in visitors from Japan; and 13

14 WHEREAS, in contrast to visitors who stay in hotels, 15 timeshare owners are more likely to become involved in the local 16 community and consistently support the local economy, as they 17 return to Hawaii multiple times and on a regular basis; and 18

19 WHEREAS, the timeshare industry desires to cultivate
20 greater Japanese involvement in the Hawaii timeshare industry;
21 however, it has found it difficult to hire a sufficient number
22 of licensed salespersons to meet the demand of the Japanese 23 market and facilitate an increase in the number of Japanese 24 visitors to Hawaii; and 25

H.C.R. NO. 102

1 WHEREAS, it is not unusual to offer written examinations
 2 required for licenses to be given in languages other than 3 English; and

4
 5 WHEREAS, for instance, the written examination for the 6 Hawaii driver's license is offered in multiple languages, such 7 as Chinese, Chuukese, Hawaiian, Ilocano, Japanese, Korean,
 8 Marshallese, Samoan, Spanish, Tagalog, Tongan, and Vietnamese,
 9 in order to accommodate Hawaii's linguistically diverse 10 community and address concerns regarding discrimination; and

11
 12 WHEREAS, pursuant to the statutory powers and authority
 13 granted to the Real Estate Commission under chapter 467, Hawaii
 14 Revised Statutes, the Commission could implement this proposal
 15 without any statutory changes; now, therefore,

16
 17 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 18 Thirty-third Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session
 19 of 2025, the Senate concurring, that the Real Estate Commission
 20 is strongly urged to allow for the administration of the real 21 estate salesperson's examination in the Japanese language for 22 purposes of issuing a full real estate salesperson's license, 23 limited to the sale of timeshare products in Hawaii, to promote 24 the sale of these products to Japanese-speaking visitors and 25 enhance Japan's involvement in and support of the Hawaii tourism 26 industry; and

27
 28 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Real Estate Commission is 29 requested to use its existing authority under chapter 467,
 30 Hawaii Revised Statutes, to make these Japanese-language 31 examinations available; and

32
 33 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this 34 Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Director of Commerce
 35 and Consumer Affairs, Chairperson of the Real Estate Commission, 36 and Supervising Executive Officer of the Real Estate Commission.
