BIOGRAPHY OF MARY KAY HERTOOG

Major General (retired) Mary Kay Hertog entered the Air Force in 1978 as an Air Force ROTC distinguished graduate. As a career security forces (police) officer, she worked in many positions to include commanding several large security forces units, a technical training group, and one of the largest wings in the Air Force. She was also the first woman to be selected as the Director of Security Forces, HQ U.S. Air Force, Wash D.C., Pentagon, and the first woman in the Air Force to command a Numbered Air Force. Her final assignment was as the Director of the Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Office, Department of Defense, Pentagon. She retired in 2012 after almost 34 years of military service.

Currently she is a member of the Kauai Police Commission; Kauai's representative to the Governor's Advisory Board on Veterans Services; Commander of the Kauai Veterans Council; Adjutant for Kauai's Disabled American Veterans Chapter 5; and a volunteer docent for the Grove Farm Homestead Museum.
