

ROSE MEDINA KEMNA GOV. MSG. NO. 666

OBJECTIVE: COMMISSIONER - HAWAII STATE COMMISSION ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN

Throughout my career besides my full time work, I have served and have made it a goal to continue to serve in various volunteer non-profit leadership roles in the community. My heart for volunteer leadership service has been focused on 3 major areas - Women's issues, Children's issues, and Housing/Homeownership for our local community

EXPERIENCE: VOLUNTEER LEADERSHIP FOR NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATIONS AND BOARDS

Hawaii Homeownership Center - Volunteer Committee Member ▪ Ku'u Home Annual Donor Flavors of Neighbors Annual Gala Fundraiser ▪ HHOC Welcome Home Fundraiser Luncheon

2016 - Present | Honolulu, Hawaii

Donation of my time and resources to participate in fundraising event committees to raise funds for Hawaii Homeownership Center. This non-profit organization has the mission of helping first time homebuyers to obtain education & resources to obtain their dream of homeownership. The organization has a focus on helping those who are in the low to low middle income bracket, however does assist all people. The goal is to increase homeownership within our local communities since studies show that homeownership builds stronger communities.

Finance Director/Treasurer - Board of Directors, Residential Real Estate Council Local Hawaii Chapter

January 2024 - Present | Honolulu, Hawaii

Serve on the Board of Directors to plan and execute events and educational seminars for the residential real estate agent community. RRC has a goal of leveling up professionalism in the real estate industry. The board of directors has a goal of growing the number of CRS - Certified Residential Specialists in the State of Hawaii. CRS is a professional designation obtained by top real estate professionals who have achieved an expansive level of experience helping people to buy and sell real estate, as well as earned educational credits for required courses, in order to assure comprehensive knowledge and expertise in the real estate industry. The CRS designation is considered the gold professional standard for the residential real estate industry.

Corporate Campaign Director/Coordinator for the Aston Hotels & Resorts

Aloha United Way Annual Fundraising Campaign - 2004 | Honolulu, Hawaii

Lead a team of fundraising coordinators for each of Aston's 12 Oahu hotels and the corporate office to raise our annual fundraising goal for Aloha United Way. Achieved the corporate office goal within the first two weeks of the campaign and successfully lead a team of 12 hotel fundraising coordinators to achieve each of their individual fundraising goals for the individual hotels during the campaign. Selected as Aloha United Way's outstanding "Coordinator of the Year" for 2004.

Volunteer Facilitator, Junior League of Honolulu for Friends of the Children's Justice Center

Created & facilitated a program called 808 Personal Development for Teen Girls - 1997-98 | Honolulu, Hawaii

Created and facilitated six week Personal development programs for teen girls that had undergone the trauma of sexual abuse. Served as both a facilitator and instructor for the program. The goal of the program was to help teen girls to experience the joys and childhood fun of activities that are part of growing up from girls to women. The teen girls would have input in the curriculum and it would include sessions such as basic make up application, dance classes, skin care, and many topics that young girls are interested in, including improving their self-esteem and learning how to be poised and confident.

Supporting and Uplifting Women Leaders in our Local Community

Nominated women for various leadership awards and recognitions - 2023-Present | Honolulu, Hawaii

Over the last two years I made it my personal mission to uplift and support local women leaders by identifying outstanding leaders and submitting written nominations to obtain recognition and awards for their inspiring leadership and contributions in our community. So far four out of the six nominations of these leaders have resulted in receiving awards and recognition. This personal mission has been empowering women leaders one nomination at a time.
