
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO PROTECTIVE ORDERS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 28, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended
2 by adding a new part to be appropriately designated and to read
3 as follows:

4 "PART . HAWAII HOPE CARD PROGRAM

5 §28-A Hawaii hope card program. (a) There is established 6 within the department of the attorney general a program to be 7 known as the Hawaii hope card program. The Hawaii hope card
8 program shall be responsible for issuing hope cards to holders 9 of a long-term protective order to allow law enforcement to 10 quickly verify the existence of the long-term protective order
11 and easily obtain information regarding the long-term protective 12 order.

13 (b) The department of the attorney general shall employ, 14 without regard to chapter 76, a coordinator and an assistant to 15 the coordinator and other personnel as necessary to promote the 16 effective and efficient conduct of the Hawaii hope card
17 program's activities.

1 (c) A hope card may be requested by any person who has 2 been granted a long-term protective order by submitting an 3 application to the department of the attorney general in a form
4 prescribed by the department of the attorney general. Upon 5 determining that the long-term protective order that the 6 application is based on is valid, the department of the attorney 7 general shall issue the applicant a hope card; provided that 8 more than one hope card may be issued to the applicant to:

9 (1) Provide to a school or employer;

10 (2) Enable any child or other individual covered by the 11 long-term protective order to use the card; or

12 (3) Provide to the school, day care program, or other 13 similar entity of a child or other individual covered 14 by the long-term protective order.

15 (d) A hope card shall be a laminated card, similar in size
16 and shape to a credit card, and shall display a color photograph 17 of the person to be restrained by the long-term protective 18 order, if available, and contain essential information about the 19 long-term protective order, including:

20 (1) Identifying characteristics of the person to be 21 restrained, including name, date of birth, sex, race,

1 eye and hair color, height, weight, and any 2 distinguishing features such as scars or tattoos;
3 (2) The case number and the issuing court of the long-term
4 protective order;
5 (3) The issue and expiration date of the long-term
6 protective order;
7 (4) The terms of the long-term protective order;
8 (5) A website and Hawaii phone number that law enforcement
9 personnel can utilize to access the Hawaii hope card
10 program database to verify the information on the hope
11 card;
12 (6) Identifying characteristics of the applicant,
13 including name, date of birth, sex, race, eye and hair 14 color, height, and weight; and 15 (7) The names and birth dates of any children or other 16 individuals who are also protected by the long-term
17 protective order.
18 (e) The department of the attorney general may charge a 19 fee for each hope card that is issued, not to exceed dollars
20 per card. All moneys from the fee shall be deposited in the

1 Hawaii hope card program special fund established pursuant to 2 section 28-C.

3 (f) For the purposes of this part, "long-term protective 4 order" means an order granted for more than ninety days under 5 section 604-10.5, or an order granted for more than one hundred 6 eighty days under chapter 586.

7 §28-B Access to Hawaii hope card program information;
8 verification. (a) The department of the attorney general shall 9 maintain a confidential database of all hope cards, issued by 10 the Hawaii hope card program and their related long-term
11 protective orders that only the hope program and law enforcement 12 personnel may access to verify the existence and scope of a 13 long-term protective order.

14 (b) For the duration of the long-term protective order,
15 internet and telephone access to the database shall be provided 16 twenty-four hours a day to law enforcement personnel for which 17 the department of the attorney general shall maintain a Hawaii
18 phone number; provided that the name of the applicant shall not 19 be identified if the long-term protective order was obtained 20 under section 604-10.5(e).

1 (c) Public access to information may be provided in 2 coordination with the Hawaii criminal justice data center
3 established under chapter 846.

4 §28-C Hawaii hope card program special fund. (a) There
5 is established in the state treasury the Hawaii hope card 6 program special fund, into which shall be deposited the 7 following moneys:

8 (1) All fees collected by the department of the attorney 9 general for the purposes of carrying out this part;

10 (2) Appropriations by the legislature to the special fund; 11 and

12 (3) Gifts, donations, and grants from public agencies and 13 private persons.

14 (b) The Hawaii hope card program special fund shall be 15 administered by the department of the attorney general and shall 16 be used for administering and operating the Hawaii hope card
17 program.

18 (c) The department of the attorney general may expend
19 moneys from the fund:

20 (1) For long-term and temporary staff positions;

(2) To cover materials and equipment necessary to produce hope cards;

(3) To cover expenses incurred in maintaining internet and twenty-four telephone access;

(4) To produce public information materials; and

(5) To cover all other administrative and operational costs of the Hawaii hope card program.

(d) The department of the attorney general shall submit a report to the legislature no later than twenty days prior to the convening of each regular session to provide an accounting of the receipts and expenditures of the fund."

SECTION 2. There is appropriated out of the general revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $ or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2025-2026 and the same sum or so much thereof as may be necessary for the fiscal year 2026-2027 to be deposited into the Hawaii hope card program special fund.

SECTION 3. There is appropriated out of the Hawaii hope care program special fund the sum of $ or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2025-2026 and the same sum or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year

1 2026-2027 for the department of the attorney general to 2 administer the Hawaii hope card program.

3 The sums appropriated shall be expended by the department
4 of the attorney general for the purposes of this Act.

5 SECTION 4. The department of the attorney general shall 6 develop and implement the Hawaii hope card program established
7 by section 1 of this Act no later than January 1, 2026.

8 SECTION 5. In codifying the new sections added by 9 section 1 of this Act, the revisor of statutes shall substitute
10 appropriate section numbers for the letters used in designating
11 the new sections in this Act.

12 SECTION 6. This Act shall take effect on April 23, 2057.
