II. Background and Summary

This section shall clearly and concisely summarize and highlight the contents of the request in such a way as to provide the State Legislature with a broad understanding of the request. Please include the following:

1. A brief description of the applicant's background;

Operating since 1983, Hawai'i Foodbank is Hawai'i's largest hunger-relief organization, providing daily and emergency food assistance to those facing food insecurity.

Together with our agency partners, the Foodbank distributes food at no cost to those in need through various programs, such as food pantries, low-income senior housing, homeless and domestic abuse shelters, residential programs, soup kitchens, and more. In addition, Hawai'i Foodbank administers several programs at various locations across O'ahu and Kaua'i in collaboration with our partner agencies.

In FY25, Hawai'i Foodbank distributed food to more than 164,000 people a month, which is 35% more than FY23 and twice as many people as we served prior to the pandemic. Across O'ahu, Kaua'i, and Ni'ihau in FY25, Hawai'i Foodbank distributed the equivalent of 19.7 million meals, including over 22 million pounds of food, one-third of which was fresh produce. The total value of food distributed exceeded $34.7 million.

Hawai'i Foodbank serves as the backbone for a network of more than 275 hunger relief partners on O'ahu and Kaua'i County, providing food for their distributions, which we procure at a fraction of the retail cost. Among our partners, Hawai'i Foodbank is unique in its ability to leverage relationships with food vendors and shippers to stretch each donated dollar by 5.3 times over local retail food prices.

Our partners have direct access to those experiencing food insecurity, enabling connections to social services addressing hunger's root causes. Community partners range from churches to schools to nonprofits of all sizes. For instance, two of our largest partners on O'ahu are 'Elepaio Social Services and The Pantry by Feeding Hawai'i Together; last year, 'Elepaio distributed 1.6 million pounds of food sourced from Hawai'i Foodbank (54% of which was fresh produce), and The Pantry distributed 1.3 million pounds of food sourced from Hawai'i Foodbank (40% of which was fresh produce).

On Kaua'i, our largest partner is Church of the Pacific, to which last year we distributed 447,009 pounds of food, 23% of which was fresh produce. On the other end of the spectrum, many of our smaller agencies may only distribute several thousand pounds of food a year but serve a specific community that has nowhere else to turn for help. On average, our 275+ partner agencies distribute approximately 55,000 lbs. each per year, and all food goes out 100% free of charge.

Together with The Food Basket of Hawai'i County and Maui Food Bank, Hawai'i Foodbank works with nearly every organization addressing food insecurity in Hawai'i. We provide nutritious food, logistics support, and ensure food safety throughout the supply chain, from storage to distribution. Sourcing healthy foods at an extremely low cost is a core strength. Centralizing food acquisition across our statewide hui allows us to leverage purchasing power and ensures healthy food reaches the most vulnerable.

Hawai'i Foodbank has earned fourteen consecutive 4-star Charity Navigator ratings, exceeding standards for financial accountability and transparency. This highest rating places us among the top 2% of the charities evaluated nationally. We also hold Candid's Platinum Seal of Transparency, their highest distinction. We were chosen as Hawai'i's Best Non-Profit by Honolulu Star-Advertiser's readership in 2025.

Hawai'i Foodbank has a strong history of crisis leadership. During the COVID-19 pandemic, we rapidly launched emergency food distributions, serving thousands weekly as unemployment soared. Following the 2023 Maui wildfires, we mobilized immediate support statewide, providing logistics and resources. We have maintained critical food access during hurricanes, the Kīlauea eruption, and the ongoing rise in demand, as 1 in 3 Hawai'i households struggle with hunger.

2. The goals and objectives related to the request;

KAUA'I AND O'AHU FOOD 4 KEIKI SCHOOL PANTRY PROGRAM

The Food 4 Keiki (F4K) School Pantry program supports preschool through 12th-grade students (and their 'ohana) facing food insecurity. In partnership with the State of Hawai'i Department of Education, we provide healthy snacks and additional food items to take home, ensuring that families have a reliable source of nutritious food. Our program aims to eliminate barriers to food access, promoting equity in food distribution. Empowering students to choose preferred foods also respects cultural backgrounds and restores dignity through choice.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

In the past year, our Food 4 Keiki School Pantries on Kaua'i, O'ahu and Ni'ihau distributed over 1.06 million pounds of food, for the equivalent of 886,000 meals, to an average of more than 16,000 children and adults per month. We are especially proud that we more than doubled the amount of produce distributed, providing the school pantries with an average of 46,081 pounds of produce per month.

- Leveraging strong partnerships with public schools and local non-profit organizations, our key objective for FY2027 is to improve our systems to increase the number of people served and pounds distributed within our network of 59 schools implementing the School Pantry program.
- By meeting keiki's nutritional needs, Hawai'i Foodbank aims to support academic and behavioral outcomes, including increased energy, focus, and brain function.

FOOD 4 KEIKI PROGRAM OUTPUTS

- In FY2027, our objective is to distribute at least 1 million pounds of food to 16,000 children and adults per month, while expanding healthy options.
- We expect to operate 59 total School Pantry sites in FY2027, with 41 pantries on O'ahu, 17 on Kaua'i, and 1 on Ni'ihau.

Due to rising demand, we have doubled School Pantry sites since 2022 and will operate 59 sites in FY27. Of special note, 100% of the schools on Kaua'i and Ni'ihau are currently operating a Food 4 Keiki Food Pantry for their students and their 'ohana.

3. The public purpose and need to be served;

FEDERAL CHANGES AND UNPRECEDENTED DEMAND

Food insecurity in Hawai'i has risen sharply due to recent federal changes and ongoing crisis-level community needs, placing unprecedented strain on Hawai'i's resources and programs. Federal support programs for vulnerable families have been reduced or changed, increasing those at risk of hunger. Hawai'i Foodbank faces a surge in emergency food requests, far exceeding capacity. This crisis affects households across the islands with urgent, expanding needs.

Recent changes to Hawai'i's Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) have reduced critical support for families, children, kūpuna, veterans, people with disabilities, and others relying on these benefits. Cuts to federal food assistance like The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP) through USDA have also had major impact. TEFAP historically accounted for 22% of food value distributed by Hawai'i Foodbank. Since March 2025, combined federal assistance cuts and government shutdown costs have totaled over $5.64 million. These reductions make meeting growing needs harder, and the quality and quantity of healthy food may decline.

KEIKI FOOD INSECURITY: A CRITICAL NEED

Food insecurity is a serious public health issue threatening Hawai'i's keiki. The Foodbank's 2025 State of Food Insecurity report showed 32% of Hawai'i households experienced food insecurity in 2024/2025, with 11% going without food for a whole day some or most months.

Among households with children, 34% had children experiencing food insecurity, and 11% had children missing a whole day of food due to lack of money. Adult food insecurity was especially high at 45% (up from 38% in 2023), with families of young children most affected—caregivers often sacrifice their own food security to feed their children.

Food insecurity remains a critical issue for our state, especially for the 1 in 3 keiki struggling with hunger. By better meeting students' food and nutrition needs, Hawai'i Foodbank seeks to improve students' academic and behavioral outcomes, including increasing their energy, focus, and brain function. Our School Pantry program is one of our greatest tools in this effort.

FOOD INSECURITY AFFECTING STUDENT'S HEALTH & LEARNING

Children lacking enough food face increased risks of cognitive delays, behavioral issues, anxiety, depression, and suicide ideation. Long-term food insecurity links to higher rates of chronic diseases such as hypertension, heart disease, stroke, cancer, asthma, diabetes, arthritis, COPD, and kidney disease, as well as mental health challenges including depression, anxiety, and sleep disorders.

Health status is significantly linked to food insecurity across all age groups. Among individuals facing food insecurity, 56% reported being in poor or very poor health, while 60% experienced hearing difficulties, and 74% had vision difficulties. Additionally, 64% of Hawai'i's food insecure population delayed filling prescriptions to save money.

Program outcomes benefit underprivileged populations and both the business and wider communities by combating the serious toll food insecurity takes on health care resources and the economy. In the U.S., food insecurity is associated with an additional $1,863 in health care costs annually. For Hawai'i, at an estimated food insecurity rate of 30%, that translates to $800 million per year in added health care costs.

Specifically for children, our program contributes to strategies that support brain development and learning, decrease susceptibility to sickness, and over the long term help to avoid development of physical, developmental, and cognitive impairments. The importance of this program was powerfully illustrated by a recent experience at Koloa Elementary School on Kaua'i:

- A young student arrived late to school, clearly stressed and hungry, on a day when important testing was scheduled. Thanks to the School Pantry, this student was able to quickly access a ready-to-eat meal, along with fresh apples and oranges. The School Pantry partner shared that being able to provide this simple meal transformed the student's day. The student was able to participate in the testing, no longer burdened by hunger. This story highlights how our program provides essential nutrition and reduces anxiety, allowing students to focus on their education. By providing meals and healthy snacks, we empower students and their families to thrive, not just survive.

SERVING THE WHOLE STATE

Hawai'i Foodbank serves the public good statewide, by providing food for any households in need. While providing daily direct operations on O'ahu and Kaua'i, Hawai'i has a long history of supporting its partners, Maui Food Bank and The Food Basket when there are disasters on neighbor islands.

As previously noted, during the 2023 wildfires, Hawai'i Foodbank sourced over 75 containers of food and supplies, distributing over 2.3 million pounds of food and supplies to Maui. Also, during the 2018 Kīlauea eruption, in support of its affiliate food bank partner, The Food Basket, Hawai'i Foodbank sourced and distributed more than 66,000 pounds of food, water, face masks, hygiene kits, baby items, and other goods.

With our daily operations expanding in FY2027 to a brand new Disaster and Resiliency Center in Waipahu, Hawai'i Foodbank stands ready, willing, and able to provide statewide disaster preparedness and response support directly on O'ahu and Kaua'i and, throughout the state's island chain, in partnership with its affiliate food banks, its government and community partnerships through established MOUs and through its comprehensive network of nonprofit agency partners.

Describe the target population to be served;POPULATION TO BENEFIT

The Foodbank's Food 4 Keiki School Pantry program serves O'ahu, Kaua'i, and Ni'ihau, supporting families below the Federal Poverty Level and ALICE households who earn above poverty but struggle to afford basics like food, housing, childcare, and healthcare. However, these Food 4 Keiki food items are given to any student, pre-K to 12th grade, who visits the pantries, whether or not they receive free or reduced school meals. This practice supports equity in food distribution by avoiding segmentation according to income levels.

With 77% of Hawai'i's population identifying as Asian, Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander (NHPI), Black, or multi-racial, and given disproportionate hunger among NHPI populations, the program supports equity by removing cost and logistical barriers to provide reliable food.

Hawai'i Foodbank assists people who are hungry or are food-insecure, whether challenges are experienced on a regular basis or a situational basis following a disaster. This includes people who are in a disaster-affected area, live in a geographically vulnerable community, are asset-limited, income-constrained, employed (ALICE) households, and/or are on the lower end of the socio-economic scale.

4. Describe the geographic coverage.

Due to rising demand, Hawai'i Foodbank has doubled School Pantry sites since 2022 and will operate 59 sites in FY27 — 41 on O'ahu, 17 on Kaua'i, and 1 on Ni'ihau. Of special note, 100% of the schools on Kaua'i and Ni'ihau are currently operating a Food 4 Keiki Food Pantry for their students and their 'ohana.

III. Service Summary and Outcomes

The Service Summary shall include a detailed discussion of the applicant's approach to the request. The applicant shall clearly and concisely specify the results, outcomes, and measures of effectiveness from this request. The applicant shall:

1. Describe the scope of work, tasks and responsibilities;

SCOPE OF WORK

The Food 4 Keiki School Pantries provide food assistance to preschool through 12th-grade students, ensuring access to nutritious food. Pantries are located at 59 participating schools and accessible community sites, serving as vital food resources for students and their families.

F4K addresses food insecurity challenges by eliminating cost and logistical barriers for families in need by providing a nutritious food source that is both consistent and conveniently located at participating schools and accessible community locations. The F4K school pantries provide healthy snacks for keiki to eat during or after school as well as the option to choose nutrient-rich foods, including protein and fresh produce, to take home to share with their 'ohana.

Almost all Hawai'i Foodbank's participating school pantries are permanent, brick-and-mortar pantries, with a dedicated space (classroom, storage room, etc.) on school grounds where food can be safely stored until it is distributed. A few permanent-type pantry models are being used including snacks only (16%), pre-packed bags that our volunteers assemble at the warehouse (58%), and 'client choice' pantry where families select the types of food they receive (22%). There is one school currently offering a drive-thru model pantry with a temporary setup at distribution time and a goal to distribute all food.

The School Pantry program operates during the school year, which is typically 10 months out of the year (August through May). If a school operates during the summer months, the school pantry may continue operations if school grounds are accessible, and resources are available.

School Pantry distribution schedules vary by school. Most schools aim to distribute at least once a week and typically distribute at the end of the school day before the students head home. Schools and agency partners report that after-school distributions work well for elementary schools, especially if an adult picks up a child, because they can assist in carrying food home. Some schools choose to distribute at the beginning of the school day or throughout the school day, depending on the type of pantry. This timing works best for pantries that serve snacks if a child misses their first meal of the day, such as school breakfast.

PROGRAM OUTPUTS

- In FY2027, our objective is to distribute at least 1 million pounds of food to 16,000 children and adults per month, while expanding healthy options.
- We expect to operate 59 total School Pantry sites in FY2027, with 41 pantries on O'ahu, 17 on Kaua'i, and one on Ni'ihau.

PRIMARY ACTIVITIES

- Food Resourcing: Hawai'i Foodbank's product resourcing team sources perishable and non-perishable foods from local and continental U.S. suppliers, transporting them to warehouses in Honolulu and Līhu'e. Our approach yields roughly five times the purchasing power of each donated dollar. We maintain strong vendor relationships, access donated products through Feeding America, and utilize "number two grade" markets for nutritious but cosmetically imperfect items. Partnerships with shippers like Matson, Pasha, and Young Brothers reduce over-water shipping costs substantially.
- Volunteer Support: Volunteers play a critical role year-round, inspecting food quality, sorting and boxing donations, and assisting with administrative tasks. Their contributions equate to nearly a dozen full-time staff, allowing Hawai'i Foodbank to allocate more resources directly to operations and program support.

RESPONSIBILITIES

School Pantries depend on close partnerships among Hawai'i Foodbank, the 59 State of Hawai'i Department of Education and public charter schools, and 4 local non-profit agencies.

- Dedicated partner agencies on O'ahu, Kaua'i and Ni'ihau, along with the Foodbank, deliver food and regularly stock school pantries throughout the school year, and distributions are typically scheduled after school hours in coordination with each participating school. Current partner agencies include 'Elepaio Social Services (with 11 pantries on the Waianae Coast), 'Ele'ele Baptist Church, Kaumakapili Church, and Parents & Children Together.
- Hawai'i Foodbank staff install necessary storage and refrigeration units at each participating site and prepare food items for distribution.
- Hawai'i Foodbank's product resourcing team identifies perishable and non-perishable foods that we purchase and transport from local and continental United States sources to our warehouses in Honolulu, O'ahu and Līhu'e, Kaua'i. They ensure the best prices by managing relationships with local and continental vendors.

- Volunteerism is an integral pillar of Hawai'i Foodbank's operational framework, including the School Pantry program. Nearly every day of the year, our volunteers inspect dry goods/pantry food and produce donations by checking the integrity of food products and boxing items for warehouse storage. This helps ensure that food is safe for the families receiving it. This also prepares the food for distribution, so we can get it more efficiently to those in need. Warehouse volunteers also help with important administrative and clerical assistance.

2. Provide a projected annual timeline for accomplishing the results or outcomes of the service;

PROGRAM TIMELINE FOR FY27

The School Pantry program operates during the school year, which is typically 10 months out of the year (August through May). If a school operates during the summer months, the school pantry may continue operations if school grounds are accessible, and resources are available.

Food 4 Keiki School Pantry Ongoing Activities:

- Recruit volunteers for food selection and packing
- Source produce from local farms and retailers
- Purchase shelf-stable foods and fresh produce; manage shipping logistics
- Ensure at least one school staff per site completes annual food safety training
- Require civil rights training for all staff and volunteers interacting with recipients
- Conduct regular school visits to complete food monitoring forms
- Distribute enrollment forms to families with open enrollment
- Promote program through school newsletters and social media

June - August 2026:

- Summer feeding focus at a concentrated number of school locations

August 2026 – May 2027:

- Weekly food distribution during the school year at all 56 pantry locations

3. Describe its quality assurance and evaluation plans for the request. Specify how the applicant plans to monitor, evaluate, and improve their results;

MONITORING

Data is collected monthly from agency partners via the Hawai'i Foodbank Agency Partner Monthly Activity Report, detailing the number of adults and children served through the Food 4 Keiki program. Process data on food purchases, pounds, and units received and distributed are tracked through Hawai'i Foodbank's inventory system (NetSuite). The Foodbank monitors all food movement and provides monthly reports to ensure adherence to the project timeline and budget.

Hawai'i Foodbank also ensures quality through multiple types audits each year to include its financial audit, its single audit for federal funding, financial and program monitoring from DLIR's Office of Community Services, Department of Human Services, and DOE's Hawai'i Child Nutrition Program.

HIGHEST LEVEL STANDARDS

As the Feeding America partner food bank for the state of Hawai'i, the Foodbank is reviewed on a bi-annual basis to ensure the highest level of financial, operation, programmatic and administrative standards are maintained. Further, AIB International audits Hawai'i Foodbank's warehouses annually against the Consolidated Standards for Food Distribution Centers.

The Foodbank's focus on leadership and program quality and financial transparency is further demonstrated by its Candid Platinum Seal of Transparency on GuideStar and 4-Star Charity Navigator rating.

EVALUATION RESULTING IN PROGRAM IMPROVEMENTS

In addition to increasing the quantity of food and number of people served through our school pantries, we have enhanced the methodology and quality of our food provision. We have increased the number of sites which offer the client-choice model described previously, where recipients can choose which food items to take home, rather than receiving a pre-packed bag.

We have also prioritized our offering of fresh produce through the school pantries, which now constitutes 30% to 52% of food distributed at these sites. Through these efforts, we have elevated the nutritional value for recipients while providing the dignity of choice to students and their families.

4. List the measure(s) of effectiveness that will be reported to the State agency through which grant funds are appropriated (the expending agency). The measure(s) will provide a standard and objective way for the State to assess the program's achievement or accomplishment. Note that if the level of appropriation differs from the amount included in this application that the measure(s) of effectiveness will need to be updated and transmitted to the expending agency.

Hawai'i Foodbank will measure the effectiveness of the Food 4 Keiki School Pantry program through these two metrics:

- Number of pounds of food distributed
- Number of households, adults and children who benefit from the program

Agency partners report the number of adults and children served each month to Hawai'i Foodbank using the Hawai'i Foodbank Agency Partner Monthly Activity Report. For process measures, a description of the purchased food and the number of pounds/units received and distributed is recorded in Hawai'i Foodbank's inventory system. We track all food activity, coming in and going out, and report monthly. Implementation is monitored through these reports to ensure the purchase and distribution of food meets the project timeline and budget.

IV. FinancialBudget

- 1. The applicant shall submit a budget utilizing the enclosed budget forms as applicable, to detail the cost of the request.
 - a. Budget request by source of funds
 - b. Personnel salaries and wages
 - c. Equipment and motor vehicles
 - d. Capital project details
 - e. Government contracts, grants, and grants in aid

With the GIA requested funds for FY27, Hawai'i Foodbank plans to purchase perishable and non-perishable food items to sustain the 59 school pantries across Kaua'i County and O'ahu. Each school pantry costs, on average, $30,000 annually for food items, supplies, support, and equipment.

Required budgets attached.

- 2. The applicant shall provide its anticipated quarterly funding requests for the fiscal year 2027.

Quarter 1	Quarter 2	Quarter 3	Quarter 4	Total Grant
$100,000	$100,000	$100,000	$100,000	$400,000

- 3. The applicant shall provide a listing of all other sources of funding that they are seeking for fiscal year 2027.

FUNDING PLAN

The Food 4 Keiki School Pantry program budget for FY2027 is $1,817,717. Of this, $503,759 comes from private grants; the rest is funded by Hawai'i Foodbank's general revenue, mainly individual contributions.

Key supporters have included the Atherton Family Foundation, Albertsons Foundation, Annie Sinclair Knudsen Memorial Fund, Aranoff Keiki Fund, Bretzlaff Fund, Feeding America, McInerney Foundation, Omidyar Fellows, and Pacific Rainbow Foundation.

Hawai'i Foodbank maintains relationships with the USDA and local and national food growers, manufacturers, retailers, and distributors to obtain monetary and donated food. Hawai'i Foodbank also leverages national corporate partnerships through a network affiliation with Feeding America, the nation's largest domestic hunger relief organization. Hawai'i Foodbank continues to expand its partnerships with the Hawai'i Farm Bureau and local agricultural producers to build and improve a sustainable food supply and distribution network of locally grown food, including culturally responsive produce.

Overall, we estimate that the Foodbank approach yields approximately five times the purchasing power of each donated dollar, though this multiplier can be much higher for produce. We ensure the best prices by managing relationships with local and continental vendors, donated product through the Feeding America national network, and accessing markets such as “number two grade” products, which may have a less appealing appearance but are no less valuable from a nutrition standpoint. In addition, relationships with shippers like Matson, Pasha, and Young Brothers dramatically reduce the cost of over-water shipping for the Foodbank.

4. The applicant shall provide a listing of all state and federal tax credits it has been granted within the prior three years. Additionally, the applicant shall provide a listing of all state and federal tax credits they have applied for or anticipate applying for pertaining to any capital project, if applicable.

None

5. The applicant shall provide a listing of all federal, state, and county government contracts, grants, and grants in aid it has been granted within the prior three years and will be receiving for fiscal year 2027 for program funding.

6. The applicant shall provide the balance of its unrestricted current assets as of December 31, 2025.

Hawai'i Foodbank's unrestricted current assets balance is $28,286,245 as of December 31, 2025. Hawai'i Foodbank's board of directors recognizes that the future will likely hold another natural disaster, like Hurricane Iniki, that will directly impact the state. A strong financial reserve will be needed to access sufficient food inventory to support the state during a crisis.

V. Experience and Capability

1. Necessary Skills and Experience

The applicant shall demonstrate that it has the necessary skills, abilities, knowledge of, and experience relating to the request. State your experience and appropriateness for providing the service proposed in this application. The applicant shall also provide a listing of verifiable experience of related projects or contracts for the most recent three years that are pertinent to the request.

EXPERIENCE IMPLEMENTING THIS PROGRAM

Hawai'i Foodbank launched its first Food 4 Keiki (F4K) School Pantry in 2018 in Waimanalo, O'ahu. Since then, the program has expanded to 59 pantry sites across O'ahu, Kaua'i, and Ni'ihau. These pantries support preschool through 12th-grade students facing food insecurity by providing healthy snacks and additional food items for home, ensuring families have equitable and reliable access to nutritious food.

PAST RESULTS – FOOD 4 KEIKI

In FY25, Hawai'i Foodbank's Food 4 Keiki (F4K) School Pantry program distributed over 1.06 million pounds of nutritious food—equivalent to 886,000 meals—to an average of more than 16,000 children and adults monthly. We also more than doubled the amount of produce distributed, providing an average of 46,081 pounds of fresh produce per month to school pantries. This success brought a 76% increase in food distribution through the School Pantry program, reaching 25% more keiki and their 'ohana, and more than doubling the produce distributed.

PAST RESULTS – FEEDING HAWAI'I

For more than 40 years, Hawai'i Foodbank has been synonymous with getting food in the hands of individuals and households in need. Hawai'i Foodbank is the state's leading hunger-relief organization and a partner in Feeding America's nationwide network of food banks. The Foodbank partners with multiple local and state government and nonprofit community partners, including 275 hunger relief partners.

Together, we distribute food directly to those in need in disadvantaged communities through nutrition programs, food pantries, low-income senior housing, homeless, substance and domestic abuse shelters, residential programs, soup kitchens, schools, and more, such as resource acquisition, like SNAP Outreach, and resource distribution, like farmers' market vouchers for fresh fruits and vegetables.

VERIFIABLE EXPERIENCE

1) In partnership with DLIR's Office of Community Services, Hawai'i Foodbank operates several USDA food and nutrition programs on O'ahu and Kaua'i, including:

- The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP)
- TEFAP Reach & Resiliency
- TEFAP Farm to Food Bank
- Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP, aka Senior Food Box)
- Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program (SFMNP)

2) In partnership with DOE's Hawai'i Child Nutrition Program and several nonprofit agency partners, Hawai'i Foodbank operates the following USDA programs on O'ahu and Kaua'i, including:

- Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP)
- Summer Food Service Program (SFSP, aka Kaukau 4 Keiki)

3) In partnership with the Department of Human Services, Hawai'i Foodbank operates the following programs on O'ahu and Kaua'i, including:

- Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) Memorandum of Effort (MOE)
- SNAP Outreach

4) Hawai'i Foodbank also offers several programs directly on O'ahu and Kaua'i, including:

- Food 4 Keiki School and Keiki Pantries
- Food 4 Keiki Full Choice School Pantries
- Feeding Our Future
- Kūpuna Fresh
- 'Ohana Produce Plus
- Farm to Families

5) Hawai'i Foodbank is a collaborative partner, working with government, military, private, community and nonprofit organizations or the benefit of individuals and families struggling with hunger or food insecurity. We operate the state's largest donated food rescue program with the support of nearly 300 retailers, wholesalers, food growers, manufacturers, and community donors.

6) As a key disaster response partner, we hold MOUs with the City & County of Honolulu's Department of Emergency Management (DEM), Kaua'i's Emergency Management Agency (KEMA) American Red Cross Pacific Islands Region, and with The Salvation Army.

7) Hawai'i Foodbank continues to expand its partnerships with Hawai'i Farm Bureau and local agricultural producers to build and improve a sustainable food supply and distribution network of locally grown produce, including produce that is culturally responsive, such as ulu, ual'a, taro, etc. As a result of these efforts, more than one quarter of all food the Foodbank distributes is fresh produce, including well over half of which is sourced locally.

2. Facilities

The applicant shall provide a description of its facilities and demonstrate its adequacy in relation to the request. If facilities are not presently available, describe plans to secure facilities.

Hawai'i Foodbank currently operates out of two locations: 1) a 23,668 square-foot warehouse on Kilihau Street in Māpunapuna, Honolulu, O'ahu; and 2) a 4,750 square-foot warehouse at 4241 Hanahao Place in Lihue, Kaua'i. Both warehouses are annually inspected and certified for food safety by AIB International, which sets the standards for food quality, handling, and safety nationwide.

The O'ahu and Kaua'i facilities are open for public donations Monday-Friday from 7:00 am - 4:00 pm. Donated and purchased foods are received, inspected, sorted, inventoried, stored, and distributed to our agency partners and through our direct service programs. Both warehouses include non-perishable and perishable food storage areas, such as chillers and freezers, and a food inspection area where staff and volunteers ensure donated food rescue items are fresh and in good condition. Both warehouses have an agency distribution floor where individually packaged boxes/containers and cases of food are organized and displayed in such a way as to allow agency partner representatives to easily pick up the items for their food pantries and feeding programs.

Hawai'i Foodbank maintains a fleet of 11 trucks, 1 van, and 1 Mobile Pantry truck on O'ahu, and 3 trucks, 2 vans, and 1 mobile pantry truck on Kaua'i. The primary mode of transportation is refrigerated straight trucks with lift-gates to distribute food to our hunger relief network across the islands.

Hawai'i Foodbank is launching a transformative capital project to construct a new, purposefully designed food bank facility in Waipahu (94-446 Maikoiko Street, Waipahu, HI 96797). This 46,750 square-foot facility, the new Hawai'i Foodbank Distribution and Resiliency Center, will significantly enhance our capacity to store and distribute food, improve our disaster response capabilities, and create a community hub for education and engagement. Construction is expected to be completed in late 2027.

For over four decades, Hawai'i Foodbank has demonstrated resilience in providing food assistance through various challenges, including economic downturns, the global pandemic, federal funding loss, and natural disasters, such as the Maui wildfires.

To sustain our activities, we nurture and grow key community partnerships. We are incredibly grateful for our donors, which include foundations, corporations, government, and individuals, as well as in-kind support in the form of food donations from food drives, retailers, producers, wholesalers, and manufacturers.

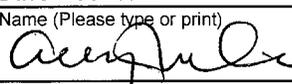

Hawai'i Foodbank staff and our 29-member volunteer board of directors work continuously to identify and evaluate potential sources of financial and food support.
