A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO MILITARY FAMILIES.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1           SECTION 1.    The legislature finds that military families
2 face unique challenges stemming from the demands of military
3 life, including frequent relocations, short-notice deployments,
4 and other service-related obligations.  These disruptions often
5 result in financial stress, food insecurity, and urgent needs
6 for time off from work to manage essential responsibilities such 7 as arranging childcare, attending military briefings, securing
8 legal and financial services, and ensuring continuity of care
9 for dependents.

10           The legislature further finds that Hawaii's family leave
11 law does not currently recognize qualifying exigencies
12 experienced by family members of military service members as a
13 permissible reason for family leave.  Aligning Hawaii's family
14 leave law with the federal Family and Medical Leave Act, which 15 acknowledges such exigencies, will provide critical support and 16 reinforce the State's commitment to those who serve.

1           Accordingly, the purpose of this Act is to strengthen
2 support for military families by expanding family leave
3 eligibility to include qualifying military exigencies.

4           SECTION 2. Section 398-1, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 5 amended by adding a new definition to be appropriately inserted
6 and to read as follows:

7           "Qualifying military exigency" means a qualifying exigency
8 that is related to active duty service, as provided in title 29
9 Code of Federal Regulations section 825.126, by an employee's 10 child, spouse, reciprocal beneficiary, sibling, grandchild, or 11 parent in the United States armed forces."

12           SECTION 3. Section 398-3, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 13 amended by amending subsection (a) to read as follows:

14           "(a) An employee shall be entitled to a total of four 15 weeks of family leave during any calendar year:

- 16           (1) Upon the birth of a child of the employee or the 17 adoption of a child; ~~or~~
- 18           (2) To care for the employee's child, spouse, reciprocal 19 beneficiary, sibling, grandchild, or parent with a 20 serious health condition~~[-]~~; or
- 21           (3) For a qualifying military exigency."

1 SECTION 4. Section 398-5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
2 amended to read as follows:

3 "§398-5 Notice. In any case in which the necessity for 4 family leave for purposes of birth or adoption of a child [~~or~~];
5 providing care to a child, spouse, reciprocal beneficiary,
6 sibling, or parent; or qualifying military exigency is 7 foreseeable, the employee shall provide the employer with prior 8 notice of the expected birth or adoption [~~or~~], serious health 9 condition, or qualifying military exigency in a manner that is 10 reasonable and practicable. Requests for family leave shall 11 include evidence that the employee has submitted the request and 12 provided required data in accordance with section 398-9.5."

13 SECTION 5. Section 398-6, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 14 amended to read as follows:

15 "§398-6 Certification. (a) An employer may require that 16 a claim for family leave be supported by written certification.

17 (b) For the birth of a child, certification shall be 18 issued by a health care provider or the family court. For the 19 placement of a child for adoption with the employee,
20 certification shall be issued by a recognized adoption agency,
21 the attorney handling the adoption, or by the individual

1 officially designated by the birth parent to select and approve
2 the adoptive family.

3 (c) When leave is to care for a child, spouse, reciprocal
4 beneficiary, sibling, grandchild, or parent who has a serious
5 health condition, certification shall be issued by the health
6 care provider of the individual requiring care. Certification 7 shall be considered sufficient if it provides information as 8 required by the director.

9 (d) When leave is for a qualifying military exigency,
10 documentation shall include a copy of official military orders."

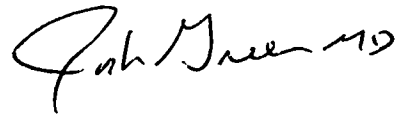

11 SECTION 6. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed
12 and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.

13 SECTION 7. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2026.
