Aloha,

The Center for Alternative Dispute Resolution (CADR) ensures that alternative dispute resolution is available in Hawai'i. CADR promotes access to ADR processes for early, efficient, and party-driven solutions.

To fulfill its mission, CADR:

- Designs and administers a range of education, training, and outreach programs for state and county government, and for the general public;
- Administers the Appellate Mediation Program;
- Manages the Judiciary's purchase of services contract for mediation and related dispute resolution services; and,
- Mediates and facilitates public policy disputes referred by elected or appointed government officials.

Mahalo nui loa to all the CADR volunteers for their dedication and commitment, and CADR staff for their hard work. This report summarizes CADR's work during FY 2024-2025.

Mahalo,

Sabrina S. McKenna
Acting Chief Justice

Center for Alternative Dispute Resolution

The Judiciary State of Hawai'i

Annual Report

July 1, 2024 - June 30, 2025

Presented to the Thirty-fourth Legislature

Pursuant to Hawai'i Revised Statutes §613-4

Highlights from Fiscal Year 2024 - 2025

Programs

Hawai'i Appellate Mediation Program (AMP)

From inception in 1995 to end of FY 2024-25, 835 cases entered the program. Of the 32 active cases in FY 2024–25, 12 settled or partially settled; 7 were returned to the ICA docket; 1 was withdrawn prior to mediation, and 11 cases carried over to the new fiscal year. The AMP achieved an overall settlement/partial settlement rate of 50 percent.

During FY 2024 – 2025, volunteer mediators provided more than 292 hours of mediation services.

Family Court, First Judicial Circuit Volunteer Settlement Master Program (VSM)

CADR continues to provide assistance to VSM, which provides divorcing or separating parents an alternative to litigation in the Family Court of the First Circuit. Nine of 11 active cases during FY 2024-2025 closed, with a 67 percent settlement rate.

Workplace Dispute Resolution Program

The Workplace Dispute Resolution Program (WDRP) is administered by CADR to provide mediation and facilitation options for Judiciary employees in workplace disputes. Since the program's expansion in 2019, 26 cases have been reviewed and 8 referred for mediation.

Training, Education, Outreach, and Research

Hawaii Guidelines for Mediators

Two members joined an ADR task force to update the Hawai'i Guidelines for Mediators, which the Hawai'i Supreme Court endorsed in May 2025.

Community Mediation Centers

CADR administers a purchase of services contract for mediation and related dispute resolution services with Mediation Centers of Hawai'i, Inc. (“MCH”). MCH serves as an umbrella organization for the five community mediation centers throughout the state.

In FY 2024-2025, the mediation centers opened 4,201 cases and served 11,083 clients.

Act 202: Pre-eviction Mediation Involving the Maui Wildfires

Of over 500 eviction cases, MMS and MCP have a 79 percent agreement rate. The program ends in February 2026.

Act 278: Statewide Pre-eviction Mediation Program

The Act allocates $2.5 million to the Judiciary for pre-eviction mediation services. The mediation program will run from February 2026 through February 2028.
