
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO JUVENILE OFFENDERS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature acknowledges and recognizes 2 that children are different from adults and that these 3 differences must be taken into account when children are being 4 sentenced for adult crimes. As noted by the United States
5 Supreme Court in Miller v. Alabama, 567 U.S. 460, 471 (2012), 6 "only a relatively small proportion of adolescents who engage in 7 illegal activity develop entrenched patterns of problem
8 behavior," and "developments in psychology and brain science 9 continue to show fundamental differences between juvenile and 10 adult minds," including "parts of the brain involved in behavior 11 control".

12 The legislature further finds that children are more 13 vulnerable to negative influences and outside pressures,
14 including from their family and peers, have limited control over 15 their own environment, and lack the ability to extricate 16 themselves from horrific, crime-producing settings. The United 17 States Supreme Court emphasized in Roper, Graham, Miller, and

1 Montgomery that the distinctive attributes of youth diminish the 2 penological justifications for imposing the harshest sentences
3 on juvenile offenders, even when they commit terrible crimes.

4 The legislature further acknowledges recent research 5 demonstrating high rates of adverse childhood experiences and 6 childhood trauma among children tried as adults. Specifically, 7 children tried as adults have often been victims of physical, 8 emotional, and sexual abuse and come from broken homes where 9 domestic violence, substance abuse, mental illness, and 10 incarceration are common.

11 Accordingly, the purpose of this Act is to allow courts to 12 modify the sentences of juvenile offenders if the court finds 13 that the defendant is not a danger to the safety of any person 14 or the community and the modification is in the interests of 15 justice after considering certain factors.

16 SECTION 2. Chapter 706, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 17 amended by adding a new section to part IV to be appropriately
18 designated and to read as follows:

19 "§706- Sentence modification for juvenile offenders.

20 (1) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the court
21 may reduce a term of imprisonment imposed upon a defendant

1 convicted as an adult for offenses committed and completed 2 before the defendant attained eighteen years of age if:

3 (a) The defendant has served not less than twelve years in 4 custody for the offenses; and

5 (b) The court finds, after considering the factors set 6 forth in subsection (3), that the defendant is not a
7 danger to the safety of any person or the community
8 and that the interests of justice warrant a sentence
9 modification.

10 (2) Any defendant whose sentence is reduced pursuant to 11 subsection (1) shall be ordered to serve a period of supervised 12 release of not less than three years following release from 13 imprisonment. The period of supervised release shall be 14 administered in the manner of parole supervision under this 15 part, and conditions of supervised release and responses to 16 violations shall be governed by the applicable parole
17 provisions.

18 (3) The court, in determining whether to reduce a term of 19 imprisonment pursuant to subsection (1), shall consider:

20 (a) The nature of the offense and the history and 21 characteristics of the defendant;

- 1 (b) The age of the defendant at the time of the offense;
- 2 (c) A report and recommendation of the department of 3 corrections and rehabilitation, including information
4 on whether the defendant has substantially complied 5 with the rules of each institution in which the 6 defendant has been confined and whether the defendant
7 has completed any educational, vocational, or other 8 prison program, where available;
- 9 (d) The recommendation of the prosecuting attorney from 10 the county in which the defendant was prosecuted;
- 11 (e) Whether the defendant has demonstrated maturity,
12 rehabilitation, and a fitness to reenter society
13 sufficient to justify a sentence reduction;
- 14 (f) Any statement, which may be presented orally or 15 otherwise, by any victim of an offense for which the 16 defendant is imprisoned or by a family member of the 17 victim if the victim is deceased;
- 18 (g) Any report from a physical, mental, or psychiatric 19 examination of the defendant conducted by a licensed 20 health care professional;

- 1 (h) The family and community circumstances of the 2 defendant at the time of the offense, including any 3 history of abuse, trauma, or involvement in the child 4 welfare system;
- 5 (i) The extent of the role of the defendant in the offense
6 and whether, and to what extent, an adult was involved 7 in the offense;
- 8 (j) The diminished culpability of juveniles as compared to 9 that of adults, and the hallmark features of youth, 10 including immaturity, impetuosity, and failure to 11 appreciate risks and consequences, which counsel
12 against sentencing children to the otherwise 13 applicable term of imprisonment; and
- 14 (k) Any other information the court determines relevant to 15 the decision of the court.
- 16 (4) If the court denies or grants, in part, a motion to 17 reduce a sentence under this section, the defendant shall not:
- 18 (a) File a second motion to reduce a sentence for at least 19 three years;
- 20 (b) File a third motion to reduce a sentence for at least 21 three years; or

1 (c) File a fourth motion to reduce a sentence.

2 (5) The department of corrections and rehabilitation shall 3 provide written notice of this section to any defendant who has 4 served not less than twelve years in prison for offenses
5 committed and completed before the defendant attained eighteen 6 years of age for which the defendant was convicted as an adult.

7 (6) A request for sentence modification under this section 8 shall:

9 (a) Be filed as a motion to reduce the sentence of the 10 defendant and may include affidavits or other written 11 material; and

12 (b) Be filed with the sentencing court and a copy shall be 13 served on the prosecuting attorney in the county in 14 which the sentence was imposed.

15 (7) After the filing of a motion to reduce a sentence
16 pursuant to this section:

17 (a) The court may direct the parties to expand the record 18 by submitting additional written materials relating to 19 the motion;

- 1 (b) The court shall conduct a hearing on the motion, at 2 which the defendant and counsel for the defendant
3 shall be given the opportunity to be heard;
- 4 (c) The court may allow parties to present evidence;
- 5 (d) The defendant shall be present unless the defendant
6 waives the right to be present; provided that this 7 requirement may be satisfied by the defendant
8 appearing by video teleconference;
- 9 (e) A defendant who is unable to obtain counsel is 10 entitled to have counsel appointed to represent the 11 defendant for proceedings under this section, 12 including any appeal, unless the defendant waives the 13 right to counsel; and
- 14 (f) The court shall state in open court, and file in 15 writing, the reasons for granting or denying a motion 16 under this section.
- 17 (8) The prosecuting attorney or the defendant may file a 18 notice of appeal for review of a final order under this 19 section."

1 SECTION 3. This Act shall have retroactive application and 2 apply to any sentences imposed on juvenile offenders entered 3 before, on, or after the effective date of this Act.

4 SECTION 4. If any provision of this Act, or the 5 application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held 6 invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or 7 applications of the Act that can be given effect without the 8 invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions
9 of this Act are severable.

10 SECTION 5. New statutory material is underscored.

11 SECTION 6. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.

S.B. NO. 2325

Report Title:

Sentencing; Juvenile Offenders; Sentence Modification; Interest of Justice

Description:

Authorizes courts to modify sentences imposed on juvenile offenders if certain conditions are met and the court finds that the defendant is not a danger to the safety of any person or the community and the modification is in the interests of justice after considering certain factors. Establishes procedures, provides for hearings and representation by counsel, and authorizes appellate review. (SD1)
