PROFILE

Aria Juliet Castillo is born and raised on the island of Kaua'i. After graduating from college and living in Los Angeles for a few years, she returned home to work in marketing but found a passion for local politics instead. Since 2014, she has worked on various campaigns on the state and county levels for political movements, candidates, and PACS. Aria was a founding board member of Hawai'i Alliance for Progressive Action (HAPA), and the co-founder of Kuleana Academy, a non-partisan, political, civic, and community-rooted leadership accelerator program. Aria serves as the Reclaiming Democracy Program Director.
