A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO DISASTER SERVICES.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1           SECTION 1. The legislature finds that one in five Hawaii
2 residents has a disability, and many require functional or 3 access support before, during, and after disasters. These 4 individuals often encounter disproportionate risks, including 5 difficulty evacuating without proper supports; lack of 6 accessible transportation; barriers to receiving emergency
7 alerts and evacuation orders in formats that they can 8 understand; and obstacles in accessing shelters, emergency 9 medical care, and post-disaster relief programs, such as 10 housing, food, and financial assistance.

11           The legislature further finds that in the immediate 12 aftermath of the 2023, Maui wildfires, many individuals with 13 disabilities faced significant impediments to accessing 14 emergency shelters and services. Shelters often lacked physical 15 accessibility, disability-trained staff, and coordinated
16 resources to address medical and functional needs. Nonprofit 17 organizations and community members stepped in to fill these

1 gaps; however, the lack of a planned, coordinated response by 2 state and county agencies highlighted systemic inequities in 3 disaster preparedness and response for individuals with 4 disabilities.

5       The legislature additionally finds that although the 6 legislature passed Act 210, Session Laws of Hawaii 2024, to 7 establish a limited English proficiency language access
8 coordinator within the Hawaii emergency management agency, that 9 position addresses only the needs of limited English proficient
10 individuals under state and federal language access laws.
11 Importantly, American Sign Language does not fall under the 12 language access law, as American Sign Language is not a foreign 13 language but a distinct language of the deaf community. The 14 rights of individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing, blind, or 15 have other disabilities fall within the scope of the Americans 16 with Disabilities Act, not language access statutes.

17       Accordingly, there remains a critical gap in disaster
18 services planning and response for individuals with 19 disabilities, including those who use American Sign Language and 20 those with access and functional needs. A disability
21 integration specialist position, serving as the State's

1 emergency management specialist within the Hawaii emergency 2 management agency, is necessary to ensure compliance with the 3 Americans with Disabilities Act and related federal and state
4 disability laws, coordinate disability-related planning, advise
5 on current best and promising practices, and guarantee 6 accessible disaster services for all individuals with 7 disabilities and access and functional needs.

8         Furthermore, the legislature finds that section 308 of the 9 Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act
10 (Stafford Act, Public Law 93-288, as amended) requires entities
11 receiving Federal Emergency Management Agency funding to ensure 12 equitable access to disaster services for individuals with 13 disabilities. Federal Emergency Management Agency guidance also 14 requires disability integration throughout emergency management, 15 emphasizing planning, preparedness, response, recovery, and 16 mitigation.

17         Therefore, the purpose of this Act is to:

18         (1) Add disability- and access-and-functional-needs-
19                 related planning, preparedness, response, recovery, 20                 and mitigation to the designated functions of the 21                 Hawaii emergency management agency; and

1           (2) Appropriate funds to the Hawaii emergency management
 2           agency for the establishment of a disability
 3           integration specialist, who shall serve as the 4           emergency management specialist and provide 5           programming support for disability and access and 6           functional needs community projects that promote 7           accessibility, inclusion, and equity in disaster
 8           management.

9           SECTION 2. Section 76-16, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 10          amended by amending subsection (b) to read as follows:

11          "(b) The civil service to which this chapter applies shall 12          comprise all positions in the State now existing or hereafter 13          established and embrace all personal services performed for the 16           National Guard and positions in the Hawaii National
