
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO HOUSING.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that Hawaii is in the 2 midst of a crisis as a substantial number of residents are 3 unable to secure attainable housing to rent or own. The 4 exorbitant cost of real estate renders homeownership
5 unattainable for many local families, with the average price of 6 a home in Hawaii surpassing $800,000, an amount considerably
7 beyond the financial reach of most local working residents.

8 The legislature further finds that Hawaii has been 9 struggling with outmigration as local working residents are 10 compelled to leave the islands in search of more affordable
11 living situations. The department of business, economic 12 development, and tourism reported that between July 1, 2022, and 13 July 1, 2023, Hawaii's population decreased by twelve people
14 each day. As a result, for the first time in history, a greater 15 number of Native Hawaiians reside outside of Hawaii than in it.
16 This exodus signifies a loss not only of population but also of 17 cultural heritage.

1 A 2025 Holomua Collective survey of more than three 2 thousand two hundred local working residents found that seventy-
3 five per cent of respondents are either planning to leave Hawaii
4 or are unsure they can stay due to the high cost of living.
5 Among those who expect to move, about one-third said they plan
6 to leave within five years, while many others were unsure of 7 their timeline.

8 The legislature also finds that another crucial aspect of 9 Hawaii's housing crisis is the shortage of attainable workforce
10 housing for essential workers like teachers, police officers, 11 health care providers, and others who serve the community. With 12 limited attainable workforce housing options and high building
13 costs, it is becoming increasingly difficult to find suitable 14 places for these workers to live, driving crucial workers to 15 relocate to the mainland United States. Allowing people to live
16 closer to where they work will help preserve infrastructure,
17 reduce greenhouse gas emissions, improve workers' mental health,
18 and help businesses by reducing commute times.

19 The legislature additionally finds that like Hawaii, the 20 town of Vail, Colorado has a tourism-based economy in which 21 local working residents struggle to find attainable housing in

1 part due to the large percentage of vacant homes owned by non-
2 residents. In 2018, in an attempt to provide for local 3 workforce housing and invest in the future of its town, the town
4 of Vail implemented "Vail InDEED", a voluntary program that 5 allowed the town to buy and place deed restrictions in 6 perpetuity on local homes from willing buyers that limited
7 occupancy to owner-occupants or resident tenants who live and 8 work in the town of Vail. In conjunction with other government
9 efforts, this program has resulted in the establishment of over 10 one thousand deed-restricted residences for local working 11 residents, helped provide more attainable housing options for 12 local working residents, and created a culture in which Vail
13 residents want to live in and support deed-restricted
14 residences.

15 The legislature believes Hawaii can learn from the town of 16 Vail, and that a program similar to Vail InDEED could develop a 17 stock of homes in Hawaii that are dedicated to locals. This 18 program could be effective in helping local families buy homes
19 by bringing together the needs of employers, workers, and the 20 community. Prioritizing workforce housing that ensures
21 occupants live or work in the vicinity of their home will help

1 alleviate the shortage of workforce housing, reduce traffic and 2 emissions of greenhouse gases, mitigate adverse impacts from new 3 development, and build stronger communities. Additionally, this 4 program would not only aid people in securing housing but would 5 also contribute to the preservation of Hawaii's distinctive 6 culture by ensuring that local families remain in the State.

7 The legislature emphasizes the importance of responsible
8 stewardship of public funds. One means of fulfilling this 9 responsibility is ensuring that public investments in housing
10 result in a retained public equity interest.

11 Deed restrictions on real property have a quantifiable
12 financial value for the holder of the deed restriction, and this 13 value tends to grow and appreciate over time. Deed restrictions
14 may also be bought and sold. Any deed restriction purchased by 15 a county creates an equity interest in the underlying property,
16 which may be sold in the future if doing so serves the public
17 interest.

18 Accordingly, the purpose of this Act is to establish the 19 kamaaina homes program as an investment in the future of Hawaii
20 and keep local working families in the State by securing a 21 dedicated housing supply specifically for locals.

1 SECTION 2. Chapter 201H, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 2 amended by adding a new subpart to part III to be appropriately
