
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO CHARITABLE SOLICITATION.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that individuals who 2 donate tangible property using collection bins or receptacles 3 may reasonably believe that the tangible property is donated 4 directly to charitable organizations, and may also reasonably 5 believe they are entitled to a federal income tax credit 6 deduction for the value of the donated property.

7 The legislature also finds that in some cases, the entities 8 operating collection bins or receptacles on behalf of the 9 charity will pay the charity based on the weight of the donated 10 items received, which can be as low as two to five cents per 11 pound, and then re-sell the donated property at for-profit 12 retail locations. Most donors are not aware of these 13 arrangements between the collection bin operator and associated 14 charitable organizations.

15 The legislature further finds that chapter 467B, Hawaii 16 Revised Statutes, does not adequately address this charitable 17 solicitation business model.

1 Accordingly, the purpose of this Act is to regulate 2 professional solicitors that operate collection bins or 3 receptacles to solicit and accept donation of non-perishable 4 tangible property, purportedly to benefit charitable 5 organizations, but then process or re-sell the donated tangible 6 property in for-profit retail or thrift stores.

7 SECTION 2. Section 467B-1, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 8 amended as follows:

9 1. By amending the definition of "contribution" to read:

10 ""Contribution" means the promise or grant of any money or 11 property of any kind or value, including [~~the~~] non-perishable 12 tangible property, or a promise to pay[7] or pledge, except 13 payments by members of a charitable organization for membership 14 fees, dues, fines, or assessments, or for services rendered to 15 individual members, if membership in the charitable organization 16 confers a bona fide right, privilege, professional standing, 17 honor, or other direct benefit, other than the right to vote, 18 elect officers, or hold offices, and except money or property
19 received from any governmental authority, or a grant or subsidy 20 from any organization exempt from taxation under section 21 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code."

2. By amending the definition of "solicit" and "solicitation" to read:

"Solicit" and "solicitation" mean a request directly or indirectly for money, credit, property, financial assistance, or thing of value on the plea or representation that the money, credit, property, financial assistance, or thing of value, or any portion thereof, will be used for a charitable purpose or to benefit a charitable organization. These terms shall include the following:

(1) Any oral or written request;

(2) The making of any announcement to any organization for the purpose of further dissemination, including announcements to the press, over the radio or television, or by telephone, telegraph, or facsimile, concerning an appeal or campaign by or for any charitable organization or purpose;

(3) The distribution, circulation, posting, or publishing of any handbill, written advertisement, or other publication that directly or by implication seeks to obtain public support;

- 1 (4) Where the sale or offer or attempted sale, of any 2 advertisement, advertising space, book, card, tag, 3 coupon, device, magazine, membership, merchandise, 4 subscription, flower, ticket, candy, cookies, or other 5 tangible item in connection with which any appeal is 6 made for any charitable organization or purpose; or 7 where the name of any charitable organization is used 8 or referred to in any appeal as an inducement or 9 reason for making any sale; or where in connection 10 with any sale, any statement is made that the whole or 11 any part of the proceeds from any sale will be used 12 for any charitable purpose or to benefit any 13 charitable organization; and
- 14 (5) A request made through the use of receptacles for 15 contributions, including non-perishable tangible 16 property, such as honor boxes, vending machines, 17 wishing wells, contribution boxes, [~~and~~] novelty 18 machines, and collection bins or containers, where a 19 charitable appeal is used or referred to or implied as 20 an inducement or reason to contribute.

1 A solicitation occurs whether or not the person making the 2 solicitation receives any contribution. However, the term shall 3 not include the submission of a grant or subsidy proposal or 4 application to a governmental authority or any organization 5 exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal 6 Revenue Code."

7 SECTION 3. Section 467B-2.5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 8 amended to read as follows:

9 "§467B-2.5 Professional solicitor financial reports;
10 contribution account. (a) A professional solicitor shall file 11 with the attorney general a financial report for any charitable 12 solicitation campaign, including gross revenue from Hawaii 13 donors and national gross revenue and an itemization of all

2 report required by subsection (a) to be submitted 3 electronically and may require the use of electronic

5 solicitor, or an authorized officer or agent of the professional 6 solicitor who shall certify that the statements therein are true 7 and correct to the best of the solicitor's, officer's, or 8 agent's knowledge subject to penalties imposed by section 9 710-1063. If a financial report required under this section is 10 not filed in a timely manner, taking into account any extension 11 of time for filing, unless it is shown that the failure is due 12 to reasonable cause, an initial late filing fee of $100 shall be 13 imposed, and an additional late filing fee of $20 per day shall 14 be imposed, for each day during which the violation continues; 15 provided that the total fee amount imposed under this subsection 16 shall not exceed $1,000. The attorney general may waive all or 17 part of the late filing fee imposed by this subsection if 18 there is a reasonable cause for the failure to timely file.
19 The professional solicitor shall provide a copy of the 20 financial report to the charitable organization to which the

1 financial report pertains within ten days of its submission 2 of the report to the attorney general.

20 attorney general pursuant to this section shall be reported in

1 writing by the professional solicitor to the attorney general 2 not more than seven days after the change occurs.

3 (e) Each contribution in the control or custody of the 4 professional solicitor in its entirety and within five days of 5 its receipt, shall be deposited in an account at a bank or other 6 federally insured financial institution, which shall be in the 7 name of the charitable organization. The charitable 8 organization shall maintain and administer the account and shall 9 have sole control of all withdrawals.

10 (f) If the professional solicitor, directly or indirectly, 11 sells donated or collected tangible non-perishable property, the 12 professional solicitor shall deposit the full amount owed to the 13 charitable organization by the professional solicitor in an 14 account at a bank or other federally insured financial 15 institution, which shall be in the name of that charitable 16 organization, within forty-five days after the sale.

17 (g) If the professional solicitor, directly or indirectly,

12 tend to confuse or mislead the public.

13 (c) No person, in connection with any solicitation or 14 sale, shall misrepresent or mislead anyone by any manner, means, 15 practice, or device whatsoever, to believe that the solicitation 16 or sale is being conducted on behalf of a charitable
