A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO INSURANCE.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1           SECTION 1. Chapter 431, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 2 amended by adding a new section to article 10A, part I, to be 3 appropriately designated and to read as follows:
4           "§431:10A-           Standard fertility preservation services 5 coverage. (a) Each individual or group policy of accident and 6 health or sickness insurance issued or renewed in the State 7 after December 31, 2026, shall provide to the policyholder or 8 any dependent of the policyholder who is covered under the 9 policy, coverage for standard fertility preservation services
10 for any insured who may undergo a medically necessary treatment
11 that may directly or indirectly cause iatrogenic infertility.
12           (b) No policy that provides coverage for standard
13 fertility preservation services as required by subsection (a) 14 shall:
15           (1) Use any prior diagnosis or prior fertility treatment
16           as a basis for excluding, limiting, or otherwise

1 restricting the availability of the required coverage;

2 or

3 (2) Discriminate based on the insured's expected length of 4 life, present or predicted disability, degree of 5 medical dependency, perceived quality of life, or

6 other health conditions.

7 (c) Except as provided in subsection (b), any limitations

8 imposed by a policy shall be based on the insured's medical

9 history and clinical guidelines adopted by the insurer. Any 10 clinical guidelines used by the insurer shall be based on the 11 2018 update to the American Society of Clinical Oncology

12 guidelines and shall not deviate from the full scope of the 13 guidelines.

14 (d) For the purposes of this section:

15 "American Society of Clinical Oncology guidelines" means

16 the clinical practice guidelines on fertility preservation in

17 people with cancer published by the American Society of Clinical

18 Oncology.

19 "Iatrogenic infertility" means an impairment of fertility

20 caused directly or indirectly by surgery, chemotherapy,

14       the clinical practice guidelines on fertility preservation in 15       people with cancer published by the American Society of Clinical 16       Oncology.

17       "Iatrogenic infertility" means an impairment of fertility
18       caused directly or indirectly by surgery, chemotherapy,
19       radiation, or other medical treatment affecting the reproductive 20       organs or processes.

1       "Medically necessary treatment that may directly or 2 indirectly cause iatrogenic infertility" means any 3 cancer-related medical treatment with a likely side effect of 4 infertility.

5       "Standard fertility preservation services" means the 6 procedures to preserve fertility as outlined and established
7 according to the 2018 update to the American Society of Clinical 8 Oncology guidelines. "Standard fertility preservation services" 9 include the full scope of services or treatments, without any 10 exclusions or limitations, as defined in the 2018 update to the 11 American Society of Clinical Oncology guidelines. "Standard 12 fertility preservation services" does not include:

- 13       (1) Any experimental procedures or other procedures not 14 determined to be established medical practices
15 according to the 2018 update to the American Society
16 of Clinical Oncology guidelines;
17       (2) Third-party assisted reproduction technology
18 procedures, including donor egg, sperm retrieval, or 19 surrogates and gestational carriers; and 20       (3) Any services relating to cryopreservation storage."

1 SECTION 3. Section 432D-23, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 2 amended to read as follows:

3 "§432D-23 Required provisions and benefits.
