
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

NOMINATING JOHN D. WAIHE'E III FOR INDUCTION INTO THE ALOHA ORDER
OF MERIT.

1 WHEREAS, John D. Waihe'e III made history as the first 2 Native Hawaiian to be elected as Governor of any state in the 3 United States, serving as the fourth Governor of the State from 4 1986 to 1994; and
5

6 WHEREAS, John D. Waihe'e III's election as Governor was 7 nationally and internationally significant, representing a
8 milestone for Native Hawaiian leadership and inspiring
9 indigenous peoples across the United States and beyond; and 10

11 WHEREAS, John D. Waihe'e III distinguished himself
12 nationally and internationally by working closely with 13 presidents, governors, and foreign leaders, and elevating the 14 State's role as a bridge between the United States and the Asia-
15 Pacific region; and 16

17 WHEREAS, John D. Waihe'e III was chosen by his fellow
18 governors to serve as the Chair of the Democratic Governors
19 Association in 1992, placing a governor from the State in a
20 prominent national leadership role and reflecting the respect
21 and confidence of his peers during a pivotal election year; and 22

23 WHEREAS, John D. Waihe'e III also served as Chair of the 24 Education Commission of the States, through which he helped 25 shape national education policy and strengthen public education
26 systems across the country while advocating for strong federal-27 state collaboration to support the State's schools; and 28

29 WHEREAS, during the period of military downsizing and 30 economic transition in the early 1990s, John D. Waihe'e III
31 worked with federal leaders to support economic diversification,
32 workforce development, and long-term stability for the State's 33 economy; and

WHEREAS, John D. Waihe'e III implemented and advanced the State's QUEST health care program, an innovative Medicaid managed care model designed to expand access to health coverage for low-income and working families, which received national recognition as a pioneering example of effective federal-state partnership in health care reform; and

WHEREAS, as the first Native Hawaiian governor of any state, John D. Waihe'e III brought the voice and concerns of indigenous peoples into federal policy discussions, elevating the State's national stature and bringing distinction and honor to the State; and

WHEREAS, John D. Waihe'e III served as a delegate and emerging leader at the State's Constitutional Convention of 1978, where he and fellow delegates championed reforms that reshaped the State's government and society, including establishing the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, formally recognizing the Hawaiian language as an official language of the State, strengthening protections for natural and cultural resources, and increasing government ethics and accountability, demonstrating his commitment to the betterment of all the people of the State; and

WHEREAS, John D. Waihe'e III further advanced the national dialogue on reconciliation and Native Hawaiian rights through the Hawaiian Sovereignty Advisory Commission, efforts that helped lay the groundwork for the 1993 Apology Resolution, Public Law 103-150; and

WHEREAS, John D. Waihe'e III devoted his administration to the betterment of the people of the State, promoting educational opportunity, economic development, social equity, and environmental stewardship; and

WHEREAS, John D. Waihe'e III continues to contribute to the well-being of the State through public commentary, civic engagement, and leadership in critical policy discussions, including his advocacy for resilience and accountability in the State's energy sector, as expressed in opinion articles

1 published in Honolulu Civil Beat in 2024 and 2025, and through
2 his ongoing promotion of the State's role as a vital bridge
3 between Pacific nations and the United States while serving as 4 Chair of the Board of Governors of the East-West Center; and 5

6 WHEREAS, through his current efforts in media, opinion
7 editorials, and civic forums, John D. Waihe'e III exemplifies
8 lifelong service to the State, demonstrating that his leadership 9 did not conclude with public office but continues to uplift and 10 guide the lahui; and
11

12 WHEREAS, the Legislature established the Aloha Order of 13 Merit in 1993 to honor certain individuals, and section 5-7.6, 14 Hawaii Revised Statutes, provides in relevant part that 15 "[h]onorees shall have:
16

- 17 (1) Achieved national or international recognition in 18 their field either by a single event or by the 19 totality of their work that has been either pioneering 20 in their field or that has been outstanding in the 21 long-term; and
22
- 23 (2) (A) Contributed to the attainment of statehood for 24 Hawaii;
25
- 26 (B) Devoted themselves to the betterment of the 27 State, embodying the concept of the Aloha Spirit;
28
- 29 (C) Provided extraordinary service to the State; or 30
- 31 (D) Brought honor to the State"; and 32

33 WHEREAS, John D. Waihe'e III has achieved national and 34 international recognition as a statesman and advocate for the 35 State and its people through the totality of his work that has 36 been outstanding in the long-term; and 37

38 WHEREAS, John D. Waihe'e III has devoted himself to the 39 betterment of the State while embodying the concept of the Aloha
40 Spirit, provided extraordinary service to the State, and brought 41 honor to the State; and 42

H.C.R. NO. 101

1 WHEREAS, John D. Waihe'e III meets all requirements
2 necessary to be inducted as a member of the Aloha Order of 3 Merit; now, therefore,
4

5 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 6 Thirty-third Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session
7 of 2026, the Senate concurring, that this body nominates John D.
8 Waihe'e III for induction into the Aloha Order of Merit; and 9

10 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this
11 Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the members of the Aloha
